WILKES-BARRE AT SPRINGFIELD.

Wilkes-Barre Got a Good Start, but Griffin's Men Caught Up in One Inning.

SCRANTON AT PROVILENCE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Wilkes-Barre, June 27,-The Miners from Wilkes-Barre vesterday won the odd game in the present series of three and the sixth game out of a total of eight played. The game total of eight played. opened with four runs for Wilkes-Barre in the first iming, thanks to errors by Meaney and Massey and timely hitting. Wilkes-Barre's lead was, however, of brief duration, for in the ranton half the Miners profitted by Manville's wildness which was chiefly responsible for six Scranton runs. Morse pitched more effectively than Manville after the early part of the game and this with good fielding and more timely hitting gradually in-creased the Scranton tally to a total of thirteen at the finish, Wilkes-Barre tallying but one run after the opening chapter. A few more than seven hundred persons saw the game and a large number of these severely roasted home team and had much to do Willis, p with their poor playing. Goeckel was the first Wilkes-Barre candidate at but but he fanned. Sholta hit a fly to right and Meaney muffed Odwell's grounder to Massey should have been a force hit and the beginning of a double play but Big Bill made a poor throw to second, the ball hitting Sholta on the back and both runners were safe. Hits by Bottenus, Betts and Smith scored four Scranton's six runs were more easily made. Meaney hit for three bases and the bases filled on walks to Walters and Beard. A run was forced in on a walk of Eagan, and another on a fielder's choice from Bonner. Massey's hit-by-pitcher developed the third run and Maguires base on balls the fourth. Boyd hit to Manville and a double play was made from the latter to Diggins to Goeckel. Two runs were scored on a wild pitch before the side was re-

Wilkes-Barre's run in the fourth was due to Goeckel's single, a sacrifica and a scratch by Bottenus. The score WILKES-BARRE.

Harper and Gunson will be today's bat-Buffalo and Rochester have played fourcen games although only twelve were scheduled. The same figures and fact applies to Toronto and Syracuse, Buffalo and Toronto have profited by the juggling of the schedule. The only change on the Scranton team since the season opened was the release of Daly and the substitution of O'Brien. The only club that can equal this record is Providence and there will be a change on that club's first and second bases before many moons. Ex-Manager Schmelz dropped into Springfield, Mass., a few days ago and in-tarviewed Manager Tommy Burns on private business. It is reported that Gus is looking for an interest in an Eastern league franchise.—Washington Post. Gus league franchise.—Washington Post. Gus might try Wilkes-Barre.

Thomas McAndrew, of Eynon street, this city, is playing third for the Hamilton club of the Canadian league. McAndrew played that position with the West Side Harmonies and joined the Hamiltons after finishing the recent term at the Niagara university. With him are Dean, Malott and Hoffner, all of Scranton.

Massey must have made a wonderful

6 Massey must have made a wonderful

drive in Saturday's game at Wikes-Barre if a Scrantonian's version of the hit is correct. According to this gentle-man's statement Massey swatted the ball victously. It went so low over the diamond that McMahon made a bluff at jumping for it, but it hit the fence at left center and bounded back so quickly that Massey was put out at third. The hit must have been terrific to enthuse The Tribune's informant into a statement that Massey turned first base just as the ball hit the fence. This is a good paragraph to fan about, but we won't paragraph to fan about, but we won't vouch for its truthfulness.

Manager Barnie, of the Brooklyns, is trying to arrange a deal with the Pittsburg club, whereby Jimmy Donnelly can be seen in a Brooklyn uniform. "Germany." South is still in a had way from many" Smith is still in a bad way from his broken rib, and he is really in no shape to play. Manager Barnie evidently thinks he would have no trouble in con trolling Donnelly or he would not try to get him. Donnelly is a splendid fielder, but was never much as a batsman.

The Miners begin in Providence today a series of three games and then go to Springfield to finish the week. They left home after having lost but two out of nine games played, which in part made amends for the nightmare trip up north. With its present clean bill of health it would be reasonable to presume that the club will win half of this week's games and several way have next Manday in proper and return home next Monday in proper trim to play three games with Wilkes-Barre and then get even with Toronto, Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse. The four regular pitchers are in first-class form and Meaney will be available to go in the box or outfield at any time.

