THIRTEENTH INSPECTED

Went Through the Ordeal with Rain Pattering Down on Them.

MADE A GOOD SHOWING

Compliment by Adjutant General Stewart.

Before the Inspection Was Completed, the Rain Came Down in a Torrent, Accompanied by Thunder and Lightning, and the Drill Part of the Inspection Had to Be Postponed Until Another Time--Brigade Inspection is Scheduled for Tomorrow.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Camp Lewis Merrill, Mt. Gretna, Pa., July 12.—"Colonel, you have a magnificent command; the uniforms are in splendid condition." These words tell the result of this afternoon's inspection of the Thirteenth regiment by Adjutant General Stewart and staff. They were spoken by the general himself and addressed to Colonel Coursen, after the last man had passed through the ordeal.

Colonel Coursen's response was a salute as his face lightened with pleasure. Colonel Ripple, the old commander of the Thirteenth, who was one of staff, signified his contentment with a smile. Rain is falling at the time and on this point, Colonel Coursen says that today's inspection was conducted under circumstances that never before in his thirty years' experience occurred.

The morning was cloudy and cool while the Twelfth, Eighth and Fourth regiments were being inspected. In the afternoon the skies were threatening and General Stewart had issued orders postponing the Thirteenth's inspection. But our boys got ahead of the order and were on the field at 1 o'clock p. m. At this General Stewart remarked to the adjutant, "I thought to cut you off, but you were too sharp for us." So the inspection proceeded.

First occurred the review. This was indeed magnificent. Our fellows simply covered their arms with glory. If Scranton could only have seen it, the line of march was in front of Brigade headquarters and return. The inspection proper was then begun. A negligent sergeant in Company F caused the only glaring criticism. The first battalion had been passed when the rain fell and the rest of the inspection was conducted in a light shower.

General Stewart had just spoken the remarks mentioned in the opening paragraph when down came a sheet of heavy rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning. Colonel Coursen signified his willingness to proceed with the rest of the inspection, but General Stewart was getting uncomfortably wet, so the drill portion of the inspection was postponed indefinitely.

The Thirteenth made their way to their homes on the hill at double quick, and every man was soaked through. There were great scenes at the camp this evening, owing to a lack of double suits of clothing. It is likely that the rest of the inspection will be conducted early tomorrow morning.

At 10 a. m. tomorrow the brigade inspection will take place and the governor will review at 2 in the afternoon. The Ninth regiment will elect a new colonel tomorrow night. At a late hour tonight it is still raining and the tents are flooded.

Lieutenant Gee, of Company A, was in command of the brigade guard mount today.

TRIP TO CAMP.
The facility with which the Thirteenth regiment train was advanced by the railroad companies during the late Scranton Saturday night was remarkable. During all the trip—175 miles—the longest delay was for fifteen minutes at Mauch Chunk, where the ice water tanks were being replenished. From Mauch Chunk to Allentown, a distance of thirty-one miles, the train was but thirty-three minutes in passing.

BRITAIN SOMEWHAT SHY.

Hears Our Appeal for International Bimetallism, but Gives No Sign of Her Intentions.

London, July 12.—An important conference was held at the foreign office today between Senator Wolcott, former Vice-President Stevenson and General Paine, the members of the United States bimetallic commission, and Ambassador Hay and Lord Salisbury, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer; Arthur Balfour, first lord of the treasury, and Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India. The conference was preliminary to the carrying on of further negotiations on the subject of international bimetallicism.

It was stated that France was ready to co-operate with the United States, Great Britain and Germany in reaching an agreement for international bimetallicism. The British representative, however, indicated that his intentions in the matter. Consultations of high British officials will be held before another meeting with the American commissioners and in the meantime the latter will privately discuss the question with Baron de Rothschild and other financiers and endeavor to secure their support.

LOVER'S DIE IN EACH OTHER'S ARMS.
Opposition to Marriage Prompts a Double Suicide.
Moline, O., July 12.—Edward William Cowsell, a boy of 18, and Nellie A. Lusher, 17 years old, had loved each other for a long time, but their parents thought neither old enough to marry. On Wednesday evening the young couple attended a lawn party at a farm, after which they returned to the Lusher home with Nellie's younger sister.

A short time afterward the couple disappeared and no trace of them was discovered until yesterday. Their bodies were found on the bank of a stone quarry pool. The water was drained, and they were recovered from the surface, tightly clasped in each other's arms.

