HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

Fine Programme Rendered at the Sixteenth Annual Commencement. The entertainment provided by the class of '97, at the sixteenth high school commencement, was one of the best ever given by the graduating classes. A very pleasing variety are afforded for the class being small. The essays

The stage of the Grand Opera house was decorated in an artistic manner that he was seized by a cramp and with palms, ferns and rare flowers. The exercises opened with the anthem "Praise the Lord," under the direction of Professor W. D. Evans. Then came salutatory address by Miss Ella F. Horan, whose well chosen subject was "The Memory of Home." The effort was appropriate and was well received. Messrs. Evans. Tappan, Crane and R. Hockenberry rendered a pleasing vocal selection, which was followed by a recitation, "He Worried About It," by Miss Margaret F. Morrison, which pleased the audience. Ray-mond Hockenberry gave with good an interesting historical account of the past sixteen years. It was a valuable paper and full of interest. A charming solo was then rendered, "If Papa Were Only Ready," by little Blodwin Davis. Miss Emma L. Barrett recited Turned Lesson," and received liberal applause. After a vocal solo by Professor Evans, the class poem, by Miss Isabelle Freeman Watt, was read, and received warm expressions of appreciation. The valedictory address was given by Miss Grace E. Munn upon "The Science of Education." The subject was treated in an able manner and appropriate words were spoken to classmates, friends and the board of

After selections by the High School quartette, composed of Messrs, Bridgett, Dix, Pendleton and M. Hocken-berry, School Director J. W. Dimock came forward and, in a very appropriate address, presented diplomas to six young lady graduates. Professor H. J. Hockenberry then gave his address on the subject, "What Becomes of the Boys Who Graduate?" This earnest appeal will prove valuable reading when printed in full, and will quent discourse.

The commencement was one of the most interesting in the history of the Stephenson-Alvord Wedding.

At high noon yesterday the marriage of Miss Gertrude Alvord of this city, and Frank S. Stephenson of Waymart, was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Alvord, of Thorne avenue. The house had been prettily decorated. Rev. Charles Lee performed the ceremony. The bride wore a travelling dress of and carried a boquet of bride roses. She was attended by her little cousin, Miss Frances Bellamy, of Scranton, who acted as flower girl. After the ceremony refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson left at two o'clock on their bridal trip, which will include Binghamton, Albany, the Hudson and New York. On their return they will take up their residence in Waymart, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson received many beautiful gifts from and Surgeons, Mr. Missett's duties will their many friends. Meeting of the Select Council. All the members of the select council were present on Monday evening at the regular meeting. An invitation extended to the city councils by Mayor Green, of Binghamton, to attend the laying of the corner stone of the new municipal building in that city on July 3 was received and accepted, provided there is no home city celebration. The subject of the electric fire alarm system was then considered. Much opposition has been excited by the report fixing the location of the alarm boxes. The matter will receive further attention and a report made. Some general busias followed. The committee instructing the city solicitor to prepare an orlinance regulating bicycle riding reported that the ordinance was not desirable. The council adjourned to meet in special session on Wednesday evening to pass the paving ordinance.
