ADJOURNMENT

ON THURSDAY

Only Four Days More for Business at Harrisburg.

CALCULATIONS OF LEADERS UPSET

Defeat of New Revenue Bill -- Increasing Tax on Liquors May Make It Necessary for the Governor to Slaughter Appropriations -- Lively One Year Ago Today the Awful Ca-Times Ahead in the House.

Harrisburg, June 27.-The legislature will hardly get away before next Saturday, although the final adjournment has been fixed for Thursday. The leaders agree that unless all debate is shut off, the business cannot be cleaned up in four days. The house has passed the bulk of the appropriation bills and the senate committee is reporting them out as fast as they are received. Chairman Marshall says the house will bring out the remaining senate appropriation bills Monday afternoon and then take the remainder of the session. The committees have been working day and night for a month paring down bills and getting the general revenue bill in shape for final passage.

Mr. Marshall does not think it will be necessary to extend the session beyond Saturday to dispose of all the legislation scheduled. Speaker Boyer believes both will be ready to quit Thursday and yet many members would not be surprised if the new revenue bill increasing liquor licenses has upset the calculations of the leaders. This measure would raise about $2,000,000 a year and unless it becomes a law it will be necessary for Governor Hastings to slaughter the appropriation bills to keep the public expenses next two years within the revenues.

bill will go to a conference committee and may be fixed up there to meet the objections in the house. The representatives are !-nt on taxing the brewers and do not take kindly to put an additional tax of $100 on retailers, except in clasified cities, where the taxes raise $200. The movement to cut the school appropriation $500,000 a year has been abandoned. The country members would not agree to the appropriation bill as it passed second reading appropriated $5,500,000 a year to the schools. The bill is in the hands of the house committee and its members will not take the responsibility of making the cut. If it is made it will have to be done by the senate.

LIVELY TIME AHEAD. There will be a lively time in the house when the expense bills of the elections and investigating committees are taken up for final passage. strong combination has been formed to defeat these measures, especially the "Lexow" committee bill of $60,000 and the bill of $56,000 for fitting up Grace The pressure on members from the country to reduce expenses has become so great that six members of the special house committee have refused to take a cent for car fare and other personal expenses. Such a thing has never been known before in the history of the state. These members are Chairman Hosack, of the oleomargarine committee and his colleague,Mr. Ford, of Allegheny, Rice, of Bucks, Wilson, of Lycoming, Pedder of Allegheny, and Alexander, if Clearfield, With the exception of Mr. Ford of Allegheny, who follows the lead of Senator Quay, these members belong to the "Seventy Six," the leaders of which movement to kill all expense bills. One effect of this scheme has been the quiet paring down by the appropriations committee of several of the objectionable bills. At least $20 .. 000 or $30,000 will be saved the state.

The "ripper" bill and all other schemes to give Pittsburg a new charter have all been abandoned.

Besides it may have a good effect in the future.

The oleo investigating committee will report Tuesday and the penitentlary probers on Monday evening.

L. Fulenwider, Wilmington. Those present at the meeting felt that the formation of this association was desired by the whist players of the section named, and that it would not only encourage and bring them into closer social relation, but that it would prove an educator and materially improve the standard of play. The association voted to join the American Whist League as an auxiliary association, and directed that an application for membership be made. At the annual meeting and tournament to be held in the fall whist contests will be held for the usual trophies.

The following have become members of the association. Banumort Whist Club, Credenda Whist Club, Capital Bicycle Club, Columbia Athletic club, Engelside Whist Club, Hamilton Club, Manufacturers' Whist Club, Manhlem Whist Club, Pennsylvania Whist Club, Pomfret Club, Scranton Whist Club, Powelton Club, Philadelphia Whist Club, Wilmington Whist Club, Walbrook Whist Club.

The Whist Congress to be held at Put-in-Bay, near Toledo, Ohio, next week, is now the center to which are turned the eyes of all "whisters." Accommodations at the Hotel Victory have already been engaged for over two hundred and there will doubtless be an attendance of from three to four hundred from all parts of the country. The regular trophy contests for pairs and teams of four, as well as the contests for the Brooklyn trophy for auxiliary associations, will be fought to a finish by the finest whist players, and, with the large open matches for the others, will fill a week which will always be remembered by those who are fortuthing but soda-water unless you took nate enough to attend. Some months ago a number of Scranton whisters intended to go, but Father Time has spoiled many plans, and local representatives will be few if any. It is too bad as the experience to be gained is invaluable to the whist players. It is possible that the local club may be represented in the championship pair claring for dry Sundays hereafter, contest for the Minneapolis trophy. For fear some saloonkeeper might While the trophy will not grace the local club rooms, yet the experience not read the proclamation, or reading it might neglect to heed it because of to be gained by playing against crack it being too novel to be anything but a | players, as well as the pleasure to the enthusiast, will fully repay the time patched on a round of the saloons with and trouble.

