West Side and City Suburban

He Vows That He will Stay in Jail for Seven Years.

Patrick Rainey resides with his wife and child at 1182 Lugerne street, but peace does not seem to spread its wings over the household, Mrs. Rainey ac cuses her husband of drinking and beating her and the child, and so bad is the state of affairs that she had her husband arrested yesterday.

Constable Timothy Jones brought Mr. Rainey before Alderman Johns last evening. He denied the charges, but he was held in $300 bail. He refused to get it, and was committed to jail in default thereof.

The man says he will stay in "seven years" before he will get bail, because this is the second time his wife has done this. The first time she went and withdrew the case and paid the costs. Mr. Rainey's neighbors speak of him as a law-abiding citizen.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED.

The West Side Republican League held a large and enthusiastic meeting in their rooms over J. J. Davis' drug store last evening. After the transaction of the usual business the club elected officers for the ensuing year. President W. A. Phillips succeeds himself. Following are the officers and committees: President, W. A. Phil-lips; first vice-president, John H. Rey nolds; second vice-president, John T. James; recording secretary, W. H. Mor gan; financial secretary, David R. Jones; treasurer, William V. Griffiths; executive committee, William Penn Morgan, chairman; W. J. Thomas, R. H. Williams, Dr. W. A. Paine, Dr. J. J. Roberts; financias committee, A. B. Eynon, chairman, W. Hayden Evans Thomas J. Leyshon, W. L. Campion, Frank Mansfield; campaign committee C. E. Olver, esq., chairman, J. H. Coons George B. Carson, Joseph Obver, H. L. Taylor, esq; membership committee, Richard Roberts, chairman, John Walker, G. F. Eynon, Walter Wilkins.

PICKWICKERS AND TENNYSON. Last evening the Pickwick club met at the residence of Miss Edith Williams, on Chestnut street, and had an enjoyable evening dealing with the works of Tennyson. The usual business was transacted and the literary programme followed. C. H. Hall gave a pithy review of "Idyles of the Kings" and a comparison between Tennyson and Longfellow was made by Claude Pitcher. Miss Mabel Yost rendered a piano solo and selections were given from Tennyson's works by each member. The exercises were concluded with a piano sole by Miss Marion Hutchinson. was decided to hold an outing at Nay Aug Falls Park next Monday af-

FUNERAL OF ROBERT DAVIS. The funeral services of the late Robert Davis, jr., were beid yesterday at 3 p. m. from the residence of his father, Robert Davis, st., of Archbald street. They were attended by the immediate relatives and friends only. Rev. J. T. Morris, testor of the Welsh Calvanistic Methodist church of Bellevue, preached the sermon. There were several beautiful floral offerings.

Not far from Throop is an old unused reservoir, familiarly known to the young people of Dunmore as "Birdseye," and both in winter and summer the place is one of great attraction Situated in a valley and surrounded by the choicest bandiwork of nature, it a delightful resort for picnic parties. The reservoir is fed with springs were it not for the fact that it contains so many decayed stumps, might still be used for the purpose it was intended for. To those who cannot swim the place is one of great danger, mainly on account of the innumerable "step offs," whereby a person unexpectedly steps from three feet of water into sixteen. Among the bathers yesterday was an Italian named Pedro Domincio. He was an expert swimmer and delighted the onookers with an aquatic performance. Suddenly, however, he was noticed to sink, and it was thought by many that he had been seized with cramps. B. G. Street Commissioner Will Have to Lay Off Some of His Sweepers. Street Commissioner Dunning has decided that it will be necessary for him to curtail expenses in his department or their will be a large deficit at the end of the fiscal year. He has been actuated by a laudable desire to keep the streets of the city clean and has produced some good results by as-signing a man to a certain number of blocks and holding him responsible for the condition of the part of the street under his care, Mr. Dunning has discovered that there is not enough of money at his command to keep up this system and on Monday will be compelled to lay off from seven to ten of his sweepers and scrapers. Hereafter the street that have been cleaned once a day will be cleaned but three times a week unless councils find some means of diverting additional funds into the Street Commissioner's hands,

MOTHER GETS THE CHILDREN.

Mrs. Gates Wins in the Habens Corpus Proceedings.

Judge Edwards yesterday decided in favor of the mother in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Mrs. John H. Gates to secure from her husband possession of their 12-year-old boy and s-year-old girl.

In making the decision Judge Edwards said that notwithstanding the fact that the father had more ability to care for the children and was their natural guardian, on account of the testimony adduced at Wednesday's hearing regarding the father's moral character, he was constrained to award the children to the mother.

There was quite a scene when the little ones were taken away from their father, but after the mother had talked soothingly to them for awhile they dried their tears and accompanied her without any apparent reluctance.

Blind Tom, once so prominent a figure on the concert stage, is now deeribed as a "tall, broad shouldered, neatly dressed colored man, whose gray hair and sightless eyes increase the impressiveness of his appearance." lives with his guardian, Mrs. Eliza Lerche, at the Highlands of Navesink, on the New Jersey side of the lower New York bay.

The fad of the elite engaging musical artists to sing or play for them at private musicales has invaded London As usual fabulous prices are paid. Melba has sung thirteen times at private houses, receiving $1,500 each time. Caive and Eames ask $1,000 each, while Ancona and Plancon, who are great social favorites, receive $500 each. Paderewski has been exceedingly graclous and consented to play four times at private houses, receiving each time something like $5,000.

IT WAS A PITCHED BATTLE.

'Old Church' and "New Church" Came Together in a Saloon.

From the testimony adduced at the pearing in the Elm street riot case at Alderman Millar's office last night, it would appear that a more serious conflict occurred than was at first supposed.

On the night of July 5, Z. Lopotyner, Daniel Langowski and ten or twelve others belonging to a faction which known as the anti-Aust element, were going past the saloon of Joseph Zul-rofski, on Elm street, which is the headquarters for the other faction. Some parties sitting on the porch of the saloon made some insulting remarks to the passers-by and after a consultation on the corner the insulted crowd decided to return to the saloon and find out who had called them names. Fifteen of the "old church people" were in the back room of saloon and when the "new church" crowd came in there was, as may be believed, several assortments of bother. Lopotyner made his escape through a back window and called the patrol wagon. Two of the old church crowd and Daniel Langowski were arrested. Later six of the "old churchmen" were irrested on warrants issued by Lopotyner et al., charging them with engaging in a riot. Six out of the eight gave bail for their appearance at court. The other two, J. and S. Bucholski, demanded a hearing and it was given them last night. They were identified as participants and were held in $300 bail each to answer at court. Max Judkovies became their bondsman.
