Mrs. Stiles alleges that after living happily together for seventeen years her husband left her about three months ago and took up with another woman, whose home is near the Erie & Wyoming Valley station on Washington avenue. The officers found him at the house indicated.

KEOGH FINDS IT GETTING EASY

Increases His Lead in the World's Pool Championship Match.

CLEARWATER 180 POINTS BEHIND

Scranton Player Will Have to Drop Dead to Lose the Match--He Played All Around the Pittsburgher Again Last Night--The Latter is Not in His Usual Form.

In the match now in progress at the Academy of Music between Keogh, the present champion, of Scranton, and Clearwater, of Pittsburgh, for the world's pool championship, the former last night pocketed 192 balls against the Pittsburgh man's 91. Added to the first night's play this makes the score: Keogh, 401; Clearwater, 221.

On Wednesday night the score was Keogh 209, Clearwater 130, which shows that the difference in the playing of the two was more marked last night than in the opening set. It was expected that after a night's rest Clearwater would show an improvement in form, but the contrary was witnessed and nothing short of a miracle in this match can take the championship away from Scranton. Keogh has to run but 159 points while Clearwater must make 379 to win.

Keogh last night was at his best and his work appeared all the more brilliant when contrasted with the playing of the Pittsburgher; in fact it was as much due to the latter's poor playing as to the other's good playing that Keogh increased his lead. The set with which he did it shows by the fact that only 19 frames were played and the last frame finished at 11 o'clock, two hours and forty-five minutes from the time of starting.

WILD WEST SHOW COMING.

Great Exhibition to Be Given in This City July 30.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West, toured the world over, and pursued paths which led it into strange climes and made strange contrasts. What the ghosts of the Roman gladiators must have thought when they saw the painted red men of the Colosseum at Rome would make interesting reading. But not alone there were their tents pitched, for they followed the stream of history from the battle grounds of Flodden Field and Waterloo to Sedan and Sevastopol. They left the Rockies behind, but they crossed the Alps and Pyrenees in the footsteps of Napoleon Bonaparte, and camped at the foot of the Caucasus. They personally paid proud but respectful tribute to the reigning monarchs of the world, and received in return the need of praise due to uncrowned royalty and to brave deeds. And now, having gathered in his travels the representative native and primitive Rough Riders of the World, Buffalo Bill exhibits them all to his admiring countrymen in a most marvelous exhibition.

The educational value of this exhibition need not be emphasized, for it is apparent that never again will there be such a concourse of civilization has "wiped out" the buffalo, the Indians are reduced to a mere handful, the hardy pioneers, of whom Col. Cody (Buffalo Bill) is the acknowledged chieftain, are beginning to dwindle, the silver of the opportunity which no one should neglect, or he will regret it in the future.

In the morning there will be a free street cavalcade with detachments from every division, escorted by the three bands of music, including the famous Buffalo Bill's Cowboy band.

The Wild West exhibition will appear here on Friday, July 30.

KEOGH WAS DARING.

It developed in the first few frames that Clearwater was not in his usual form and after a half-hour's play and an increased lead Keogh abandoned his caution of the opening night and played with a brilliancy and daring that made him the winner of 13 of the 19 frames. Time and again he risked possible failure by playing combinations from the balls as they rested but slightly disturbed after the break, but he was nearly always successful. His breaks were followed by remarkably clever exhibitions of position playing.

Keogh's 400th point in the night and 300th in the match was made during his run of fifteen in the tenth frame. However, it was not until the sixteenth frame that Clearwater pocketed his 209th ball and reached what was Keogh's total for Wednesday night.

About 200 persons were in the theater. Their favor was for the Scranton player, but Clearwater was liberally applauded for the few good shots he made.

The match ends tonight when either player pockets his 600th ball.

UNION LEAGUE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Elected Officers Yesterday Evening for Ensuing 3 Months.

The Union League Republican club which was organized last September, held one of its monthly meetings Wednesday evening and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Nelson G. Teets; first vice-president, Frank Carpenter; recording secretary, Elmer Wilson; financial secretary, John T. Perry; treasurer, D. Edward Vall; sergeant-at-arms, Arthur Vall.

The club at its meeting decided to change the meeting night from the first Wednesday evening of each month as it is now held, to the first Tuesday of each month. Also that the term of officers will be six months, instead of a year, as at present.

The club will meet in the Central Republican club rooms on Washington avenue until fall, when they expect to get rooms on Spruce street, which is now occupied and will be vacant about the first of September. The club has a membership of eighty-five members in good standing. At the next meeting the club will debate the question of joining the Republican League of Pennsylvania.

CONSUL TO CARDIFF.

The Appointment Goes to Daniel T. Phillips, of Illinois.

