ITS BAPTISM OF FIRE.

One of the Buildings in Course of Construction in Lincoln Park Entirely Destroyed by Fire.

Lincoln Heights is the name of one of several recent additions to the city's new building plots. It is not actually a portion of the city as yet, but touches the Sixth ward boundary line and is adjacent to the Round Woods. Last evening about 5:30 the Heights had its initial fire. There are seven new single dwellings in course of erection upon different portions of the plot and one of these, abutting on Watson avenue, either took fire or was set on fire. The destruction was complete, there being no fire hydrants within 4,500 feet of the residence.

The Heights with its stone sidewalks is an attraction for promenaders of an evening and the flames were discovered by some young men who were passing. One of them apprised Mr. Reynolds, the land agent, who resides on South Main avenue, a few blocks distant, and he telephoned to the city fire department. The Dodge shaft whistle was blown and later an alarm was sent from Box 32. The Eagles and Franklin companies went to the scene, but Chief Hickey recognized the futility of any attempt to reach the fire with a line of hose and sent them back. The house was a two-story frame structure and was almost ready for occupation. It was being built for G. F. Reynolds, bookkeeper for the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, by his brother, Clarence Reynolds, a Dunmore contractor. The land agent, Mr. Reynolds, was seen and stated that he had no idea as to the origin of the fire. It having commenced in the rear cellar, might have been caused by spontaneous combustion; the trying of a new furnace, or carelessness of some carpenter in leaving fire around.

Two or three boys who were passing the building some ten minutes before the discovery of fire stated that they had seen two fellows come out of the building and go across the fields into the Round Woods. The other buildings were distant enough to escape damage.

CLARK-MUMFORD NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed in Washburn Street Presbyterian Church.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Germaid Mumford to Florist George B. Clark was solemnized yesterday at 1:15 p. m. at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The pulpit and altar railings were profusely decorated with palms, cut flowers and flowering plants. Here and there around the auditorium were placed strands of flowers and large bouquets. The bride couple entered the church together and proceeded up the aisle. Miss Edith Swingle, church organist, playing the wedding march. They were met at the railing by Rev. J. P. Moffatt, pastor of the church, and the wedding ceremony performed. The bride wore a pretty traveling costume and was unattended. The ushers were:

George B. Davidson, esq., Lucius Kennedy, George Waters and Herbert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clark left immediately after the ceremony for Buffalo and Niagara Falls and upon their return will reside at North Scranton. Mrs. Clark is one of West Scranton's charming young ladies and has been active in the church work of the Washburn street church. Mr. Clark is a very successful business man and is one of Scranton's leading florists.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Andrew Porchison and Andrew Cosnock, both residents of Kelly's Patch, got into difficulty Tuesday. Porchison came up on Cosnock's porch and shook hands with him, at the same time striking him. Last evening, Cosnock appeared against Porchison before Alderman Thomas Kenny, of the Twenty-first ward, with a charge of assault and battery. Porchison was held in $300 bail to appear at court. Ben Aronovitch, the Scranton street grocer, became bondsman.

John Edwards conducted a hotel at 1144 Luzerne street, and George Firestone, with his family, reside on the floors above. Firestone and Mrs. Edwards apparently do not agree for yesterday she lodged a charge of assault and battery against Firestone before Alderman John Firestone. Firestone went before the alderman and waiving a hearing entered bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court.

OUTING AT NAY AUG PARK.

Mrs. W. J. Morgan's Sunday school class of the Plymouth Congregational church spent a pleasant day's outing at Nay Aug park Wednesday. Those who enjoyed the holiday were: The Misses Jessie Mathias, May Price, Nevada McCerty, Gertrude Hughes, Anna B. Williams, Ethel Richards, Jennie Davis, Margaret Williams, Jennie Lewis, Jessie Lewis, Ruth Lewis, May Joseph, May Davis, Miss Davis, of Plymouth, and Miss Edna Evans and Laura Hughes, of Bloomsburg Normal school; Mrs. W. J. Morgan, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Joseph, Mrs. Joseph Hughes and Mrs. John Hughes. The party had a snap shot picture taken in the afternoon by Will Young.