Those record players, who insist on registering a kick because they believe themselves short a hit, "robbed out of their bingles," as they put it, injure no one but themselves when they scan the columns of the papers every morning in search of the error and hit column, and make caustic comments over their record of the day before. In nine cases out of ten, the kick is unjustifiable, and comes from the fellows with the ossified skulls. The player who has a continuous eye on his record is fast becoming a mark for managers, more so, in fact, than ever before, and the sooner the record favorite realizes this fact the longer will be be able to earn bread and butter as a ball

CORNELL DICTATES.

Ithacans Will Make No Propositions to Yale or Harvard-True to Columbia and U. P.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27 .- The position of Cornell in college boat racing was made known today as follows: First, Cornell will, as victors, receive almost any proposition from Yale and Harvard that these colleges wish to make, but will not present a proposition as to future engagements

Second, no proposition will be ac-cepted by Cornell that compels her to join in an exclusive class with Yale and Harvard at the sacrifice of her friendly relations with Columbia and Pennsyl-

Third, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania will combine for races, probably upon this course, and will invite the University of Wisconsin to come in. Yale and Harvard may also enter if their exculsive dual agreement is not a handicap.

MAY RACE IN ENGLAND. Fourth, Cornell may try to arrange

o race again in England with purely American methods and as the representative of American college rowing. Cornell holds that her victory over the two other colleges compels recognition if Harvard and Yale wish to hold or attempt to hold the record for American college rowing. Cornell also holds that as Cornell, as victor, condescends to row with Pennsylvania and Columbia in a spirit of true sportsmanship and to make the American cham-

The Philadelphia Wheelmen Are Active in Their Arrangements.

Philadelphia, June 27.-Present appearances indicate that the National circuit will not assume its old-time importance until the National meet, which is to be held in this city Aug. 4-7. And it is highly probable that after the big fixture the crackajacks instead of remaining with the National circuit will go their several ways in search of the big purses that are hung up at independent meets throughout the country. The fact that the national meet will offer the first, perhaps the only, opportunity this year to see all the professional and amateur cracka-jacks of the country gathered together in a grand struggle for valuable prizes will in no wise distract from its interest; indeed, this fact alone will probably attract thousands of out-of-towners to the city during the last two days of the meet.

Local hotels are already beginning to book numerous individual applications for accommodations during the week of the meet. The majority of these orders come direct from those who have visited this city before, and have their favorite stopping places. The hotel committee chairman, W. P. Street, ir., is attending to the many applications from parties and clubs, and several of the smaller hotels are filled up for the

The footless, armless, legiess, handless, blind, deaf and paralytic phenomenors who want to do exhibition riding during the meet are still coming to the front. Chairman Dimon, of the race meet committee, has named a subcommittee which he has dubbed the "Hospital committee," to which all these applications are referred. The Willow Grove authorities have arranged for the checking of 5,000 wheels during the two days' races.

WONDERFUL PACING JOHNNY.

He Will Be Seen at the Driving Park Races This Week.

Pacing Johnny is the most wonderful horse alive today. He goes without rider or driver, will go up the stretch, score down, and quickly returns at the tap of the bell, scores down again and will score as many times as he is asked. When the word "go" is given he starts away pacing very rapidly, and he has a record of 2.1214. He beats all bicyclists when they ride against him. He is also broken so that his owner gets up behind him on the sulky, and drives him without reins a full mile in 2.124; he will also follow a brass band all around the street. This horse has created a wonderful ensation all through the west, and is owned by W. H. Barnes, Sioux City, Iowa. Pacing Johnny has been secured at a very large figure to come to this city and give two exhibitions each day as above described at the races here this week. Kellar and Gregory have been engaged to ride the tandem bicycle against this horse at the several events. The feature alone is worth the price of admission.

The bills advertising the races set forth that on Thursday the class 7 event will be a "2:35 trot, purse $200." The time should be 2.25 instead of 2.35.

CYCLING RECORDS.

Marks Smashed by Lauricks in Unpaced Riding, from Six to Fifty Miles, in 2:23:25.