Among the consular appointments sent to the president on Wednesday was that of Daniel T. Phillips, of Illinois, to be consul at Cardiff, Wales. For some reason this was not included in the list received by The Tribune yesterday from the Associated Press.

This was the consulship for which Hon. John T. Williams, of this city, was a candidate, with the indorsement of the two senators from Pennsylvania and of Congressman Connell. It had been recognized for some time that the fight lay between Mr. Phillips and Mr.

MRS. SILVERSTONE FAINTED.

Was Badly Frightened When She Found a Thief in Her House.

Hearing a noise in the sitting room, which was between the kitchen, where she was at work, and the store, which fronts on Raymond court, Groceryman A. Silverstone's wife last night at about 8 o'clock slipped to the connecting doorway and peered in. A burly colored man jumped up suddenly from beside a bureau which he was ransacking and covering his face with his hands made a jump toward her shouting "boo," and following it up with an unearthly yell.

Mrs. Silverstone toppled over in a faint and laid there possibly ten minutes before she came. When she finally recovered she called her husband who was at a neighbor's house and related her strange and startling adventure. An investigation of the bureau showed a pocket-book containing $7 missing.

From the description she gave of the intruder, it was surmised that he was Anthony Scott a colored youth living a few doors away, who has been in trouble of this kind before.

A warrant for his arrest was secured from Alderman Millar and Detective Will F. Clifford went after him. He was found at home, and when searched some of the missing money was found on his person. Some change was also found on the top of his bed where it had evidently been dumped out of the pocket-book. Scott was locked up and will be given a hearing this morning.

There was nobody in the store at time of the occurrence and it is supposed Scott noticing this sneaked in and made for the bureau where he probably knew the money was kept.

BASE BALL GAME.

At 11 o'clock two clubs of boys from Green Ridge and Dunmore played ball and Dunmore won by a score of 7-5. The whirring and other amusements on the grounds were well patronized. At 2 p. m. the Loyal Legionists listened to an entertaining and instructive address by Mrs. Isabella Morris Holway, of Pittston. Mrs. Holway is a fervid speaker and handles her subject in a masterly and well reasoned manner. Her address dealt with "Our Young People and the Temperance Cause."

At this session reports were read by the seven superintendents, and their reports indicate substantial and progressive growth. It was decided to hold their second annual county convention at Dalton next September. This convention is usually held in June but the Legion desires to meet this year in conjunction with the Women's Christian Temperance union, of which they are really a branch.

Later in the afternoon the Dunmore Legion Drum corps Base Ball club played the Sliders and were defeated. The music of the day was furnished by the Drum corps.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The county executive committee had charge of the affair, and is constituted by the following officers: President, L. C. Brink, Dunmore; first vice president, Theodore Zeigler, Dunmore; second vice president, E. E. Cronk, Dunmore; secretary, Miss Elinor Jones, Peckville; superintendent, Mrs. R. L. Peck, Peckville.

There were about 500 people in attendance and the following societies were represented: Loyal Legion Drum corps, Dunmore; Loyal Legion Guards, Dunmore; Loyal Temperance Legion Companies A, E, D, G, F, A parade of the Dunmore and Green Ridge companies, led by the Drum corps and Geary's, was held in the morning in Dunmore.

The committee expressed themselves as well pleased with the results of the first reunion of the county societies. There were no accidents of any kind to mar the day's pleasures.

GENEROUS JOHN RUSKIN.

Has Held His Wealth as a Sacred Trust to Help the Less Fortunate.

From the Home Journal.

Through his father Mr. Ruskin felt heir to nearly $1,000,000, to which must be added the income of his writings. But this man counted his treasures as a trust fund, held in the interest of suffering merit or youth's promising talent. That he was on the London committee for the victualing of Paris in 1871 proves that his benevolence was as well known as Peabody's or Lady Burdett-Coutts'. Taxing himself first a tenth, then half, he finally gave his entire income.

If he needed botanical and art works for his studies he crippled himself rather than refuse his last spare twenty guineas to the widow of a dead artist. If, for health's sake and art's sake he wanted to take a trip to Switzerland, he would forego it that he might contribute $100 to the Cruikshank memor-

OLCHEFSKI AGAIN IN JAIL.

His Bondsman, Anthony Swierkowski, Surrendered Him.

Leon Olchefski is again in the county jail. He was surrendered yesterday by his bondsman, Anthony Swierkowski, whose action in securing a bail bond was reported in yesterday's Tribune. Olchefski was very downcast when he learned that he had to return to jail.

His wife furnished security to Swierkowski in an amount equal to the bail bond, but when the latter investigated he found that Mrs. Olchefski's security was not good and he immediately took steps to have Olchefski again incarcerated.

