

HOW SCRANTON CELEBRATES THE DAY

Enthusiasm Commenced Bursting Saturday, and is Still Bursting.

THREE DAYS OF IT THIS YEAR

Large List of Events Scheduled for the Day—Lake Ariel, Fairview, Laurel Hill Park, Sanderson's Grove, Green Ridge and Other Places Will Provide Amusement for the Pleasure Seekers -- Unusually Large Number Go Walking.

This year witnesses a three day celebration of Fourth of July, commencing upon the ever glorious falling upon Sunday. Irrepressible young America did the celebrating, Saturday. Yesterday the pastors of the city commemorated the day with sermons appropriate to the occasion. Today the various entertainment events are scheduled and today, in fact, is the Fourth of July proper as far as celebrating goes.

The intense heat and the two and a half holidays coming successively had the effect of drawing thousands of people visiting, and as a consequence the railroad travel was excessively large on all the roads. Superintendent Bogart of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, is accredited with saying that Saturday's travel was a record breaker on that road. The trains out of New York were jammed all day long with parties bound for the country, mountains, and lakes, and even when they reached here they resembled excursion trains rather than regulars.

There was not the usual amount of Third of July enthusiasm, although a respectable number of canoeers very respectfully kept up a continued booming long into the Saturday morning. They didn't mean any disrespect, however, it is safe to presume, and their thoughtlessness can be readily excused on the score of unstrainable patriotism. They will be at it again this year, and it is to be hoped that there will be no rest for the wicked or the just either.

TODAY'S EVENTS. No general celebration is scheduled for today, but the day will be duly celebrated nevertheless. Every pleasure spot in and around the city will be occupied with some sort of goings-on.

The Caledonians with their customary enterprise to have a big demonstration at Laurel Hill park. Races and games of all sorts, a picnic and fireworks are among the things arranged for. The main feature of the day will be the De Comas. Mrs. De Comas rides bicycle on a stick with fifty feet from the ground while her husband performs on a trapeze suspended from the wheel. It is said to be one of the most thrilling exhibitions ever seen in Scranton.

Out in Green Ridge there will be a parade and picnic attendant upon the presentation of a flag to St. Paul's parochial school by Phil Sheridan Council, Y. M. I. The flag will be presented by James H. Giffen, president of the society, and will be accepted by Rev. P. J. McManus, pastor of St. Paul's. Hon. T. V. Powderly will deliver a Fourth of July oration. A feature of the picnic will be a game of ball between teams from Phil Sheridan and St. Brendan schools.

Trains will run every hour to Lake Ariel and no doubt thousands of Scrantonians will spend the day at this ever popular resort. There will be races and other amusements of all sorts during the day and in the evening a grand display of fireworks. Fairview will also have its usual Fourth of July attractions and a big crowd as usual will be there.

The Scranton-Wilkes-Barre game at Athletic park in the morning will be while many hundreds will be out in to celebrate the day. The game will be called at 10 o'clock.

ATHLETIC SPORTS. In the afternoon at Athletic park, the Excelsior Athletic club will hold forth with their annual field day. Among the features will be a game of base ball for the championship of Lackawanna county and a purse of $100, between the Eureka and Lackawanna, and a ten-round boxing bout between John Tighe of this city, and Jersey Gordon of Philadelphia.

The city officials and councilmen will go to Binghamton to witness the laying of the corner-stone of the new municipal building. They will take along a band and glee club and propose to lead the people of the Parlor city know they are there.

The First Accident. The Lackawanna hospital received its first patient on Saturday evening injured by fire-crackers. Little Frank Falinski, a ten-year-old Glynburn boy, was brought to the hospital and his injuries were such as to necessitate the removal of about two inches of bone from his arm. Frank got too near a "cannon cracker," which exploded with the above injuries. The arm will probably be rendered useless.

St. Leo's battalion of the West Side plinked at Laurel Hill park Saturday. There was a large crowd and a most enjoyable time.

NAY AUG BOY WAS BRUTALLY OUTRAGED

Naked and Badly Burned, He Came Home and Fainted.

TRAMPS ROASTED HIM, HE SAYS

His Story is That After Robbing Him of His Clothing, the Tramps Held Him Over a Wood Fire in the Woods, and Then Released Him—His Condition Serious—The Story is Doubtful—Searching for the Tramps.