BOTH SIDES TENACIOUS.
Conferees on the Tariff Bill Find It Difficult to Get Together on Points at Issue Between the Two Houses.
Washington, July 12.—The tariff conferees have struck some snags in their work. The minor matters were easily adjusted, but on all important features there has been no agreement and the outlook today was that several reports would have to be made before an adjustment could be reached. The house conferees are standing solidly by their bill and the senate conferees are no less tenacious.

The senate conferees have laid before the house members the condition in the senate where there is not an actual majority of the Republicans and more than Republican votes are necessary to pass the bill or adopt a conference report. They asserted that in 1894 the Democrats were in better shape in the senate than the Republicans now, as they had an actual majority, yet the house was finally compelled to accept the senate bill in order to pass it.

The members of the house are standing by their bill nevertheless, and have told the senators that they cannot accept the senate amendments on many important items. The more important features of the bill are not settled and the conferees find trouble on items outside of sugar, wool, coal and lead.

HUNGRY, BUT WON'T WORK.
An Army of Worthless Tramps Infesting Kansas.
Topeka, Kan., July 12.—There is great indignation among Kansas farmers, who are short of help in the harvest fields, over the army of tramps infesting the country and absolutely refusing to work for good wages.

In many communities the farmers have resolved not to give food to tramps, and as a result the hordes have resorted to theft, to keep them from starving. The county jails are rapidly filling with tramps arrested for stealing. Thousands of acres of Kansas wheat have been damaged for lack of help.

FIRE AT A COTTON MILL.
Waste Ignited by a Spark, and Much Damage Wrought.
Lancaster, July 12.—A fire occurred at the cotton mill of George Brown & Sons, Mount Joy, this county, this afternoon, that caused a loss of $12,000, covering the loss of machinery, which was completely gutted and valuable machinery ruined.

It was caused by a nail passing through a picker, causing a spark which ignited waste. Two hundred hands are temporarily thrown out of employment.

GROVER TO BE REVERSED.
Cleveland's Order for the Consolidation of Pension Agencies Is to Be Suspended Indefinitely.
Washington, July 12.—At the cabinet meeting tomorrow it is likely that in addition to the consideration to be given the currency message, the president's order, now only awaiting his signature, relative to the consolidation of pension agencies, will be brought up in some form.

The order of President Cleveland, reducing the agencies from 18 to 8, was to take effect on Sept. 1 next, and tomorrow, in all probability, the cabinet will be definitely advised and consulted as to the document. The order as now framed will merely suspend the carrying out of the consolidation order of the last administration, which was never taken effect.

There is a feeling that in time all pension payments should be paid from the agency at Washington, and the administration's view is that it might be better to take this radical action when any change is made in the system. For the present, however, the operation of the order is simply suspended, consolidation as provided for being regarded as impracticable now, and involving too much cost and inconvenience.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS CAPTURE DETROIT

Delegates to the League Convention Arrive in Great Force.

TWO PRESIDENTIAL BOOMS IN TOW
Marcus Pollasky, of Chicago, and Leonard J. Crawford, of Kentucky, Open Headquarters and Dispense Hospitality--Regular Work of the Convention to Begin This Morning.
Detroit, Mich., July 12.—Delegates to the National League of Young Republicans' convention came in great force by tonight's trains. The two leading candidates for president of the league have opened headquarters at the two leading hotels. Marcus Pollasky, the popular Chicagoan, is expected to be in the lead, has established himself at the Russell House, and Leonard J. Crawford, of Kentucky, a close second, dispenses hospitalities at the Cadillac.

The presidency and the location of the next convention are almost the only topics of interest discussed around the hotels in connection with the convention. The resolutions adopted will doubtless be an endorsement of last year's St. Louis convention. The first session will be held tomorrow morning.

TAX BILL HEARINGS.
Prominent Merchants Ask the Governor to Veto the Merchants' License Bill--Other Subjects Considered.
Harrisburg, July 12.—Governor Hastings gave public hearings this afternoon in the executive chamber on the mercantile tax measure and the Simon electric light plant bill. Attorney General McCormick and Secretary of the Commonwealth Reeder were present as advisers of the executive. Speeches in opposition to the mercantile bill were made by these Philadelphiaans:

W. W. Pollock, president of the Trades league; Henry A. Fry, grocer and importer exchange; William M. Coates, board of trade; L. P. Passmore, commercial exchange; W. H. Supple, Hardware association; Theodore Justice, N. B. Kelly, Trades league; Charles M. Belle, lumber exchange; Francis B. Reeves, William T. Tilden, Business Men's league; and Joshua J. Bailey, representing the Dry Goods association. George A. Kelly, John Binley and W. B. Rodgers, representing the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce and Grocers' association, also spoke against the bill.