LECTURE ON AFRICA.

Rev. James Hughes, of Kimberly, South Africa, lectured at the First Baptist church, Scranton street, last evening upon "Africa." There was a goodly sized audience present and all thoroughly enjoyed the lecture. Rev. Mr. Hughes is interesting in style and speech and being conversant with his subject from ten years' residence keeps his hearers interested. There were many from other parts of the city who were desirous of hearing the reverend gentleman.

J. are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Sanderling, of Main avenue.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church will hold a lawn social this evening. The affair will be conducted on the lawn at the residence of John L. Travis, of 1119 North Main avenue. The grounds will be prettily lighted with Chinese lanterns and music and refreshments will be in order. The public is invited and as the street cars are convenient no trouble can be experienced in going or returning. The Bellevue Republican club will meet Saturday evening at Jones' hall. Some interesting numbers are on the programme and the president, Herbert Noble, requests a large attendance. This evening the West Side Republican league will meet and elect officers nominated at the last meeting. The committee on furnishing will also report. A full attendance is desired. The members of the primary department of the First Welsh Congregational school of South Main avenue were entertained Wednesday afternoon by their teacher, John Long. Nearly all the little ones were present and recitations, music, etc., were enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The affair was held in the church school room.

It will be interesting to the many West Side friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Jones, of Swansco, Wales, to learn that they have been blessed with a little girl. Mr. Jones formerly resided on the West Side and was proprietor of the old Star Drug store on South Main avenue.

PROVIDENCE.

Edward Hogan, of Thompson street, employed as a laborer in the Briarhill mine, met with a painful accident yesterday morning. Hogan at the time of the accident was engaged in loading a car, when another car was run into the chamber, bumping the first with great force. As a result of the collision Hogan was thrown violently to the floor of the chamber. The fall was so severe that he was rendered unconscious and was taken to his home in that state. A doctor was summoned and after much hard work he succeeded in restoring him to consciousness. His injuries consist of a deep laceration of the jaw and several bruises about the head. The Welsh Congregational church will run their annual excursion to Mountain Park this morning. The train will leave the Ontario and Western station at 8 o'clock. The funeral of John McTigue, formerly supervisor of Reagan's farm, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of John Reagan, corner Brick and Park streets. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the deceased. The remains were interred in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. William Lewis and Mrs. David Jones, of Dowling, South Wales, are visiting at the home of John Henry, on Warren street. Mrs. W. H. Sadler and children, of North Main avenue, left yesterday for a month's stay with relatives at Fayetteville, N. Y. Patrick Philbin, of Dunmore, was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant issued from Alderman Roberts' court, on charges preferred by T. F. Burke. The prosecution alleges that Philbin came to this city last week of last and secured the use of a buggy. He returned the vehicle in a broken condition and refused to settle for the damage done. At the hearing yesterday afternoon before Alderman Roberts, Philbin entered bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court. Miss Fannie Wilson, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Robinson, of Oak street. Frank Searle, of Syracuse, who has been visiting his niece, Mrs. G. E. Guild, of North Main avenue, returned to his home yesterday. A horse belonging to the Peck Luncheon company, attached to a heavy wagon, took fright yesterday afternoon on East Market street. When the Delaware and Hudson crossing was reached the horse was down, but the driver, not deterred by the horse in his flight, he dashed into the gates wrecking the car and narrowly escaping the oncoming train. The driver, who stuck to the lines, escaped injury but the wagon was a total wreck. Major J. B. Fish and family have returned from Preston Park. Rev. D. M. Kinter and wife returned yesterday from Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

NEW GAME LAW.

Provisions of the Act Passed by the Last Legislature and Signed by Governor Hastings.

