Miss Nettie Davis, of Providence, returns home today, after a week's stay M. E. A.

VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

and Gets Under Horse's Heels.

Wilkes-Barre, July 20 .- Just before noon today a little girl, aged about ten years, while wheeling on West Market street, lost control of her mount and rode directly, side on, into a de-livery rig. She passed fairly between the front wheels of the wagon and the horse and fell on the asphalt under the wagon and almost under the heels of the horse

The vehicle was traveling at a walk and the driver stopped quickly, and the horse being very quiet and gentle, the little one was extricated without damage to herself or her wheel. But it was a narrow escape.

been quarreling. Shermonski, without a moment's warning, drew a revolver and fired at Shfioloski. The ball entered the right wrist and was extracted by Dr. M. A. Carroll, of Plymouth, The injury is in nowise serious.

A warrant was issued by Burgess Walters for Shermonski's arrest, but he has not yet been apprehended.

HELD UP ON THE MOUNTAIN. Four Men Attempt to Rob a Miner'

Mills Merchant. Wilkes-Barre, July 20 .- Samuel Smolwich, a merchant residing at Miner's Mills, had an exciting experience with robbers on the Wilkes-Barre mountain ast night and thanked his good fortune that he was not robbed and murdered Smolavich was returning from the quarries on the mountain at Jumpers where he had been making collections, and had over $500 on his person. Going down the mountain at 9.30 o'clock last night, driving his horse, he was stopped by four men who stood in the middle of the road. It was near the locality where Red Nose Mike and his gang shot McClure and Flanagan, and fearing violence Smolavich drew a revolver and ordered the men to let him pass on or he would shoot. They re-fused, ordered him to get down from his wagon and told him to drop his gun or they would kill him. At this point a gang of Hungarians going towards Jumpers rounded a turn in the road and the four men made their escape in the woods. The timely arrival of the Hungarians in all probability saved Mr. Smolavich's life. He will be well armed and have an escort the next time he ventures that road after dark.

RUN OVER BY AN ENGINE.

Wilkes-Barre, July 20 .- Anthony Obinski, aged 1 year and a half, was playing on the railroad near the foot of Slope street, Nanticoke, yesterday morning, when a small locomotive ran over him. The wheels of the engine passed over one of the boy's thighs, cutting and smashing it so badly that

BURGLARS USE ETHER.

Then They Make Off with All the Money in the Trousers' Pocket of Their Unconscious Victim.

Wilkes-Barre, July 20 .- A new record for burglarious nerve was made here this morning when robbers effected an entrance into the residence of Charles Tammany, the well-known furniture dealer, at 216 Northampton street, stupefied the family by use of ether, and made off with nearly $400 which Mr. Tammany had in his trousers' pocket.

The robbery was not discovered until 6.30 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Tammany arose and missed the money. His collectors had been out yesterday and returned with over $400 and the merchant took all the bills home with him, not caring to leave that amount in the office safe. The pocket book was in his trousers pocket on a chair in his bed room, Mr. Tammany's vest, which contained his diamond ring, val-ued at $350, gold watch, locket and chain worth over $100 and 17 cents in change, lay under the trousers, but was not molested.

When Mr. Tammany awoke he no ticed a peculiar odor in the room and on arising found his trousers mussed and he realized at once that he had been robbed. The trousers, together with those of his son, Stanley, and his wife's dress, were found downstairs in the back parlor. The pockets of these garments were turned inside out and the money they had contained was gone A bottle with a small amount of other was found on a window ledge near Mr. Tammany's room and a linen cloth, well saturated with the drug was found lying near the house dog telling the story of how the burglars nade sure of their work.

Mr. Tammany desires the burglars o return and take the seventeen cents and his jewelry. HEAVY DAMAGE BY A STORM.

Stroudsburg, July 20 .- A heavy storm passed over the western part of the county, doing much damage to standing grain. Lightning struck three barns, destroying two completely. The large barn of Jonas Bonser was destroyed together with a quantity of hay and valuable farm machinery. A bolt struck on the barn of a farmer named Eckert, and it was destroyed, together with this year's crops

TOT BURNED TO DEATH.