William Haines and Charles R. Wood, of Philadelphia, advocated the signing of the measure on the ground that it would force the large department stores to pay a heavier tax and aid the single-line merchants.

Thomas Martindale and George Hawkes, of Philadelphia, spoke against the Simon bill. There were also some deplorable in opposition to this proposition from Kenneth Square, Pottsville, Beaver Falls, Shippensburg, Lehighton, Butler and Wilkes-Barre. Richmond L. Jones, of Reading, and Henry Clay, of Philadelphia, defended the measure.

MAD WOMAN'S AWFUL SUICIDE.
Held Her Half-Severed Head in Her Hands and Died.
New York, July 12.—Lydia Mahoney, 45 years old, committed suicide while temporarily deranged. The woman cut her throat from ear to ear. The arrangements for taking her life were ghastly in their completeness. On the floor, by the side of the bed, she had placed a number of clean turkish towels. In the center she had placed a large wash bowl, and then had set upon the edge of the bed and drawn the towel instrument across her throat. Evidently she had leaned forward at this time, and, holding her half-severed head in her hands, she bled to death from the awful cut until the bowl on the floor beneath her was almost filled. Then strength deserted her, and she dropped to the floor, her head lying back in the death spasm.

GOOD TIMES COMING.
Three Pittsburg Steel Mills Come to an Understanding with Their Employes, and Work is Resumed.
Pittsburg, July 12.—The special steel scale at Jones & Laughlin's American iron and steel plant was signed today after a conference between the employes and work probably will be resumed tomorrow. The workmen accepted the terms offered by the company. It is said to be the first time that the price per ton, but an increase on the output, which will be much greater, owing to the improved machinery. The iron scale is the only one remaining unagreed.

The National rolling mill at McKeesport resumed in full this morning in all departments, except the puddling, where the men are on a strike. Work was resumed in nearly every department of the W. Deeweese-wood rolling mill, and the indications are for steady work.

UNION PACIFIC THE THEME.
Senator Morgan Arraigns That Road and Carries His Point.
Washington, July 12.—A discussion of Union Pacific railroad affairs occupied the attention of the senate today. The discussion was continued until late in the evening, and Mr. Morgan proposed an amendment designed to prevent the consummation of an agreement between the government and the road. The amendment was adopted and the government's claims against the road. Mr. Morgan spoke through the day, severely arraigning the Pacific railway managers.

Late in the day the entire subject was disposed of by the withdrawal of the paragraph to which Mr. Morgan had offered his amendment. The deficiency bill was not completed up to the time of adjournment.

GOMEZ SLIPS OUT OF CUBA.
Thought to Have Come to the United States for Conference.
Havana, via Key West, Fla., July 12.—It is reported here, as coming from Cienfuegos, Cuba, that General Gomez has left the island. It is not believed that this is prompted by any desire to leave the scene of operations, but perhaps the Cuban leader has started to the United States for a conference.

SPANISH WAR NEWS.

According to This the Insurgents Are Getting Worst.

Havana, July 12.—Reports from Sanetti Spiritus confirm the rumor that General Quintin Bandera, who committed the insurrection in the mountains on July 5, at Papeya Heights, was killed during the fight.

Captain General Weyler, who left Sancti Spiritus in the latter part of last week with the Asturias battalion, surprised a camp of the insurgents near Papeya, and a sharp engagement took place. Among the killed was the well-known Dr. Hernandez.

The Yberia squadron, while reconnoitering near Guanabana on the north coast in the province of Pinar del Rio, encountered a large band of insurgents, killed nineteen and captured two. The Spanish destroyed the huts at the salt and the sugar mill.

Most of the victims are in the middle of the train, and the engine is reading the signal and by the failure of a brake to act.

Thirty-two bodies were extricated. The number seriously injured were eighty-four.

MONSTER CARP TOWED THE BOAT.
Fisherman John Clark, of Phoenixville, Had an Exciting Time.
Phoenixville, Pa., July 12.—Few fishermen, especially in inland waters, are privileged to ride in a boat towed by a monster carp. The fisherman of an angler's line; but such was the experience of John Clark, of this borough, while fishing in Black Rock dam, in the middle of the stream, he hooked a monster carp, and the latter resisted as the line was hauled in.

