

Quay's News.

SENATOR FLINN SQUARES HIMSELF

Wants It Understood That He Has No Deal With Mr. Quay.

HAS NOT DROPPED THE LIBEL SUIT

Richard Quay Will Be Prosecuted, He States—Mr. Magee Intimates that He Is Not Troubled with Quay's Phobia—Has Made No Deals, but Approves of the Spirit of Harmony, Legislative Business.

Harrisburg, June 29.—When the senate met this morning Mr. Mitchell, of Jefferson, called up the general appropriation bill. The bill was read for the second time and was then committed to the appropriations committee for amendments. Some eighty-five house appropriation bills went through on second reading.

At noon the bill relating to criminal libel, which was made a special order was taken up for final consideration. The bill as amended passed finally after discussion by a vote of 37 to 1. The single vote in the negative being that of Mr. Lutz. The senate then adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

In the senate this afternoon Mr. Flinn rose to a question of privilege to deny the rumor that he had made a deal with Senator Quay on the question of legislation. Mr. Magee made a similar denial.

Mr. Flinn started out by saying that after a bitter factional struggle lasting two years his faction had been defeated. "The members of the legislature from Allegheny," he continued, "have been treated brutally. They were put on nothing but inferior committees.

"We have had no bills in this legislature because we felt that we could not pass them. We have acted with the minority faction and the story of a deal is a falsehood. There is no necessity for the deal."

Mr. Flinn asserted that public sentiment had killed the "ripper" bill; that it took the united effort of Senator Quay and the state chairman of the Democratic party to carry this measure on second reading. "We never had any idea of this bill passing finally," said he, "and it required no arrangement on our part to defeat such an outrageous proposition."

The speaker declared that he had not dropped his suit for criminal libel against Richard R. Quay, Senator Quay's son. "That case will be tried," said he, "the only thing upon which we have acted in harmony with the dominant faction has been the revenue question and I don't want the regular organization in Allegheny to think we have made a deal of any kind. When we are consulted by the dominant Republican faction and allowed to act as independent men then we will gladly act in accord with the faction that controls the politics of this state."

At some time in the afternoon speaking Mr. Magee arose and said: "I am not troubled with Quayphobia and I have made no deal with Senator Quay. There is no necessity for it. Some time ago Mr. Quay declared he was for harmony and that statement met with my hearty approval.

"However, I trust the time will come when there is no Quay or anti-Quay faction, but a single republican organization without deals."

This ended the incident and the routine of the senate was resumed.

BILLS PASSED FINALLY.

When the senate reconvened this afternoon the consideration of appropriation bills on final passage was taken up. These bills passed finally: Non-religious insane asylum, $75,000; Pennsylvania Soldiers' Orphan school, $40,000; For an emergency fund to be used in suppressing the smallpox epidemic, $50,000; Saunders-Roberts contested election case, counsel's fees, 3,000; Home for the Training of Speech of Deaf Children, Philadelphia, $2,000; State board of health and vital statistics, $12,000; Houses for the incurable insane, $40,000; State asylum for the chronic insane, $482,400; Cottage and hospital of the bituminous and semi-bituminous coal regions at Phillipsburg, $4,000; Adjutant general's expense books, $20,000; Pennsylvania Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie, $10,000; Transportation to and from Chattanooga, at the time of dedicating monuments to the Pennsylvania regiment, $20,000; Pittsburgh and Allegheny Home for the Friendless, $6,000; National Guard Association, $35,000; Adrian Hospital association of Jefferson county, $20,000.

EXPENSE BILL SNAG.

Amendments Calling for Strict Account of Personal Items.

Harrisburg, June 29.—The house started in this morning on the appropriation bills left over from yesterday. Ten second reading senate bills were rushed through, after which bills on third reading and final passage were taken up. The bill to provide a state hospital for incurable insanity, which was killed by a vote of 57 to 33.

The house took up the conference report on the bill governing cities of the third class and it was unanimously adopted. The house adjourned at 12:33 until 1 o'clock.

The senate amendments to the bill increasing from eight to ten mills the stock of banks and savings institutions were taken up by the house this afternoon. The bill appropriating $312,500 to pay the expenses of the investigation of the insurance scandal was defeated on final passage by a vote of 99 to 22.

For fear of the defeat of the bill appropriating $311 to Joseph Wyatt, sergeant at arms of the house for services in the Shiffer-Leh election contest from Northampton county, action was postponed. When the bill appropriating $125 to Mr. Wyatt for services in the Saunders-Roberts contest from the third Philadelphia district was taken up for final passage Mr. Crothers, of Philadelphia, moved to go into committee of the whole to insert the following amendment:

"That it shall not be lawful for the auditor general to approve nor the state treasurer to pay any bills or parts thereof for extra car fare, carriage hire, sleeping berths, telegrams, telephone charges and other expenses until after a full sworn and sworn statement of expenses actually incurred shall have been duly filed with the auditor general and such sworn statement shall be accompanied with vouchers covering every item of expenditures."

The amendment was inserted by a vote of 106 to 46 and the report of the committee adopted. Similar amendments were then offered to the various other expense bills that have been considered the past week, but all were voted down after a hard fight.

The friends of these measures decided after the defeat of the insurance expense bill that unless this amendment was inserted they would be defeated.

Mr. Wilson of Lycoming, raised the point of order that the Wyatt bill was unconstitutional because it allows extra compensation and mileage to a paid official of the state. The speaker ruled the point of order not well taken.

Mr. Crothers amendment was also inserted in the bill appropriating $405 to pay Mr. Wyatt for his expenses incurred by the senate and house in attending the inauguration of President McKinley and $181 for service in the Shiffer-Leh contest. The vote by which the expense bill of the committee to investigate the insurance scandal was defeated was reconsidered and the bill passed finally.

The bills to provide for a state hospital for the homeopathic treatment of the insane and appropriate $800 to pay the expenses of investigating the capitol fire were also defeated.

The civil service bill was next taken up on second reading and an exciting discussion followed. The bill was defeated by a vote of 55 to 95. The vote by which the capitol fire inquiry expense bill was defeated was reconsidered and the measure passed finally. The house adjourned at 5:30 until 8 o'clock.

COAL PRICES GO UP. An Advance of 25 Cents to Be Made on July 1.

Philadelphia, June 29.—The officials of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company were busy yesterday in drawing up a new July circular of coal prices, which will probably be issued today. Like the Delaware and Hudson circular, which came out yesterday, it makes an advance of 25 cents a ton in all the prepared sizes.

SUFFERING WOMEN'S

How Many of Them Have Quietly Obtained Advice That Made Them Well.

My sister, if you find that in spite of following faithfully your family doctor's advice, you are not getting well, why do you not try another course? Many and many a woman has quietly written to Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., stating her symptoms plainly and clearly, and taken her advice, which was promptly received.

The following letter is a pretty strong confirmation of our claims: "I had been sick for six months; my doctor told me I would have to go to a hospital before I could get well. I had female troubles in their worst form, suffered untold agonies every month; my womb tipped back to my backbone, had headache, hysteria, fainting spells, itching, leucorrhoea.

"My feet and hands were cold all the time, my limbs were so weak that I could hardly walk around the house; I have taken four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one package of her Blood Purifier, one package of her Sanative Wash, and am entirely cured. I have not had one of those numb spells since. Can you wonder that I sing the praises of a medicine that has cured me? My address is Mrs. LUCY PRATT, 650 Belmont St., Brockton, Mass.