Entirely naked and with the flesh of his head, back, legs and feet badly burned, twelve-year-old Willie Turner entered through the rear door of the residence of his father, John Turner, of Nay Aug, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and fell in a faint to the kitchen floor.

Dr. Garvey, of Dunmore, was summoned, and an hour later the little fellow had so far recovered to be able to tell his story. It is as startling as was the appearance on the doorstep of the flesh roasted boy.

He left home at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, dressed in holiday attire, and made straight for the woods, which surrounded Nay Aug. He says that about noon he found himself in an open field over a mile from home. While walking through this field he came across two tramps who were cooking victuals over a wood fire.

SCREAMED FOR HELP. The lad tried to avoid the men, but they ran and caught him. Young Turner screamed for help but he was far from any friend. The tramps took him to the fire and after annoying him for a time they finally, at the suggestion of the taller of the two, took off his clothing part by part and then held him over the fire. His naked flesh was raised in blisters and fairly cooked from the heat before he was released.

He then dragged himself home, as related, Dr. Garvey, who was seen by a Tribune reporter, states that the condition of the boy is critical. He may and may not recover.

Late yesterday afternoon many of the whole population of Nay Aug scoured the fields in search of the fiends. Nothing will prevent the extreme punishment if the tramps are captured. The Dunmore police have also been apprised of the outrage.

Up to a late hour last night nothing had been learned of the tramps. The Turner family is one of the most prominent in Nay Aug.

THE STORY DOUBTED. By some of the story of the boy is doubted. It is believed that possibly he was hurried by fireworks or that he was otherwise careless and that he feared to tell the true story of his mishap.

CHURCHES AND INDEPENDENCE DAY. Patriotic Addresses Yesterday in Many Places of Worship.

There was hardly a church in which there was not a patriotic sermon this morning or evening—or both—some reference to Independence Day and in many of the churches one of the sermons was of a patriotic nature.

In the Stanton street Baptist church the morning theme of the pastor, Rev. S. F. Matthews, was "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord," Psalms, xxxiii:12.

Rev. George W. Walsh, of Calvary Reformed church, preached in the morning on "Our National Resources." At the railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian association in the afternoon there was a service of a patriotic character. Rev. Thomas Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church, delivered an address.

Rev. F. W. Whipple, of All Souls' Universalist church, preached an Independence Day sermon in the morning. Camp 430, Patriotic Order Sons of America, attended in a body services at the Hickory street Presbyterian church on the South Side, where Rev. W. A. Nordt preached a sermon especially for the occasion.

"Our Independence Day" was the evening topic of Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

The sermon topic of Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson at the Second Presbyterian church in the morning was "What Our Country Demands of Us."

There was special national music and a sermon "Gives on the Nation's Dial," at the Penn avenue Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Joseph K. Dixon, pastor, in the evening.

In the Washburn street Presbyterian church Rev. John P. Moffitt preached an Independence Day sermon in the morning. In the evening the services, patriotic, and were under the auspices of the Senior Christian Endeavor society.

"Is the Dream of Liberty a Stupendous Farce" was the rather exceptional topic of Rev. Levi Bird, of the People's Prohibition church.

Rev. George E. Guild, of the Providence Presbyterian church, preached in the morning on "A Theme for the Day, the Christian in Civil Life," and in the evening on "Caleb, a Patriot and a Hero."

There was a praise and song service at the Jackson street Baptist church in the evening followed by a short address on "Our Independence," by the pastor, Rev. Thomas DeGruchy.

END OF THE SESSION.

June Term of Criminal Court Concludes on Saturday—McLaughlin Cases Tried.

The cases against P. J. McLaughlin were tried Saturday as per Judge Archibald's schedule. The result, however, was not altogether pleasing to the prosecutrix, Mrs. Mary Shaw, for McLaughlin was found not guilty and the prosecutrix was called upon to help McLaughlin pay the costs in one of the cases.

She acted in a rather vindictive manner all through the trial and this probably as much as anything acquitted McLaughlin, his defense being that Mrs. Shaw was moved to prosecute him through spite. Ex-Judge Stanton assisted District Attorney Jones in the prosecution. Joseph O'Brien appeared for the defense.

John E. Kelly was acquitted of the charge of having criminally assaulted Mrs. Anna Brosky. The jury arrived at this conclusion on the first ballot, after having been out less than half an hour.

