CASE OF RATTLES.

Spoiled Rochester's Lead and Let the Miners Win In Their Last loning.

Poor pitching and two bad cases of rattles in the box were the reasons for the Miners' victory over the Brownies vesterday. Hard luck had nothing to do with it as Weidman's crowd had the game cinched up to the Scranton half of the seventh inning by a score of 8 to 3, but at that point Gannon fell a victim to a terrific din of rooting and gave three passes to first, two singles and three runs before he was succeded by Yerrick in the midst of the bother. Yerrick in the last of the last half of the seventh and in the eighth was as lacking of nerve as was Gannon and in the midst of the continued noise from bleachers and grandstand gave one walk, was found for five singles and hit Bonner, all of which gave the Miners three runs and the game,

The field support by both teams was of a high order. Mulvey's error of an assist by Gannon in the first inning cost a run but that was the only vital mistake of the Brownies outside the box. Dooley, besides playing an excellent first base, batted in five of Rochester's eight runs and was, hit by a pitched ball and scored in the fifth inning on Richter's fly over the centerfield fence. It was the first home run made over the Scranton fence this season and won for the elongated outgardener the applause he deserved.

Henry's work at second was nearly as good as any seen here this year and to him, Dooley and Richter is due the credit for the hard fight put up by Dixon, c

Beard, Bonner, Massey and Maguire performed about all of the Miners field work. All hands, Massey and Gunson excepted, figured in the run getting in the two final chapters.

Lynch's single, a walk to Shearon and Dooley's two-baser for two Roch ester runs opened the game. Scranton in the first inning, O'Brien was hit by a pitched ball, went to sec ond on Walters' single and to third or Mulvey's error on Gannon's assist, following Beard's attempted sacrifice Eagan forced O'Brien at the plate and Walters scored on Bonner's fly to lef

After Gillon hit Dooley and Richter hit over the fence for a homer and two shouting. Two runs developed, how ever, in the Scranton half on single by Walters, Beard and Bonner, which made the tally 4-3.

In the fourth, fifth and sixth a bas on balls was all that the Miners could get off Gannon, while in the fifth. Lynch's double, a walk to Shearon and Dooley's single netted two runs, and two more developed in the seventh on Shearon's double, Dooley's triple and a single by Richter. That made the score 8 to 3 with the long end in favor of Rochester.

With but four singles, two passes to first and a hit by pitcher off Gannon New York. up to the last of the seventh, the Min ers' cause seemed hopeless, but the epidemic of rooting put Gannon out o the game and flabergasted Yerrick and the Miners in their last two in nings got the six runs necessary to

Providence, R. I., July 15.—Providence downed the leaders today by going at "Farmer" Brown's pitching and lambast-ing it as it has not been done before this season. It was not merely the number of hits made, but the way they were placed and bunched and mixed. Buffalo could do nothing against Braun's fine pitching and support until the Grays had the game well in hand with runs to spare. Score:

Bernstein and Wright to Meet at Music Hall on July 29.

What ought to be one of the best, if not the best, ring contests seen in Scranton in recent years will be that between Joe Bernstein, of New York city, and Fred Wright, of Peabody, Mass., on July 29. They have been matched to box twenty rounds in Music Hall for a purse of $300 offered by a number of well-known local promoters of boxing contests.

The match was made by Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn. It is quite likely that James Judge will be the referee. Bernstein's last appearance in Scranton will be remembered as productive of one of the fastest ring events ever seen here.
