THOMAS KANE ARRESTED.

Chief of Police McAndrew has been on Chief of Police Michardew has been on the look-out for the potorious Thomas Kane for some time. He had been under arrest but got away on straw bail. He has been seen from time to time in this vicinity, but somehow always managed to escape the officers. The entire police force, were looking for him a few days ago, as it was known that he was in the city. One Matthew Degan, an old associate of Kane, informed the police that Kane was at his home on Dundarf street, near the Delaware and Hudson car house Accordingly Patrolman Wil-liam McAndrew and Constance Moran visited the premises and demanded ad-mission. They entered and secured their prisoner, and were just in time, for he had contemplated leaving the city. Sat-urday afternoon he was taken to the county jall. Kane was arrested for felcounty latt. Kane was arrested for lea-onlously entering the house of Mr. and Ars Nicholas Devine, an aged couple residing on Brocklyn street. The affair occurred on the night of the zeventeenth of March. Jack McGowan, another notorlous character, was with him, and committed an assault upon the old people. He was not able to secure ball and is row serving a term of six years in the penitentiary. Kane will now, it is thought, meet merited punishment. He has been absent since the date fixed for his trial, wandering about the coun-

HOSPITAL DIRECTORS.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of hospital directors the need of tepairs to the building was considered The building having settled at some of the corners has caused the plaster of the walls to become badly cracked. Reports are essental, and therefore, as there are no funds for the purpose it will be acces-sary for the directors to borrow a sum sufficient for needed repairs. The state appropriation for the next two years is less than in former years. It is thought that subscriptions and donations will be asked in order to carry on the work suc

FULL TIME AT THE COLLIERIES.

It would appear that better times are coming for the miners. The Erie, Glea-wood and Keystone collieries have re-pelved orders to work on full time. The Edgerton Coal company also have sent out a like notice. The Delaware and Hudson collieries are now working on three-quarter time. Should the strike at soft coal mines continue long all collieries here will doubtless be bene-

MEN'S SUITS AT HALF PRICE-That's the pith of the most remarkable offering of the kind ever made in the market.

We have decided to make a clean sweep of our entire stock of Men's Spring and Summer Woolen Suits. We want to bare the tables. We want every suit to go before the season does. Resolution makes mighty sacrifices and we are willing to stand the loss.

Today, then, we place before you our entire stock of Fancy Cheviots, Worsteds and Cassimeres in checks, plaids, overplaids and mixtures and offer you choice, pick when you will, at exactly half price. By exactly half price we mean half the original prices. Our regular p rices of Men's Suits run from $8 to $20 and the following list illustrates the case exactly:

We expect this sale to do the work of clearing in a week, and we advise everybody intending to purchase suits for this summer, or next, to come here early now-this week. Our Lackawanna Avenue window will be decorated with Suits, showing what half price really means.

We can always afford to tell facts. We can never afford to disappoint. Patrons or shoppers need ask no questions—glance at ticket plainly marked. Cut the price in time—that is the price—hand it to the salesman the suit is yours. That is simple, honest, and our present policy.