White Haven, July 20 .- A 4-year-old daughter of Julius Stople was burned to death while playing with matches. Her little brother had his arms and hands badly burned by trying to extinguish the flames.

special Correspondence of The Tribune. Susquehanna, July 20,-William (or Jack) Gallagher, a burly burglar, was shot at about 2 o'clock on Saturday morning, while burglarizing the Delaware and Hudson station in Lanesboro He had filled a sack with plunder, when Officer Miles Lovelace and several of the villagers appeared, and Lovelace and Gallagher at once commenced a struggle, during which Lovelace shot Gallagher through the neck, the bullet lodging in his cheek. The wounded burglar was taken to the Town Hall where his wounds were dressed. On Monday he was taken to Montrose jall to await the action of the grand jury. Gallagher is thought to be guilty of various crimes along the Erie and the Delaware and Hudson lines. He claims to be a native of Hawley, Wayne county. He will probably recover from his injuries, and probably do the state some service.

AND THESE ARE ODDITIES. A Cascade man put his patent incuator over a ducks egg and hatched a duckling with four legs and two bills.

A gose with four feet is owned by a Uniondale farmer. When swimming it ises one of its legs as a rudder. Myles McCaffrey, of Gulf Summit, has four pigs that beat anything ever seen in that vicinity. One has no trace of hind legs, another has no hoofs, but claws take the place of the generallythought-necessary porcine appendix, and the two others have claws as toes, and pretty nearly everything else that pigs can get along without. In a litter of pigs recently farrowed near Starrucca was one which nearly resembled an elephant. It had enormous ears, a long trunk and one tusk. It was the color of an elephant, and its feet turned up in a peculiar way. The trunk started from the forehead, and extended out and down over the mouth. It was one of those peculiar freaks which occasionally occur in the animal

Prof Harley Newcomb is endeavoring to arrange for the presentation of the opera, "The Recluse" in this place

It is possible that, when the city fathers of Carbondale pass the Curfew ordinance, they will include some of the old boys who prowl around until the small hours of the morning. An Ararat farmer a few weeks since placed a dozen goose eggs in an old bureau drawer, and forgot all about them. Last week the farmer's wife found seven goslings in the drawer. The intense heat had brought them forth

Montrose has something of a sensation and lovers of newspaper sewerage are delighted. It doesn't take much to please some people The Hallstead Herald suggests that the new borough jail be made large enough to accommodate the common council. An excellent suggestion. If the ommon council of many of the cities and towns were kept in fail it would be a mighty good thing for the taxpayers and the streets.

The Great Bend Plaindealer states that an escaped lunatic from the Binghamton asylum was a few days since in that borough, calling from house to house for a bible. The man was surely insane. A sane person would not expect to find a bible in Great Bend.

BITS OF POLITICS. A Washington correspondent has discovered that our own Galusha Grow is hard man to get along with in the House. That's bad. Lets send him to the Senate.

There is a rumor that if our state Senator Hardenbergh fails to secure the Republican nomination for auditor general, that he will be a candidate for ongress from this district, to succeed Congressman Codding, who hopes to succeed himself. With Wright, of Susquehanna, and Greene, of Wayne, also prominent in the race, things political in this district will be a trifle mixed. There is room for a merry war. COUNTY TID BITS.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, July 20,—The stock market, after considerable early activity and strength closed firm below prices, but at fractional net gains. The strength in Sugar was in anticipation of the benefits to be derived from the new tariff. The Sugar company having secured a most acceptable schedule passed by the house and presented to the senate failed to justify the fears of a sensational break entertained by some traders after yesterday's eight-point advance and on the contrary opened up 1½ per cent. Subsequently it secured an extreme gain for the day of 4½, establishing a new record of 146¼ and Wall Street Review. secured an extreme gain for the day of 4½, establishing a new record of 146½ and thereafter gradually declining, closed with a net gain of 2½. Generally speaking, fractional recessions followed the noon hours on successful traders converting paper profits into bank deposits. Prices were from time to time market annual were from time to time marked upward but the tendency to advance was checked by threatened Democratic opposition to a prompt conclusion on the tariff bill and on rumors of the possibility of the export of gold due to the large ante-tariff bill importations, especially of Sugar and to discharge obligations due Europe for returned American securities.
