IN THE NINTH.

Syracuse Got the Winning Run After Being Outplayed from the Meaney, I. Hit by pitcher—By Belcourt,

2. Stolen bases—Shannon, Lynch. Double plays—Shannon to Henry to Dooley;
Betts to Shannon to Gonding, Sacrifice Start of the Game.

In Saturday's game at Syracuse the Miners outbatted and outfielded the Stars, but with the score a tie at 5-5 in the last inning, a single, a walk, a sacrifice and a hit won the game with one out. Despite the errors the game was well played.

After hitting Kissinger hard in the fifth inning, Lambe was put in the box for Syracuse. In the fourth inning Beard hit for two bases and went to third on Eagan's single, but Bonner's liner to Bill Eagan doubled Peter and prevented Beard from scoring and Maguire flew out. No run was scored, and that is an example of the Miners' lucl throughout the game.

Harper's bases on balls were costly throughout the game. Gaffney umpire in place of Gruber, who was sick, and gave good satisfaction.

Eight Home Runs.

Montreal, Que., July 25.—The heaviest hitting ever seen in Montreal characterized the game today. Belcourt, the local amateur, pitched his first game and held the Wilkes-Barre club down to eight hits. The centerfield fence was thirty yards short and the result was that eight home runs were scored. The at-tendance exceeded 2,000. Score: MONTREAL.

hits-Berger, Time-2.50. Umpire-Does-Ponies Won in the Ninth.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 25.—An immense crowd saw Springfield win out in the ninth linning. Buffalo scored one run in the fifth, a homer by Pitcher Gray, and it looked like a whitewash for the Ponies. But in the last inning the visitors fell on Gray and leating they have Assisted by Gray and batted him hard Assisted by a couple of bad errors they made four tai-lies. The locals could do nothing in their half of the ninth. Both Mains and Gray pitched a fine game. Score:

And now the Philadelphia papers are charging Tommy Dowd with being a "guzzler." in company with Taylor and McFarland. They have another guess on "Handsome Ton my," as that boy is not built that way, but he is certainly in bad ompany.
"Boston offered $10,000 for either Mercer or McJames."-Washington Ster. That's not much when you say it quick. But then the pips went out. Come, smoke up. Pick out another club. Boston has pitchers to kill. Pick out the Baltimores, and the offer might look better.-Baltimore

Mr. Kuntzsch yesterday purchased Pickering was bought last year from Lynchburg, where he hit .340, and in 43 games played hit .303 and fielded .913 for Louisville. He is a good base runner. No Star outfielder will be released at least not just yet, but Pickering will be given a chance Sunday or Monday. Garry has game arm that may necessitate a rest.

-Syracuse Standard.

Syracuse Standard.

There are chest-heaving crics of "Pitchers! Pitchers!" all along the major league lines, and Boston is more numerous in the display of the interjection "pitcher" than any other team in the big league. But a brief moon ago the critics when we wantly account the Boston and the Proposition. who were rallied around the Beaneating cause and tooting the slogan for the Seee aggregation pointed with pride to the Soston pitching staff, and claimed that he pride of the Hub would be pitched into he pennant. And now, in sooth and alak a day, the Boston players themselves are overcome by the suspicion that they are to be pitched out of it.

BETTING PASSION OF "KING" KELLY

Would Win Hundreds In a Day and Be

Penniless at Night. HE WAS LUCKY AT GUTTENBERG

Played the Whole of Ike Thompson's State, Won $300 and Gave His Last Few Dollars to a Street Waif--One Sample Day in the Life of the Famous Ball Player Who Made Thousands and Died Penniless.

The late Mike Kelly probably made and spent more money during his career as a ball player than anybody else in bis profession. Kel was an inveterate gambler and like John L. Sullivan, he had a heart which constantly led him to do acts of charity, says the Sun. Kelly was in his element when at the race track. He got hold of more "good things" that went wrong than the avcrage bettor, but he was always cheerful whether a winner or a loser. One day Mike went over to Guttenburg, when the hilltop track was flourishing and after two races had been run he had just $20 and enough change with which to get back to the city. As Kel walked into the betting ring prepara-

Play or Pay	60	10	1
Meadows	30	to	1
Blitzen	6	to	5
Hoey	4	to	5

"I've got a system, me boy," said the King to a friend, "and it's a peach, I'm going to put a fiver on each o them plugs and then I can't lose, see? I got to get some dough back, no matter how they run." "That's no system, Mike," said Kel's friend. "It's as good as the average, sport," was the quick retort, and Mike pushed his way up to Thompson's book. "Say, there, Ike, old boy!" yelled Mike, "here's four green fivers! Put one on each of them ponies, keep the change, and gimme the tickets quick.' ALL KINDS OF CHANES.