Nat Butler, of Cambridge, carried verything before him in the races at Charles River park, Cambridge, Mass., Saturday. His one mile match race, "paced" with Monte Scott, was one of the most interesting events seen here this season. Butler took the first heat in 2.17 3-5; the second heat and match in 2.13 2-5 seconds.

The one-mile open professional was a close contest between Nat Butler, Eddie McDuffle and F. A. Gately. They rode in a bunch till at the homestretch, so that the result was in doubt up to the last moment. They finished in the order named.

In a two-mile exhibition W. R. Brinkerhoff, of Harvard, lowered the college record from 4 minutes 40 1-5 seconds to 4 minutes 9 1-5 seconds, coming near to the amateur record, which is 4 minutes 7 1-5 seconds. The unique feature of the meet was the fifty-mile ride of Rudolph Lauricks, of the Bay State wheelmen. This was the last event of the meet and was watched with interest during the first twenty-five miles, owing to the fine riding form of Captain Lauricks. He undertook to break the amateur records unpaced from one to fifty miles. Lauricks began breaking records at the sixmile mark, lowering the record for that distance from 16 minutes 18 seconds to 16 minutes 12 3-5 seconds. Laurick's time for fifty miles was 2 hours, 23 minutes and 25 seconds.

He rode the last mile in 3 minutes 1-5 second spurting down the stretch apparently as fresh and cheerful as at the half-way mark. The time made by lauricks this afternoon after the six mile mark stands as the amateur records for each mile, and for the whole

They say the Britishers cannot do enough to make things pleasant for them. They rowed over the full course on Thursday for the first time in good time and with plenty of power.

James Ten Eyck, jr., the Massachusetts oarsman, was out on Thursday in his new Clasper boat, with which he is much pleased. The American sculler has made a good impression upon experts at Henley.

MICHAEL-HADFIELD MATCH.

To Go Ten Miles, with Pace-Makers at Newark, July 31.

New York, June 27 .- Dixie Hines has arranged a match race between Jimmy Michael and Charles Hadfield, of Newark, to take place on July 31 on the quarter board track just completed in Newark.

The distance of the race will be ter miles, and each man will have his cwn set of pacemakers. Michael's manager, David G. Shafer, will go to Newark early next month and train Michael at that point. Hadfield was the winner of the 1896 Irvington-Milburn road race.

ANSON TOOK THE PLATE AWAY. Veteran Ball Player Had Something to Say About the Game.

"What do you think of a captain picking up the home plate and walking off with it because a decision of the umpire failed to make a hit with him?" observed Tom Brown. "That's what Uncle Noah Anson did, and this comedy play of the old man's came off un-der the shimmer of Vesuvius, by the omantic bay of Naples, in the winter

"Anson was catching for the Spalding team, and we—that is, the all-American aggregation—had tied the score in the fifth inning, with Fred Carroll at the bat. Spalding never charged admission to the games that were played in Asia and on the European continent outside of Paris, and our free show drew as motley a mob of velvet-erbed Dagoes as ever roasted chestnuts. The crowd swamped the playing ground and was spilled over to the verge of the base lines, and it was agreed that any ball knocked in the crowd was good for only a base hit. I was on third and Billy Earle on second, with the score a tie, and Carroll at the bat. Carroll pasted a line ball along the first base line. The ball waltzed over the first sack, took an upshoot, and interviewed the top piece of a Dago guitar player who was murdering Verdi's 'Troubadour' between the innings. "Earle and myself scored on the hit, and Uncle Anson pulled off his pad and mask and argued that he would not go on with the game unless George Wright, who was the umpire, changed his decision. This break of Uncle's was rather childish, but the old man has his eccentricities, and we had to listen to him. He claimed that the ball went foul, but Wright insisted that the ball was fair. Now came Uncle's comedy turn. It was our last game, and Uncle, ever mindful of the interest of Al Spalding, figured that the loss of a home plate would cost Al at least 4 cents. So he flopped on his knees, dug the home rubber out of the ground, tessed his mask and pad over his arm and swelled to the carriage, as hot as a burnt boot with rage.

"He and George Wright were a case of Nansen discovering the north pole every time they met for a month after. But the sight of the old man raving over the loss of the game and protecting Spalding's interest to the tune of 40 cents was a piece of comedy that would have made the hit of Anson's saffron show, 'The Runaway Colt'."
