CLOSE AND EXCITING.

Miners and Stars Each Win One --- Errors by Maguire and Wellner Lose the Second.

Scranton and Syracuse played two remarkable games yesterday and broke Coatly Syracuse errors gave the Miners the first game. In the second inning Bonner singled and Massey hit a grounder to Smith that might have resulted in a double play, but Smith juggled the ball and then threw wild to first, Bonner reaching third, Maguire hit a liner to left-center for a use, scoring. Bonner and advancing Massey to second, from where he scored on Gunson's grounder past third.

The Stars tled the score in the seventh on three hits for four bases.

In the eighth Beard got a walk and went to third on Ryan's will throw to block the former's steal. Beard scored Atherton, 3b 3 on Bonner's fly to center. Excepting the seventh inning the Stars got only two scattered hits off Morse, Kissenger, too, pitched an excellent game, and, excepting the second inning, kept the Miners' hits scattered.

UMPIRE DOESCHER WILL RESIGN.

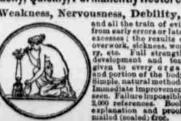

Critical Decision in Yesterday' Game Has Determined Him.

Herman Doescher is to resign from the Eastern league staff of umpires He was to have gone from here to umpire the games at Montreal but tele-graphed President Powers last night that he would return to Buffalo on the midnight train. He expects to meet Mr. Powers in Buffalo today and will tender his resignation. This information was volunteered to a Tribune re porter by Umpire Doerscher last night. Doescher's decision at the plate in the last lining of the second game vesterday and which prevented Scranton from tieing the score and gave Syracuse the game, has influenced him to resign. The decision was followed by such roastings from players and spectators as to determine Doescher to quit umpiring for good and to devote himself to his saloon business in Buffalo.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Miners have won five out of nine with Syracuse. Swartwood will umpire the Scranton-Syracuse series at Syracuse, Catcher John Berger, "the jolly Dutch-

Easily, Quickly, Permanently Restored

man," has applied for a position as um-pire on the Eastern league staff. He couldn't be worse and would likely be better than some of the recent experiments.

The Miners leave today for Syracuse where they will tomorrow begin a series of three games. From Syracuse they will leave for Montreal, Toronto and Buffalo to play three games each in the order named, returning home August 6. Doescher came near being mobbed for the decision that prevented the Miners from tieing the score. If Syracuse had been at bat and if he had declared the runner safe the dissatisfaction would have existed just the same. Umpire Ned Swartwood was in the city last night and was told by Shaw that he touched Wal-ters. The latter says he was not touched, Long after the game the Scranton players were claiming Walters safe and the Syracuse players claiming him out. The players, as a rule, after a game tell what believe is the truth about a close play. Take your pick.
