CLYMER GETS THIRTY DAYS.

First Denied All Knowledge of the Affair, Then Claimed Self-Datense. Jacob Clymer, who so viciously as-sculted Peter Donahue with a razor on Wednesday evening, was sent to the county jail for thirty days by Alder-man Kellow yesterday. Miss Bridget Joyce, who was present at the cutting, was fixed $3 which she paid. At the hearing Clymer declared that Donahue made the threats upon Mrs. Smith's life and assaulted him. He only struck in self defense. Miss Joyce corroborated this testimony. Donahue is at the West Side hospital. His wound though painful, is not serious and unless blood poisoning sets in will soon be able to get out.

OUTING PARTIES.

Outing trips to nearby parks and picnic retreats seemed to have become epidemic on the West Side. One or two are listed for nearly every day. Wednesday a party of young ladies from Bellevue and Hyde Park spent the day at Mountain Lake. They enjoyed the day by boating, dancing and roaming about the woods. There were no accidents and all returned at an early hour in the evening. Those who composed the party were: The Misses Margaret Davis, Jennie Harris, Mary A. Davis, Mary Samuels, May Browning, Margaret McGouldrick, Margaret Langan, Martha Williams, Julia Haggerty, Nellie Lynch, Sarah Ann Lloyd, Mary Luby, Mamie Bowen, Bila Browning, Cassie Dice and Mrs. K. Byron chaperoned.

Yesterday another party of young ladies and young men from the West Side spent a delightful day at Mountain Lake. The pleasures of the day were unalloyed by any mishap. The party were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miles. Those constituting the party were: The Misses Margaret, Anma and Mary Jones, Sallie, Lillian, Rhoda, Marlice and Eva Thomas, Jennie, Gertrude, Florence, Edna and Ber-tha Freeman, Aldie Davis, Kate Davis, Harrist Morris, Anna Lewis; Messrs. Will Morris, William Williams, William Rogers, Morris Thomas, John Donahoe, William Davis, Frank and Raiph Collins, Robert Roberts, William Miles, Thomas Byron,

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

The Robert Morris Lodge, True Ivorites installed its recently elected officers last evening at their lodge rooms. After the conclusion of the regular business a clam bake was given the members and invited friends. There was also singing, impromptu speeches, etc., to enliven things. Several flashlight photographs were taken by club photographer James Powell. The officers installed were: President, Eleazer Harris; vice-president, J. D. Hughes; recording secretary, Attorney D. J. Davis: conductor, D. J. Davies; overseer Joseph Evans; outside guard, John M. Williams; inside guard, T. J. Davies,

A LAWN FETE.

Mrs. M. L. Blair and daughter Augusta, tendered their respective Sabbath school classes and a few invited guests a garden tea at the Blair residence on South Main avenue yesterday afternoon and evening. The beautiful lawn which extends far to the rear of the house and shaded with trees and vines was a scene of beauty. In the afternoon the green back-ground was brightened by the summer dresses of the ladies, and in the evening clusters of Chinese lanterns decked the lawn. The hours were spent with games of all sorts, music and conversation. Tea was served upon the lawn, the guests being seated around small tables. The members of Mrs. Blair's class are: Misses Annie Williams, Bessie Phillips, Eva Roberts, Grace Snow, Gwennie Jones, Daisy Wade, Edith Blair. Of Miss Blair's class: David and Edward

TROUBLE OVER A HAMMOCK. John W. Rittenhouse conducts a general store on North Main avenue. Jas. D. Eastman resides on Fellows street These two gentlemen appeared recently before Alderman Kellow with Mr. Rittenhouse as prosecutor. Last evening they came before Alderman Moses, with Mr. Eastman as prosecutor. The charges preferred in each instance being "false pretense." The reasons for these suits are varied but they all hung on the purchase of a hammock from Rittenhouse by Eastman. This purchase was made on July 6, together with some other goods, and they were to be paid for in thirty days. goods were delivered that same day but shortly afterwards Rittenhouse appeared at the home of Eastman and asked to have the hammock returned he having sold this article to another person and his clerk was not aware of the sale. He said he would replace it with another. He did not, but the next day, had Eastman arrested upon a charge of "false pretense." He had held a note against Eastman which was not yet due and hence his action. Alderman Kellow heard the case and held Eastman in bail for his appearance at court. Bail was furnished. On July 8, Mrs. Eastman went to the store and requested a hammock in return for the one Rittenhouse had taken back from them. Rittenhouse calmly stated that he was not responsible for his clerk's mistake but he would give her a "yellow" hammocks he had in the store if she paid cash for it. Words followed words and Mrs. Eastman left the store by demand. Rittenhouse was brought before Alderman Moses last evening on a charge of "false pretense," and use