The accused had a very unpleasant experience Wednesday. He went to the Hamm residence on Elm street to get a piano which he said belonged to him. The Misses Lizzie and Lena Hamm were at home at the time and they refused to allow Olchefski to enter the premises. He attempted to force his way into the house and one of the young women secured a horsewhip and used it on him with such energy that Olchefski fled.

WAS MONKEYING WITH THE PARROT.

Servant Girl Told Him to Stop and Was Stopped for Her Sauciness.

Rennie Rogers, a servant girl at the Imperial, had Henry Fahrenholt, of Penn avenue, arrested for assault and battery last night.

Fahrenholt was teasing a parrot which is kept in the hotel. The girl told him to "stop monkeying with it" and it is alleged for this slight provocation he slapped her and pushed her out of the room.

Alderman Millar before whom he was arraigned, held him in $300 bail to answer at court.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.]

Catches Large Fish Only.

To Editor Scranton Tribune.

Sir: I have been considerably annoyed by parties referring to a statement in The Tribune to the effect that Mrs. Merriman caught a pickerel in Big Pond, Pike county, that weighed three and a half pounds.

The ubiquitous reporter is to be found even in the county of Pike county, usually his fish stories are large enough, but the one who reported the above catch to a Honesdale paper was far too modest in his statement.

The fish referred to was twenty-two inches long and stocky and young; it must have weighed fully five pounds, although there were no scales exceeding those on the fish and the party could not weigh it.

FIRST REUNION OF LOYAL LEGION

Attracted a Large Number of Persons to Laurel Hill Park.

WAS A VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR

In the Afternoon Mrs. Isabella Morris Holway, of Pittston, Delivered an Interesting Address--Her Topic Was "Our Young People and the Temperance Cause"--The Athletic Sports, Which Were a Prominent Feature, Attracted Much Interest.

Seven of the eight Loyal Temperance Legions of Lackawanna county were represented at the first reunion of the order held yesterday at Laurel Hill park. The day was favorable and was fraught with the deepest pleasure for the people who had gathered in the park. There was plenty of amusement afforded. In the morning the seven races were held commencing at 10 o'clock and were open to all comers.

The first race was a one-fourth-mile for boys under 15 years, and was won by Philip Goerlitz. In the hurdle race James Ellis was the successful contestant. Harry Luce and Philip Goerlitz paired for the three-legged race and won it easily. The 220-yard dash was taken by Dave Braister. The sack race for boys brought out quite a crowd but Philip Goerlitz got in first. Interest of her audience for the older ones was won by Walter Harper.

The "Puff" race was probably the most interesting of all as the rules had to be suspended and the boys stopped. There were 15 entries but only three were able to start. These two ran for over five miles and then the race was given to Fred Black, he having a big lead.

SHE TAUGHT HIM WISDOM.

Life Insurance President Was Not Able to Out the Best of Her.

From the Detroit Free Press.

"First thing I did after graduating," laughed the fat and rosy president of the life insurance company, "was to start a country newspaper. You know that the world has little it can teach a young fellow just out of college. I was just as well fitted to run a railroad as I was a newspaper, but I went in with a great flourish of trumpets, taking a great metropolitan sheet for a model.

"When, under big, black headlines, I told in the most sensational manner about 'A Fatal Murder' the little schoolmarm of the place wrote a very satirical letter, politely asking that I tell my readers about some of the most prominent murders that had not proved fatal. This assault upon my dignity made a bigger fool of me than ever, if possible, for I replied to it in an editorial blast of a column, making very plain my opinion that I was casting pearls before swine, and rather inferior swine at that.

"Then the little teacher tackled me through the big Sunday paper that reached us every Monday from the city. She had me against the ropes in no time, and I was just fool enough to abandon argument for abuse. I served notice that I wanted cash instead of cabbage, cow pumpkins and red-skin onions. They seemed to think I ought to give a paper and an oil painting to each subscriber in return for having my vegetable cellar kept full while I was paying board. Then I made up a scandal column that was largely imaginary, and one morning there was a notice tacked on my door, telling me to 'git' and git quick. I was going to raise more trouble, but the little teacher, pale, pretty and troubled, invaded my sanctum to tell me that I must go at once or the office would be wrecked. She took charge and succeeded. When I got sense enough, I took charge of her."

THE LADY'S AGE.

But She Got Out of the Predicament Very Cleverly.

The Prince of Wales, about five years ago, met a charming lady, well known in London society, at Hamburg.

"You are young enough," he said, in the course of conversation, "for me to be able to ask your age."

"Twenty-five was the ready reply. This summer his royal highness met the lady again.

"What," he asked again, with a humorous smile, "is your age, I wonder?"

"Twenty-five," again said the lady.

"But you said that the last time I met you," remarked the prince with a smile.

"Well, sir," laughed the lady, "and would you have me contradict myself?"