James H. Darte, the Dunmore boiler, was returned not guilty of larceny by bailie, as charged by P. F. Callahan. James McTighe was declared not guilty of assault and battery on Michael Flannery.

During the two weeks June term just closed, District Attorney Jones disposed of 107 cases by trial and in twenty-four other cases bail was forfeited for non-appearance. Counting continuances, 288 cases were disposed of in all.

SENTENCES WERE LIGHT. Albert Osborne, of Oliphant, the youth convicted of outraging 12-year-old Lizzie Jankovic, was sentenced to a fine of $50, fine and nine months in the county jail. Judge Archibald said, in passing sentence, that he was moved to leniency by the plea of the prisoner's counsel, James J. O'Malley. The crime, he said, was a grave one and was recurring with alarming frequency in this county.

Eloquent pleas by Attorneys Timlin and Fitzsimmons, setting forth good character and first offense, and a lengthy petition for mercy, procured a fine and three months in the county jail on Patrick Connor and Thomas Clarke, convicted of stealing two kegs of beer from the Delaware and Hudson depot at Jermy.

Daniel Langowski, convicted at the previous term of libelling Rev. Bruno Ivanowski and Miss Frances Schucka, and upon whom sentence was postponed because of the illness of his wife, was called up by Judge Archibald and given a fine of $10 and three months in the county jail. Judge Archibald said the articles published by Langowski were of a very libelous character and that such license of the press would not be tolerated in this county.

John W. Hollenback, the ex-special officer, convicted of defrauding an old woman out of $900 by forgery and false pretense, and who was given two years and ten months in the penitentiary by Judge Gunster, had his sentence cut to one year, nine months and one day in the county jail. The change in the sentence was made upon the strength of a plea made by prisoner's attorney, J. Elliot Ross.

John Lyons, for assault and battery and malicious mischief, was sentenced to a fine of $10 and thirty days in each case.

GOES TO REFORMATORY. Robert Hand, the incorrigible lad, convicted of robbing a burglary, was committed to the Huntington reformatory.

On motion of Attorney Nathan Vidaver, a rule for a new trial was granted for Adolph Bender, convicted of obtaining money by false pretenses made to Schwartz and Sulzberger.

Judge Archibald made the following appointments of boards of mine examiners: First district—James E. Morrison, of Carbondale; Joseph T. Roberts, of Jermy; and Superintendent Charles P. Ford, of Olyphant. Second district—John R. Jones, of Bellevue; Patrick H. Sammon, of Mooste; and Superintendent James Young, of Dunmore. The appointments date from the January term, 1897, and are to continue one year.

NORTH MILL TO RESUME. Work Will Begin There on Tuesday Morning—South Mill Trouble Still Unsettled.

Saturday the following notice was posted at the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's North mill: The blooming mill will start Tuesday morning, July 6, at 6 o'clock. North Rolling mill.

T. G. Wolf, Superintendent. The North mill has been idle for about six weeks. The resumption means employment for 250 men.

At present the mill will run on a single turn, but there are indications that before long the mill will be working night and day.

The rumor that the South mill will also start up Tuesday morning is without foundation. General Manager Wehrum up to last night has given no such orders. The situation there remains unchanged, but there is a belief that the trouble will be settled before many days and that both mills will soon be running full blast.

BURKE SERIOUSLY CHARGED. Mrs. Bridget Ferguson Says He Broke Into Her House.

John F. Burke, of Dunmore, was arrested Saturday on a very serious charge. The warrant was sworn to by Mrs. Bridget Ferguson and executed from Alderman Millar's office.

Mrs. Ferguson avers that at an early hour Saturday morning Burke broke into her residence in Dunmore and entered an apartment in which her sixteen-year-old daughter slept. The girl screamed when she saw the man and the fellow made his escape through the same window by which he entered.

Blade of a pen knife. Peter Kelley suffered a jab in the neck and his brother received the blade with his face and arm.

Warren was arrested, but was afterward released. The Kelleys are under the doctor's care. They are not seriously hurt.

IN MEMORY OF J. J. ALBRIGHT.

Dr. Logan Preached Last Evening at the African Church. Rev. S. J. Logan, D. D., last evening delivered a sermon at the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church where services were held commemorative of the late J. J. Albright.

Dr. Logan's sermon was an unusually effective one and found hearty sentiment with the large congregation.
