"OLEG ' EXPENSE BILLS.

Around two of these expense bills were thrown great secrecy. Mr. Mitchell, of Jefferson, introduced the bill to defray the expenses of the "oleo" investigating committee. It was hurriedly taken away from the clerk's desk by Senator Critchfield. for both cuts. The Merrick school bill passed by a vote of 110 to 65. The measure divides the public school fund by giving onethird on the basis of the number of schools, one third on the school children between 6 and 16 years and the balance on the taxables. It is in the interest of the country districts. The horizontal tax bill was reported from the ways and means committee with a negative recommendation. The Philadelphia members put in an hour discussing the Becker three-fifths confirmation bill, after which it went through by a vote of 128 to 51. Recess

Mr. Hosack says: "I am very anxious this committee shall cost the state as little as possible being responsible for its creation. BILL TO PROTECT MOTORMEN.

Senate Committee Hear Arguments

for Vestibuled Cars. Harrisburg, June 23.-The senate committee on railroads, gave a hearing yesterday afternoon to the advocates of the bill for the protection of motormen. Among others who addressed the committee were Mr. Crothers, of the house, the father of the bill; George Chance, president of the United Labor league, of Philadelphia, who made a stirring appeal for the motormen; Mrs. Scribner, president of the Woman's Protective association, who with the treasurer, Mrs. Decker, made their third appeal to the committee for favorable consideration of this bill, which has passed the house. A repre-sentative of the motormen of Johnstown also made an address and pictured the sufferings of the motormen when the thermometer is below zero.

The committee went into executive session at the close of the meeting and decided to postpone action until Friday, when representatives of the traction companies will be invited to be present for a final hearing on the bill.
