SUNDAY'S GAMES. Authorities Didn't Interfere at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—After winning a victory in the courts, the management of the Cleveland base ball club was not inclined to abandon the game scheduled for today even though the grounds were soapy and a drizzling rain fell during nearly all of the nine innings.

This was the first game in Cleveland on Sunday for a long while and 1,500 people took the chances of getting wet to see it. There was no attempt on the part of the authorities to interfere with the game. The ball was slippery and hard for the pitchers and fielders to handle. In consequence the game was uninteresting. BONN WOULDN'T PITCH. City Hall and Court House Teams Played Ball Saturday.

The city hall and court house clerks played base ball on the James' Boys' grounds Saturday afternoon. After five innings the score was:

R.H.E. City Hall 10, 2 1 3 2-8 29 49. Court House 10, 3 7 2 1-14 29 49.

Batteries—Bennish and E. Hunt, Jr. and Vail. Honn jumped the game and several umpires awarded the victory to the City Hall men by the score of 5 to 6. The court house clerks say it was agreed that only five innings should be played.

American Record Broken. Baltimore, July 11.—Elmer C. Davis, of this city, today succeeded in breaking the American 24-hour record, which was held by Henry Smith, also of Baltimore.

Davis covered 34 miles in 24 hours ending at 5 p. m., which is just two miles more than Smith's record breaking performance on May 9 last over the same course.