Following are the provisions of the new game law passed by the last legislature and approved by Governor Hastings, June 4, 1897: There shall be no hunting or shooting on the first day of the week, called Sunday; penalty $25 or imprisonment. No person shall kill, wound, trap, net, snare, catch with birdlime or any similar substance, poison or drug, any bird of song or any warbler, linnet, titmouse, blue bird, sparrow, yellow bird, thrush, downy woodpecker, hairy woodpecker, dilated woodpecker, red bellied woodpecker, red headed woodpecker, catbird, pewee, vireo, martin, tanager, tiltup, blue finch, indigo bird, oriole, shrike, killdeer, grackle, snow bird, hair bird, grouse, whippoorwill, cuckoo, chestnut chickadee, cat, pheasant, bird, red-start, finch, hummingbird, cowbird, shore lark, nuthatch, least cottontail, swift, nighthawk, starling or bunting. Nor shall any person purchase or have in possession, or expose for sale, any of the aforesaid song or wild birds, or the game mammals killed or taken in this state; penalty $10 or imprisonment.

Turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge, woodcock, prairie chicken, English, Mongolian or Chinese pheasant, from the 15th day of October to the 15th day of December. Provided, that it shall be unlawful to catch, take or kill any Mongolian, English or Chinese pheasant for a period of five years from this date. And provided further, that it shall be lawful to kill woodcock during the month of July in addition to the time above specified; penalty $25 or imprisonment.

Elk, deer or fawn during the month of November. No person or persons shall at any time kill or capture, or kill or capture in the waters of any of the streams, ponds or lakes. No person or persons shall make use of dog or dogs in hunting any elk, deer or fawn; penalty $100 or imprisonment. Dogs pursuing or killing any elk, deer or fawn, or following upon their track may be killed when so seen, and the owner of such dog or dogs shall have no recourse at law whatever. It shall be unlawful at any season of the year to kill, entrap, or pursue with intent to kill, entrap, or pursue any deer, fawn, wild turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge or woodcock for the purpose of selling the same. And it shall be unlawful for the proprietor of any market or other person, firm or corporation to purchase, sell or expose for sale any elk, deer, fawn, wild turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge or woodcock killed or entraped within this commonwealth. No person or persons shall, at any time, catch, take or kill, or have in his or her possession or under his or her control, any of the birds or game animals of this state, the killing of which at any or all times is prohibited by the laws of this state, with intent to ship or remove the same beyond the limits of this state; it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, acting in the capacity of a common carrier, their officers or employees, to knowingly receive for transportation or transport or remove beyond the limits of the state any of the birds or game animals herein mentioned in this act; that it shall be unlawful for any one person to kill in any one day more than ten ruffed grouse, commonly called pheasants, or more than fifteen quail or Virginia partridge, or more than ten woodcock, or more than two wild turkeys, or to kill in any one season more than two deer; penalty not less than $50. No person shall catch, take or kill any hare or rabbit, save only from the 1st day of December to the 1st of black, gray or fox squirrel, save only from the 15th day of October to the 15th day of December, inclusive; penalty $10 or imprisonment. No person shall hunt or cause or permit the hunting of hares or rabbits with a ferret or ferrets, under a penalty of $25. No person shall catch, take or kill any of the game birds or game mammals hereinbefore mentioned in any manner than by shooting them, with a gun or other device, or other purpose in hunting ducks, wild geese and brant; and it shall be lawful to trap quail from the 1st day of January in any year to the 15th day of February next following and to take them alive for the purpose of keeping them alive during the winter, but no other purpose whatever; penalty $50 or imprisonment. Except as provided for in section 2 no person, for any reason or purpose whatever, shall take, have in his or her possession or under control, break or destroy or in any manner interfere with any nest or the contents thereof, or any of the kinds of birds the killing of which is at any time or all time herein prohibited. Provided, that this does not apply to persons who have obtained certificates permitting them to collect the nests and eggs of wild birds other than game birds. Any person may have in his or her possession the game birds and game mammals herein mentioned for a period of fifteen days after the time limited for killing the same has expired, and shall not be liable to any penalty under this act.

