THE FEAST OF ROSES.

A Novel Entertainment Given by the Hendrick Mission.

Under the management of Mes dames O. L. Utley and A. P. Trautwein a delightful entertainment, "The Feast of Roses," for the Hendrick mission of the Baptist church was given on Tuesday evening. The Lincoln avenue home of Mr. Trautwein was decorated in a most artistic manner for the occasion. Festoons of roses were suspended in the rooms and rare plants of various kinds beautified the bouse. Mrs. Trautwein received the guests and a large gathering enjoyed the refreshments and purchased roses for the benefit of the mission. The programme which was rendered was

When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work; when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look the blood of the stop on our shument. out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force. He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow;" but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutritious elements and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all billious impurities and pour into the circulation on abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength, and nerwe-energy.