QUIET MORNING WEDDING. William H. Parry of Hyde Park aveue and Miss Annie Edwards, the only laughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Edwards, of Hampton street, were maried yesterday morning at the home of he bride, by Rev. B. I. Evans, an uncle of the groom. The wedding was a quiet one, owing to the recent death of the groom's mother. The bride was attired in a traveling costume of green. She was unattended. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Parry left on the 8.45 Delaware and Hudson for Philadelphia and Atlantic Upon their return they will reside in their neatly furnished home on North Hyde Park avenue, where they will be "at home" to their friends after August 1.

ELECTRIC CLUB WARMTH.

The arrangements for the contemplated "house warming" of the Electric City Wheelmen's new club house have at last been completed. This pleasant event will occur on Thursday evening. July 22. If the programme is a criterion, it will be one of the best of such affairs conducted on this side for some time. There will be an orchestra in attendance and many other delightful surprises. The inevitable refreshments will also constitute a part of the exercises. The "boys" do not propose to do things by anything but wholes and

For the past four months an old and eccentric individual, whose identity is as mysterious as the cloud that apparently hovers over him has infested this neighborhood and is attracting no little attention by his mode of remaining in existence. In daytime he travels around the town and through the generosity of some of the residents he secures eatables, when the shadows of night fall appears he makes for a cave near the old abandoned gravity track, where he lives the secluded life of a hermit. His countenance betokens evidence of better days, yet he puts in the appearance of a veritable tramp. His face is covered with a heavy black whisker. While engaged in conversation he exercises care not to divulge his past record. His actions bears the unmistakable signs of a troubled conscience, and some are inclined to believe that the hermit is a man with a romantic history which would no doubt be interesting if known.

MURDERER CREMATED.

The Death of Rene Williams Avenged by a Mob .- Terrible Scenes in the Streets of West Point.

Florence, Ala., July 15.—Near West Point, Tenn., Tuesday afternoon, Miss Rene Williams was found brutally murlered in the woods near her home. This afternoon Anthony Williams, her murderer, was captured near Pruitton and tonight expiated his crime in the streets of West Point, in the presence of five hundred people. Williams was rid-dled with bullets and burned in the streets of West Point. Before a snot was fired the negro was knocked down and stamped to death. The crowd fell back and those who had pistols fired volley after volley at him. The crowd then after voiley at him. The crowd then gathered wood and building a fire over him watched the ghastly scene until the Corporal Zang, Sergean Benore, Sergeant Mallot and others of the fun leaders were in charge of the arrangements. It was a hot time, prob ably the warmest since camp opened, as a beater of the sheep skin. The Philadelphia Inquirer, in a recent issue, men-tioned Moir's musqular performance, and when the corp passed in review the other night, General Gobin remarked as he saw Moir: "That's the way to beat a base drum."

The Thirteenth had brigade guard Thursday, for the second time during camp. One of the sentinels nicely re-buked an Eighth regiment corporal last night. The corporal was walking too close to the guard line. "Move out, there!" ex-claimed the sentinel. "I'm not on the line," said the corporal. "Well, you're closer to it than any corporal ought . I see you wear the stripes; you ought to know something." In speaking of Monday's inspection of the Thirteenth, the Philadelphia Press says: "Rain began about 1.30 o'clock, but the Thirteenth regiment, Colonel H. A. Coursen, was held there in spite of the rain for an unreasonably long time, and the men returned to quarters drenched to the skin." The truth is that Colonel Coursen and his staff had a choice in the matter and decided to go on with the in-spection despite the rain. Wednesday night the Fourth regiment had sentinels placed along the line be tween their division and the Thirteenth It was impossible for our nighthawks to get through, so they concocted the fol-lowing ruse: Several of the boys got their guns and paced along within a few feet of the Fourth people. The intention was to get the password from the Fourth Too much noise was made by the decoy sentinels and the Fourth people immediately reported the matter to Captain Fellows.
