TROUBLE IN KELLY'S PATCH.

Wasil Michalowski Convicted to Jail for Being Mixed Up in It.

John Drusiek, of Kelly's Patch, Luzerne street, desired to be familiar with the private affairs of Wasil Michalowski, of Christ court. Wasil is a peaceable fellow and has resided in this country long enough to get his full citizen papers.

On Wednesday Drusiek came to Wasil's house and called him various names and uttered dirty slurs. This Wasil resented by promptly "frisking" Drusiek off the place. Yesterday Wasil was arrested on a warrant at the instance of Drusiek and was held in $500 bail for his appearance at court to answer a charge of "assault and battery with intent to kill." He had not procured bail at a late hour last evening and was committed to jail by Alderman Kelly. Constable Tim Jones of the Fifth made the arrest after Wasil had broken from one Charles Jacobs when at the alderman's door.

An interesting little bit of history in connection with Drusiek might be recalled to indicate the man's disposition. Drusiek is the man who cut a fellow countryman's throat on Feb. 3, 1896, without any cause.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

The burial of the late William Penny, of Snyder avenue, this afternoon, will remove another of Hyde Park's early residents and one who was prominent

WILLIAM PENNY.

In Welsh affairs. The deceased came here in 1864 at the age of 37, having been born in Rhymney, South Wales, in 1827. He was a younger son of the famous Welshman, John Penry, and inherited much of his father's abilities. Though in later years he has led a quiet, retiring life. He was employed for some time as a miner in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company's mines and was a fire boss in the Bellevue shaft for many years. When it became necessary for a boss to hold a certificate, he being well on in years, retired from the active service. He is survived by his wife. The only other member of the family died of peritonitis at the ripe age of 73 years. The funeral services occur this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. Rev. J. T. Morris and Rev. Hugh Davis will preach the funeral sermons. Mr. Penry having been a devout attendant at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, Bellevue, and the services will be held there. Interment will be made at Washburn street cemetery.

YOUNG LADIES' LAWN PARTY.

The young ladies who compose the membership of the West Side Sewing circle gave a delightful lawn party last evening. The affair was held on the spacious lawn in front of Hon. H. M. Edwards' residence. Here and there were Chinese lanterns which gave the lawn and its shrubbery a fairy-like appearance. Ice cream, strawberries and cake were served by the young ladies to their patronizing friends. The circle has for its object the making and securing of clothing for worthy poor and the funds obtained by the lawn social will be thus commendably used.

COMPLAIN OF THE WATER.

The residents in the vicinity of Eynon street are asking themselves whether it is sewerage or drinking water that is being served for their use. During a period of two weeks the water has been of a dark, muddy color and has had a nasty taste and odor, even a long boiling hardly purifying it. The residents consider they have waited nearly long enough for a change and a protest may soon be entered. At least the board of health's attention will be called to the nuisance and disease breeder.

During the trial of the case Davis became angry and abused the alderman. He was, however, quieted down by a constable after being threatened with arrest. Advanced Twenty-Five Cents a Ton at New York Yesterday. The price of grate, egg, stove and chestnut coal advanced 25 cents a ton yesterday, at New York, and there is a likelihood of another advance in September or October next. STRONG-ARMSTRONG NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Was Performed at Bride's Residence at Factoryville. A pretty and quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Dr. David Armstrong, at Factoryville, Wednesday evening, when their youngest daughter, May J., was married to Harry S. Stone, of this city. The ceremony took place at 8 p. m. Previously the spacious yard and broad veranda had been brightly lighted, and a tower of ferns arranged on the west side of the porch. Hanging to the ceiling was a marriage bell curiously wrought of meadow daisies. At the appointed time the first strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin were heard. Miss K. S. Cross presided at the piano, and immediately thereafter the bridesmaid, Miss Carrie Simrell, and the groomsmen, Fred E. Stone, appeared, followed by the bride and groom.

Disclaimer from Frank Van Horn.

Editor of the Scranton Tribune. Sir: Will you kindly publish in your next issue the following statement as an act of courtesy towards my mother, for which I shall esteem it a great favor in your issue of this date, July 1, page 6, fourth column, it read thus: "It was also reported at one time that Mrs. Van Horn, mother of the fugitive, was in the habit of carrying food to her son. She was shadowed one day by the county detective from Dunmore, Pa. She had a large basket with her at the time." I hereby challenge the county detective to prove that my mother or otherwise proved that she ever had been in or near Carbondale for more than seven years. She is now 76 years of age and in delicate health, caused chiefly by having a fugitive boy who is wanted upon a charge of murder. If we examine this detective statement in a common sense way we find he had accused the whole county in the vicinity of Carbondale in search of George Van Horn; afterward he received the information that he was still in hiding in the neighborhood and fed by his aged mother. Upon the strength of this information he shadowed this woman of 76 years with a large basket of food to her place, say sixteen miles, there he lost her. In my opinion any detective who would make such a statement is a disgrace to any detective force. Is it, therefore, any wonder so many escape the hands of justice in our county? Frank Van Horn, Dunmore, July 1, 1917.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED.

Lackawanna Gets $20,000, and West Side Hospital $7,000. Appropriation bills for the Lackawanna and West Side hospitals finally passed the house at Harrisburg yesterday. The former hospital $20,000 and the West Side hospital $7,000. Miss K. S. Cross presided at the piano, and immediately thereafter the bridesmaid, Miss Carrie Simrell, and the groomsmen, Fred E. Stone, appeared, followed by the bride and groom.

They took their stations under the bell of daisies, and then Rev. James Devey, of the German Reformed church, presided, made the two one. Thus was completed the uniting of one of Wyoming county's most beautiful daughters with one of Scranton's best known young men.

After congratulations a wedding feast was served, and then leaving being ended, the happy couple took the 12:40 train for their wedding tour. The wedding presents were many and costly.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stone and daughter, Onea J. Stone, G. J. COMPANY G'S HIGH SCORE.

Montrose Guardsmen Set a Pace for the Other Commands.

The second of The Citizens matches was shot yesterday afternoon at the Dickson and Montrose rifle ranges, and resulted in the following scores, Company G, of Montrose, winning from both A and D:

To-300 yds.	300 yds.	600 yds.	900 yds.
Company G	112	111	108
Company A	114	108	105
Company D	109	102	99
Company B	67	45	29

There has been some question raised concerning the high score made at Montrose. Lieutenant H. B. Cox, inspector of rifle practice, witnessed the shooting, so the Company G score may be considered correct.

Lieutenant Colonel Mattes was at the Dickson range. There are three matches to be shot before the final result can be determined. Companies D and G have each won a match. G's and A's shooting yesterday exceeded the 328 and high score made by A last year.