A VALUABLE RAT'S NEST. It was made of greenbacks worth about One Thousand Dollars. New York Commercial Advertiser. While workmen were engaged last week in demolishing a barn on the Thompson property in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., they found under the floor a rat's nest which was made of greenbacks. The money had been badly torn and chewed, but most of it, if not all, is redeemable. Professor Thomas F. F. Thompson, now owns the property, says the money was probably hidden under the barn floor some years ago by his father, Robert Thompson, who began to act queerly in 1859, and became possessed of a few of banks, lawyers and corporation now owns the property, says the money about him. He seldom, if ever, allowed anyone but himself to visit the barn. Mr. Thompson, Sr., died September 18, 1895, and Professor Thompson's mother lived until December last. By her will the estate, which consisted of $2,000 and the house and land, was to be divided equally between Professor Thompson and his brother. The professor took the house and his brother the money. In equity the money found in the rat's nest belongs to Professor Thompson. The professor is a blind musician and has composed a number of pieces. The total amount of money in the rats' nest is thought to be about $1,000. It is $5, $10 and $20 bills.

OUR LEGATION IN MADRID. Men Who Have Represented Washington in Spain's Capital.

The post of minister to Madrid has been the most important in the diplomatic service of the United States, says the Sun, and Stewart L. Woodford is the thirty-third representative of the United States to be accredited officially to the Madrid government. The first American minister to Spain was the Virginian, William Stewart, at the time of his appointment in 1799, by Washington; then president, he was looked upon as a representative of the old school of Virginians, who, at that time, seemed to have greater qualifications for the diplomatic service than those parts of Alabama and Mississippi south of the thirty-first parallel and that portion of the present state of Louisiana east of the Mississippi, except what was then called the Island of New Orleans. The ground of dispute between Spain and the United States being removed, there was easy sailing for the American ministers, and the place came to be known as a post for novelists and antiquarians. Washington Irving was appointed to it in 1842 by President Tyler. Under Soule, of Louisiana, held it for three years. Buchanan appointed Gen. Preston, of Kentucky, and President Lincoln appointed Carl Schurz, then a resident of Wisconsin. Schurz gave place to Gustav Koerner, afterward lieutenant-governor of Illinois, and in turn to John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, whose services as the Free Soil pioneer are remembered by all Republicans. Hale was succeeded by Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, who was succeeded by Caleb Cushing. Under Hayes James Russell Lowell was minister to Spain. President Arthur appointed Hannibal Hamlin and on his retirement John W. Foster, envoy extraordinary for the United States in foreign lands, particularly in Asia, became the American minister in Madrid; he was followed by Perry Belmont to the post, and Harrison had three ministers to Spain—Thomas W. Palmer, of Michigan; E. Byrd Grubb, and A. Loudon Snowden, of Pennsylvania. Gen. Woodford is no stranger to the course of American politics, and in the strained relations between the Spanish monarchy and the American republic, arising from Cuban difficulties, he will be better qualified to represent American interests than would a minister of literary tastes and achievements, visiting the city on the Tagus for an outing.

MIDSUMMER SHIRT WAISTS AT CLOSE OF SEASON'S PRICES

There is no story whatever attached to these waists. Every garment is of this season's design and make, and the five lots into which they are divided includes the balance of our entire season's line, therefore, although prices are unusually low, the quality and finish is the very highest we could procure. These are points well worth your consideration, for as you probably know, at this season the market is filled with seconds and jobberish stuff on which the price is low enough in all conscience, but it lacks the careful finish and fine choice of patterns that is found in regular goods, and consequently cannot be figured on as belonging to the same class in any way.

FIVE GREAT BARGAIN LOTS.

- LOT 1. All of our well known 65c waists, pretty patterns, correct styles, right making and materials. Sale price, 43c
- LOT 2. 85c and $1.00 goods. If you've looked over the stock previously, you know what these goods are. No finer lines at the prices has ever been shown in this city. Sale Price, 69c
- LOT 3. Your choice of any of our $1.25 shirt waists. The selection is still excellent, and a more elegant line for $1.25 could hardly be imagined. Sale price, 86c
- LOT 4. Two qualities are thrown together in this lot ($1.35 and $1.50 waists). They've been great favorites with lovers of quality at the old figures, so they ought to prove a strong temptation to buyers at the new Sale price, $1.19
- LOT 5. Your choice of the finest short waists in stock. They sold at from $1.75 to $2.25 up till yesterday. Sale price, $1.49
