ALDERMANIC CASES.

Heard Before Our Dispensers of Justic Yesterday.

The Millers, Samuel senior and junfor, of 751 Seventh street, are again in trouble. This same Samuel, jr., is accused of larceny, and his father is charged as a party to the offense. Mike Minto, of 137 Seventh street, was given $10 and a pall yesterday by George Polishon to purchase some cider of the Samuel, jr. returned, no change and his father said that Minto owing him money would have to do without any change. Polishon, who resides with Minto, had the Millers arrested and brought before Alderman Relly. Samuel, jr. was held in $300 bail for his appearance at court. Samuel, sr. furnished the ball.

Polishon had them arrested on an additional charge of selling on Sunday. Alderman Kelly held this case over until today.

Andrew Acker, of South Seventh street, borrowed $32.50 from Mike Dresko, of Jackson street some time ago and failing to return the loan at the promised time he was arrested at the instance of Dresko upon a charge of 'obtaining money under false pretense." The accused borrower was held in $200 bail for his appearance which was furnished.

IN GOOD CONDITION.

The members of Camp 178, Patriotic Order Sonz of America, are to be congratulated upon the financial condition of the camp's affairs at the end of six months dated from Dec. 30, 1896. A compiled report from their efficient financial secretary, Linden V. Decker, shows that with a membership of 255 the camp has prospered so that a balance in cash remains in hand of $1,701 .-SS. During the six months there were paid out for sick benefits $390; nurse hire $69.75; to building and loan associations, $90.30; for miscellaneous purposes, $300.35, making a total expenditure of $861.40. The camp has a total value of $5,272.50. This is repreby the following: Cash hand, $1,701.88; real estate investments, $2,150; building and loan investments, $728.62; value of paraphernalia, $692. The camp has been blessed with careful and painstaking officers and this prosperity is the result of its wise se-

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE. The alarm of fire which was sounded last evening from box 44 at 9:20 o'clock was caused by the appearance of flames around one of the chimneys of Kelly's block at 721 Scranton street. The flames were, however, put out before any headway had been gained and though the Eagles, Franklins, and Columbias promptly responded their services were not required. It is supposed that a defective flue or overheated chimney was the cause.

OBITUARY.

William Penry, aged 70 years, died MARY A. SHEPHERD, M. D., HOMEresidence on Snyder avenue. The deceased was a well known Welshman having resided in Bellevue for upwards of 33 years with the exception of a few months spent at Alliance, Ohlo He is a son of the late John Penry, famous in Welsh chronicles and is survived by his wife, they never having been blessed with children. Mr. Penry was born in Rhymney, South Wales, in 1827, and came to this country in the early fall of 1864. He was first employed as a miner under the Delaware Lackawanna and Western company and became a fire-boss, which position he held under the same company at their Bellevue workings. About three years ago he retired from active work He has not enjoyed the best of health for some time and finally succumbed to a severe attack of peritonitis. After short services at the late residence the deceased will be borne to the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church at Belle vue, where his pastor, Rev. J. T. Morris, will preach, assisted by Rev. Hugh Davies, of the South Main avenue Calvinistic church. Mr. Penry was a de yout attendant at the church and it is according to his wish that the church service is held. The services occur Friday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock and interment will be made at Wash burn street cemetery.

Daniel J. Moriarity, who for many years was connected with the Times local staff, died yesterday morning at 1.30 o'clock at the home of his mother, 731 Orchard street. Two months ago he was stricken down with pneumonia, but recovered after a severe siege sufficiently to get back to his desk. He took a relapse, however, about two weeks ago and continued to sink until death finally came. He was twentyeight years of age and was born in this city. The deceased had been doing newspaper work for the last six or seven years. In 1893 he joined the Times staff and of late had been its court reporter. He was regarded as one of the best of the local reporters and had a bright future before him. Among his associates in newspaperdom and the attaches of court, with whom he daily mingled, he was highly esteemed and his untimely death will be to them a cause of deep grief. He was of a kind and considerate nature, somewhat retiring in disposition and always ready to do a favor for a friend. A circumstance which heightens the sadness of his death is the death of his younger brother William only last Thursday. His mother and two brothers, John and Michael, survive him. The funeral will be announced later.

After a long illness of asthma, James Pirdeau passed away at his home in Jessup yesterday morning. Deceased was a native of England and was about 50 years of age. He has been a resident of Jessup for a number of years. Besides his wife two children survive him. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Prospect cem-

Seeley. Immediately after the cere-mony Mr. and Mrs. Keen were drives to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Mary, the four-year-old daughter of John Dolan, of Joycetown, died yes-Western depot and left for a wedding tour in the east. They will reside at terday afternoon after a short Illness with pleurisy. The funeral will take place Friday at 230. Interment in Mi-450 Tenth street upon their return and nooka Catholic cemetery.
