Society of Sumuer Avenue Church Presents a Good Programme.

The Sumner Avenue Presbyterlan church was inadequate to accommo date the throng of friends of the Chris tion Endeavor society that gathered last evening to enjoy the programme and refreshments provided by the committee. The entertainment was presided over by Rev. A. R. Foster, and was participated in by Mrs. John J. Gordon Mrs. Gwenfil Davies, Miss Jennie Hughes, Miss Maggie Thomas, Mrs. L. R. Foster, Miss Mattle Hughes and Mr. Charles Hartley, of New York

The features of the entertainment were thoroughly enjoyable, and each participant was favorably received. The impersorations and feats of ventriloquism, given by Mr. Hartley, elicited much applause and fully demonstrated that the good reports given of Mr. Hartley in his metropolitan home were not exaggerated. He is a great favorite here, and will always receive a hearty welcome among his West Side admirers. At the conclusion of the programme the assemblage sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Refreshments were served in the Sunday school room.

B. Y. P. U. RECEPTION.

The members of the Baptist Young People's union of the First Welsh Baptist church tendered a reception last wife, of Kimberly, South Africa, who are visiting here. The assemblage gathered in the lecture room of the church and the exercises were opened with a solo by Will Hughes. An address of welcome was made by Luther Lewis, chairman of the session, and Mr. Hughes made a feeling response, in which he expressed the pleasure of himself and wife in meeting the young people. A pleasing solo was rendered by Miss Lizzie May Howel! and Miss Gertrude Freeman, a graduate of Bloomsburg State Normal school of '97, recited in a most acceptable manner. The exercises were brought to a close by John Evans, after which refreshments were served.

EIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

The sixty-third analversary of the birth of William Wicks was celebrated last evening by a large contingent of relatives. Pleasantries of a nature incidental to such occasions were indulged in during the evening and Mr. Wicks was presented with a handsome arm chair. Refreshments were served and the old gentleman was heartily congratulated on his anniversary.

AN EVENING'S ENJOYMENT.

A party of young people of this side and Providence enjoyed a trip down the Capouse mine Thursday evening. They were shown through by Mr. Watkins who is assistant boss, and after an hour's sightseeing of the workings of the mine they were hoisted to the surface and taken to the home of Miss Jennie Lewis on Swetland street, where they were royally entertained for the rest of the evening. Dancing and progressive euchre was indulged in until a seasonable hour when refreshments were served. Mr. Danvers rendered a properly level off the street after mak-
