STARS MEEK AND MILD.

In a Gentlemanly Fashion They Take a Severe Drubbing from the Miners.

There were two prominent characteristics to yesterday's game. One was the disposition of the Miners to run bases in a fast and satisfactory way; the other feature was the extreme good behavior of Buckenberger and his Stars, expectations to the contrary notwithstanding.

It had been noted about that the Stars were liable to do anything from throwing bats at the umpire to tearing down a fence, but none of these things happened in Scranton even though the Stars showed such a disposition in Springfield.

The reason for their good conduct may have been the fact that they were under the regulation of an umpire who knows his business or it may have been that the trend of the game dampened their ardor.

There were two prominent characteristics to yesterday's game. One was the disposition of the Miners to run bases in a fast and satisfactory way; the other feature was the extreme good behavior of Buckenberger and his Stars, expectations to the contrary notwithstanding.

For two innings only six Stars faced Gilton, thanks to a fine running catch by Walters and a difficult stop by Bonner. A base on balls to Walters and Smith's fumble in the first inning once again gave the Miners a chance, but Eagan and Bonner could not connect safely with the ball.

The three Scranton runs were earned in the fourth on singles by Bonner and Maguire and Lezotte's slow fielding which made a three-baser out of Gilton's hit to right field and Walters' single.

The Stars got one on a walk to Smith, Massey's missed grounder, which sent Smith to third and an infield out. Score, 4-1.

With Eagan out on a fly to left, singles by Bonner and Massey put Scranton on first and second. Maguire flew out to Schiebeck. Smith fumbled Gunson's grounder and threw it wild to Eagan, Bonner scoring. When Eagan recovered the ball he attempted to throw Massey out at the plate, but the ball hit the latter and Walters' single to third during the trouble.

In the Syracuse half after a walk to Shaw and Willis were retired on a double play by Bonner and Massey. But it wasn't to end with the next up, "Bad Bill" Eagan. He received a pass, Garry singled and the two scored on Smith's two-baser to left-center, Garry scoring on Lezotte's single. A walk to Earl and Beard's error filled the bases but Schiebeck went out from Maguire to Massey. Score, 6-4.

Stars Gain a Little. With one out in the sixth Walters hit to left-center for two bases and Beard walked, but a force hit by Eagan and Bonner's grounder retired the side.

There was a lot of fireworks in the ninth. Bonner went out on Eagan's assist, Smith's wild throw to first and Schiebeck's miss of Maguire's grounder put two on the circuit and they scored on Gunson's drive through left-center for three bases. Gilton went out from Smith to Earl, Gunson scoring. O'Brien was hit by a pitched ball and came home on Walters' two baser, Walters scoring on a double by Beard to right-center. Eagan flew out to his namesake, Maguire's fumble put Earl on the circuit but a fly to Walters, a strike-out and a force hit ended the game.
