ADMIRALS VISIT THE QUEEN

Practically All of the British Warships Are in Line.

Distinguished Visitors Who Will See the Parade .- The New York Will Take Hundreds of Americans to Witness the Sea Spectacle Next Saturday--Some of the Distinguished Passengers.

Portsmouth, Eng., June 24.-Already there is a big assemblage of yachts in the Solent to witness the great naval review of Saturday next. Practically all the warships, British and foreign, are in line, and they present a most imposing sight. The American line steamships will carry a full comple-ment of pasengers to the review. On board the New York, among others, will be Sir Patrick Blake, former Congressman W. Boukre Cockran, Sir Charles Forbes, Mr. Knatchbull-Hugesson, Lord Cecil Manners, Admiral Sir George Nares and 450 others, mostly

The White Star line steamship Teu tonic left Liverpool today as an armed cruiser. She has on board, in addition to her regular crew, who are all naval reserve men, twenty blue jackets of the royal navy, twenty boys from the school Conway and 100 boys from the orphanage ship Indefatigable. The armament of the Teutonic consists of eight quick fire guns and eight Nordenfeldt guns.

J. Bruce Ismay, of the White Star line, will have 300 guests for the review, including Chauncey M. Depew Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Leiter, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer: C. T. Ritchie, the president of the board of trade: the Countess of Derby Lord and Lady Charles Beresford, the Marquis of Dufferin and Lady Dufferin, Lord and Lady Lonsdale, Lord and Lady Playfair, the Earl of Warwick, and Mrs. Henry M. MASSACRE OF THE sociation of Pennsylvania, the first business session was called to order at 9 o'clock. There was serious danger of contest being waged by the two sets of delegates from the Fifth Avenue church, of which J. T. Jones, of this place, was former pastor, The chairman refused to admit either set of delegates. The election of modera-tor followed, and this was practically a fight between the Jones people and the anti-Jones people. The Jones peo-ple placed in nomination R. S. Davis, of Scranton, while the anti-Jones faction nominated R. R. Davis, of Meadville. Much interest was taken in the balloting, and twice a tie vote resulted. On the third ballot, R. R. Davis was elected, and the defeat of the Jones faction was taken very hard. Dr. R. S. Davis, the nominee of the other side, was then elected as assistant moderator, with no opposition. The afternoon's session was largely devoted to appointment of committees and reading of papers. At 4 o'clock a discussion of "The Women's Home Missionary Union" commenced and lasted until adjournment. The association tonight refused to investigate the trouble in the Fifth Avenue church, of Pittsburg, which occurred last summer, and which resulted in the resignation of the pastor Tonight's services closed the ceremonial celebration of the Ebensburg Congregational church and the eleventh annual session of the State Congregational society. The attendance throughout was very large.

Lebanon, Ind., June 24 .- About three years ago William Billger, of Philadelphia, opened , a floral establishment here, and soon after wooed and won Miss Agnes Martin, daughter of Captain Robert Martin. Their marriage was to have taken place during the spring of 1896, but in April of that year he appeared in court as plaintiff in a divorce suit in which he accused his wife, a resident of Philadelphia, with infidelity. Subsequently, accompanied by their children, she arrived here, employed counsel, filed an emphatic denial to her husband's charges and

Brussels, June 24.-The Reform says it learns from a god source that the entire Dhanis expedition to the head waters of the Nile, including

Baron Dhanis himself, has been massacred Baron Dhanis last year enlisted 6. 000 men in the Congo Free state to take part in a secret expedition. The British government allowed a number of its Hussas troops to join the expedition, but it was officially denied that an Anglo-Belgian movement had been concerted against the Mahdists. The general impression, however, was that this force was intended to act in conjunction with the Anglo-Egyptian expedition up the Nile and take the Mahdists between two fires, and eventually complete the reconquest of the Soudan. In August last Baron Dhanis was reported to have arrived at Lado, north of the territory proper of the Congo Free state, on the White Nile, and some 325 miles north of the Victoria Nyanza. It was then understood that the Dhanis expedition would push on aorthward in the direction of Khar-

Later it was authoritatively stated that there was no ground for the report that the baron had been killed and that when last heard from, in September, he was at Stanley Falls, 600 miles from the nearest Dervish forces.

Baron Dhanis was born in London in March, 1862, of a Belgian father and a mother of English extraction. He was educated in Scotland and in Belgium and entered the military school at Brussels in 1882. In 1884 he became a lieutenant in an infantry regiment and, later, he was intrusted with a mission to Zanzibar by the International African association. He soon dis-played considerable ability and wis appointed by the Belgian government to the command of the expedition to Ka-

Curzon, replied to the question of Ernest William Beckett, conservative member for the Whitby division of the North Riding of Yorkshire, regarding Hawaii and annexation, Mr. Beckett asked whether the government was aware that "Queen Lillüokalani has been deposed by a small body of Americans, who, without right or title, have assumed sovereignty over Hawali, and now, to save themselves from the resentment of the people, have requested the American government to annex Hawaii, and whether Great Britain proposed to allow this most important. coaling station to pass into the hands f the United States without protest.

Mr. Curzon said her majesty's gov-ernment did not feel called upon to express an opinion relative to the circumstances out of which the present situation in Hawali had arisen. The government was aware that a proposal to annex Hawaii to the United States had been submitted by the president of the United States for the consideration of the United States senate; but no de-cision had been reached. Mr. Curzon added that it would be the object of her majesty's government to see that whatever rights, according to international law, belong to Great Britain and to British subjects are fully maintained.

BEGINS A FIGHT ON MRS. LEASE.

Eastern Company Determined tha She Shall Pay a Judgment.

Kansas City, June 24 .- A few months ago the home of Mrs. Mary E. Lease, of Wichita, Kan., was sold under foreclosure of a $1,600 mortgage. The castern company which held the mortgage bid it in for $600, and under the Kansas laws secured judgment against Mrs. Lease for the unsatisfied balance of the debt.

The company has now begun proceedings in the probate court at Wichita to compel Mrs. Lease to pay the judgment, and they have a fight on their hands. It is proposed to bring Mrs. Leaze into court and compel her to tell where and in what form the property she is known to own is held. that it may be attached.

Mrs. Lease declares that she will resist such an attempt to collect the judgment even to the point of refusing to obey the order of the probate court, for which, under the Kansas law, she can be and probably will be sent to jall.

"I do not owe the company one cent," says Mrs. Lease. "They took my home on the mortgage, which was for but a small part of its value, and then stole my equity in it by bidding it in for a song. I defy them to get any more out of me."

Mrs. Lease has "money to burn," but says she will resist the collection of the judgment as a matter of principle. She is a lawyer and will conduct her own case.

Schrader Leaves Sioux City.

Sioux City, In., June 24 .- Although

overburdened with business "Divine Heal-er" Schrader, who recently opened an engagement here, did not think he was receiving the attention he deserved and this morning left for Nebraska, whence he will not return until "some of the cures he has effected have time to be-come known." When the ungrateful people ask his return, he says, he will accept