Neither man nor line was disposed to give up. Clark's boat was pulled in, towed by the carp. It was an exciting time for the fisherman, but finally he pulled in a mile above the point where his novel ride began, he managed to stop the skiff and get the upper hand of the carp. The fish was hurried to the mill, where it was placed in a tank and the scales at 22 pounds.

THREW A LIGHTED LAMP.
Fatal Result of a Family Quarrel at Williamsport--A Wife's Efforts to Rescue Her Drunken Husband Prove of No Avail.
Williamsport, Pa., July 12.—William Morris was burned to death here under rather peculiar circumstances. He returned home at a late hour last night and berated his wife for a fancied wrong. Being under the influence of liquor, Morris then went upstairs and went to bed, sleeping until after 6 o'clock. Arising from the bed he picked up a lighted lamp, which was standing on the floor and hurled it at the door, where he thought he would either put her or himself out of the way.

The lamp struck the woman on the leg and bounded against the bedstead. The bowl broke and the oil scattered all over the furniture and carpet. The room was quickly filled with flames. Morris, who was stupor laid down on the dining bed. His wife tried to arouse him and drag him from danger, but her efforts were unavailing. She then tried to smother the fire by the smoke. Mrs. Morris aroused the neighbors, who notified the fire department. In the meantime, Morris' body was burned to an unrecognizable mass.

Her heart-broken parents have no knowledge of her whereabouts.

Benham was arrested and charged with murder she returned a ring that he had given her to the jeweler from whom Benham had procured it, but for which he had failed to pay. Shortly afterwards she left the city and has not been seen since.

San Francisco, July 12.—With the meeting today in the Mechanics' pavilion the Christian Endeavor convention was brought to a close. The programme for the day and evening was an interesting one. In the afternoon the Junior Endeavorers held a rally at the Mechanics' pavilion and a school of practical endeavor methods was held at Woodward's pavilion. At both pavilions special consecration exercises marked the close of all proceedings.

Tuesday the visiting delegates will attend a public reception, to which they have been specially invited by a committee, representing the citizens of Oakland. It is expected that at least 10,000 will cross the bay and enjoy the hospitality of the Oaklanders.

SOUTHERN JUSTICE.
Negro Assault on a Little Girl Surrounds in a Swamp by a Mob of Angry Men, Who Threaten Him with Summary Vengeance.
Jonesboro, Ga., July 12.—Oscar Smith, a negro, on Sunday assaulted the 6-year-old daughter of ex-Senator Campbell, leaving the child dying in a field near her father's handsome residence. He got her nearly an hour's start of the hastily formed posse, which took after him as soon as the crime was discovered, and made his way over into Henry county. A score of bloodhounds were put upon his trail and the telegraph wires were worked in all directions.

All last night his trail was followed through Henry county down into Butts county, the army of his maddened pursuers growing with every hour. When morning broke the sheriffs of four counties with innumerable deputies were leading as many gangs of men and by noon every available man had joined in the chase. Very few church services were held and the excitement throughout the country regions was intense.

The negro was followed through the woods over into Spaulding county, and at McDonough all the pursuing parties were brought together. Here a plan of campaign was formed and the chase renewed under more coherent conditions.

The negro, after traveling nearly a hundred miles without food or rest, was known to be in the near vicinity, and the men by sheer force of numbers were able to surround the heavy swamp in the recesses of which he concealed. Nothing short of a miracle can accomplish his escape, and the mob will make short shift of him when they get him in their hands. His victim is horribly injured and will die.

STRIKERS HOLD THEIR OWN
The Developments of the Day Tend to Strengthen Them.
Pittsburg, July 12.—Beyond the strengthening of the miners' line along the rivers, there was little change in the strike situation today. The iron-clad contracts which were in force at several mines in the Monongahela valley were swept out of existence today and the strike was made general in the fourth pool. The Chamaoui, Apollo, Jack Jones and O'Neill's Fayette City mines, which had been running with a light force of men and under iron-clad contracts, were closed at Chamaoui today. The miners along the river are rejoicing over this victory.

The only mine reported in operation in the region is the Quitable at Wehington. Coal company also came out today, making the suspension complete in this district except at the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, where about 1,200 men are working. No effort has yet been made to get these diggers out and the miners at other pits who have laid down their tools are grubbing at the slowness of DeArmitt's men in joining the movement.
