UNIONDALE. The last base ball game was played at Pleasant Mount. Score 5 to 14 in favor of Uniondale.

Mrs. Philo Burnett entertained Mrs. Couch and family Thursday. Mattle and William Norton recently visited frieids in Wayne county.

Miss Storms, who has been spending several weeks with relatives here, expects to return to her home in Wayne ounty Monday.

Children's day will be observed in the Methodist church on Sunday morning There is great unrest in regard to the new pond formed by the Stillwater dam. The company is slow to settle with people whose land has been flood-ed. The pond is shallow and as it has been quite frequently drawn off it makes a very unhealthy condition. The upper part of this pond, which is over mile long, comes within a mile of Uniondale and surely will not add to the sanitary condition of this hitherto healthy mountain town. Mrs. John Bass gave an afternoon and evening social to the ladies and friends of the Presbyterian church Ice cream was served in the evening for the benefit of the society.

Rev. and Mrs. Harned anticipate pending next week with friends in Newton Centre, Lackawanna county. People have been kicking about the veather and one of our town philosophers says the reason is that it does not hurt so bad as when they kick against a plank. Thursday was really the first summer day we have had during the past two months.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, June 25,-Many thousands of shares of stocks were bought on th Stock exchange today at prices materially above last night's closing prices, but the market sold off later in the day on account of apprehension caused by the large volume of the gold shipment by tomorrow's steamer, $2,300,000 in all being engaged for export. The decline in the pric of stocks which resulted was very market offerings to realize being very frequently made for a time. The decline, however brought duliness and a diminution of offerings. The volume of dealings today was larger than on any previous day of the year, the total sales of all stocks reaching 325,000 shares, but nearly twothirds of that amount was absorbed by Sugar, the Grangers, Chicago Gas and Bay State Gas. Sugar closed with the gain which amounts to %. Manhattan and Western Union gained % each and New York Central a small fraction. The total sales of stocks today were 318,172.