At Boston recently an informal match was played between eight prominent women players and eight men, most of whom were members of reresentative teams of Boston and vicinity. It was a twenty-four deal match and the women won by a trick. A hand in which they made a gain of three tricks is given by L. M. Bouve in the Boston Transcript as follows:

IN THE ROPED ARENA.

A brutal prize fight was fought Friday night in a field near Wilkes-Barre and in the presence of several hundred spectators. The fighters were Hugh Gilmore and Rutherford Tonkins, two local men. They fought with bare knuckles. Each weighed about 150 pounds and was in good condition. Both were terribly punished and Gilmore was beaten in the fifth round Gilmore and Rutherford Tonkins, two more was beaten in the fifth round after having his face cut to ribbons. Tonkins was also badly hurt. No arrests have yet been made.

June 27.-Hx-Champion Boston. James Corbett says regarding the statement that he and Charley Mitchell would be matched to a finish fight for a purse of $15,000 offered by Dan Stuart: "I rather think that the experience of this same Mitchell at Jacksonville should prove conclusively that he has seen his best days as a pugilist and should remain in retirement, I will meet no man unless it is for the championship of the world, and the only man from whom I can recover that title will be either Fitzsimmons or the man who conquers him.'

If "Jersey" Gordon will stop talking, and if he will post $100 to bind himself to make a match with James Judge for $300 a side at 140 pounds, give and take three pounds, fifteen rounds, he probably can be accommodated. A few good men and many poor ones are aspiring these days to attain ring henors in and about Scranton. Judge has proved himself one of the good ones, so good that neither his friends nor his enemies expect him to go trotting around looking for matches with men who haven't proved themselves to be equally as good. Scranton sports once knew Gordon's fighting ability. They don't know what it is If Gordon can box at three now. pounds over or under 140 and has backing to the extent of $300 it should be a very easy matter for him to force Judge to a meeting, but it will do him no good to try and prove himself Judge's equal by talking. When sensible puglists honestly desire a meet-ing they usually post forfeit money and then demand a match-that's what Gordon had better do or he will become ridiculous.

AMATEUR BALL NOTES.

Bert Woodward's Letter. Sporting Editor of The Tribune.

In Saturday's Tribune there appeared a notice signed by a misguided individual who politely (?) informed me that I deviated slightly from the truth. The golden Orioles do not by any means wish to take up so much of The Tribune's space and hereafter all such notices as appeared in Saturday's paper shall be treated with the contempt they deserve. In a Tribune of a little over a week ago the Orioles challenged the Edisons to a game of ball to be played on the following day. In a personal interview with the Edi son's manager we were informed that they could not play us for lack of men. The following morning, however, a nochallenged the Baltimore Orioles Juniors. Having a faint suspicion that the Orioles who were around (the club having been dismissed) went to the game was started on which an Oriole battery played on one and a few Edison players on the other. The side on which the Oriole battery played wer defeated by a score of 15 to 7.

Whether that was the game referred to or not I do not know. There was no other game played at all. That was a falsehood pure and simple. I am glad to see that the writer of Saturday's article has seen fit to sign his rame. Hoping this will convince the Edisons that they are making a mistake, as we do not care to write more on this subject for the reason that the general public know nothing of the affair and care less. Yours truly,

A Coroner Confronted by a Man Supposed to Be Dead.

Altoona, June 27 .- The man killed late last night in the Pennsylvania railroad yards, in this city, was not G. C. Harvey, of Kipple, as at first re ported, but James C. Stewart, of $13 Sixth avenue, this city. The mistake was made by a tinner, who worked for Harvey, positively identifying the body as that of Harvey. Coroner McCartney went to Kipple to notify Mrs. Harvey of the accident when he was met at the door by Harvey himself. This led to further inves tigation and it was discovered that the unfortunate was James Stewart. He was 45 years of age and is survived by ### a widow and three children. RAN A RACE WITH DEATH. Banker Saved by Trip to Paris from

Bite of a Cat. an Eatonville, Ga., dispatch of recent date: B. W. Hunt, the leading banker of Putnam county, has returned to his home here from Paris, where he was successfully given the preventive treatment at the Pasteur institute for hydrophobia. He had been bitten two months ago by a sick cat. Suspecting the contagion of rables he went to New York, and upon medical advice there took the fastest steamer to Paris, counting the days and reaching the institute barely within the required period. While undergoing the 18-day treatment he was informed from New York by cable that inoculation upon other animals under supervision of the New York board of health conclusively proved that the cat had died of hydrophobia. Mr. Hunt, who was constantly attended by his wife, comes back in excellent health, despite an incidental attack of grip, and firmly convinced that nothing but his swift flight to Europe