The bookmaker laughed as he handed Kel four tickets, each calling for: Play or Pay, 300 to 5; Meadows, 150 to 5; Blitzen, 6 to 5; Hoey, 4 to 5, respectively. "That's quite a chance you're taking, Mike!" said Thompson, with a laugh.

"It is, if one o' them long guys comes walkin' in with the yellow boys in his stockin'!" replied the ball player. Then the bell rang telling the crowd that the horses were at the post. "They're off!" yelled Kelly, as Starter

Caldwell dropped his flag. "What's that guy away out in front, running as if he saw a square meal somewhere?" "It's Play or Pay!" screamed hundreds. And so it proved to be. The horse had been the recipient of one of those celebrated Guttenburg injections and he won in a romp. Kelly never ran bases faster than he ran up to Ike Thompson's book, brandishing his ticket calling for $305. "Give us the green goods, Ike!" he roared, while the crowd gathered around breathlessly.

"There's your money!" said Thomp. son pleasantly as he took a big roll of bills from the cashier. Kelly didn't stop to count it, but made a rush for the barroom, crying out:

"If there's dust in any guy's throat around here let him come in with me and wash it out. Everybody have a drink!" The bar looked like a bargain counter as the sports lined up. They called for everything from wine to cigarettes, and when all had had enough Kel said to the drink mixer: "How much sport?"

"Fifteen dollars, Kel!" "There's twenty. Have a bot your-"Say, Mr. Kelly," whispered a tout,

"could you stake me to a few bucks? I've got a cinch!" "There's ten of them, me boy! Go and break up the betting ring!" was Kelly's response, as he forked out a ten-dollar bill. Other impecunious persons successfully "touched" him for various amounts, until Mike decided to plunge again. Going up to a bookmaker who had 100 to I against the horse

Duke John, Mike cried out: STOOD TO WIN $10,000.

"I'll put a hundred on that one!" and quickly produced a century, for which he received a ticket calling for $10,000

"If Duke John wins," said Mike, "I'll through | buy the track." Duke John was last in a field of twelve, but Kelly only laugh d. And so he continued to speculate until the races were over. Then he had a $10 bill and some change. He paid the car and ferry fares of at least fifty unfortunates, loaned 50 cents here and a quarter there, and by the time he left the boat at the foot of Fortysecond street he had a few pennies over $5. As Kelly crossed Tenth avenue, he caught sight of a little girl about 3 years old who was crying as if her heart would break. He picked her up in his arms and said gently:

"What's the catter, little one?"
"Mamma's sign in bed and I'm hun-ry!" sobbed the little girl. Kel gulped down a lump in his throat, put the child on the sidewalk, pressed $5 into her hand, and said soothingly: "There, give that to your mother, little one, and may God bless you!" "Come on, sport." Kel said to his friend then. We're broke, but let's hunt up some more green goods." He soon borrowed $50 from his namesake, 'Honest John' Kelly. That was at 7 o'clock in the evening. At 11 o'clock that same night he had won $1,000 at aro. The next day he caught the noon boat for Guttenburg, and he had but $50. When Mike died he didn't leave a dollar.

New York, July 25.—An important move has been made by which the entire Do-minion of Canada comes under the jur-isdiction of the American Kennel club, and shows in future held in Canada are to be conducted under the American Ken-nel club's rules. The executive commit-tee of the Canadian Kennel club becomes the Canadian advisory cor of the American Kennel club.

Important to Dog Fanciers.

At reduced prices, still continues. We have $100.00 Bicycles ranging in price from $50.00 to $75.00. You can buy department store bicycles at any price. We have none. It is bad policy to buy a bicycle that will turn out to be a neck breaker. Remember, we are the largest dealers in the city, and can offer you better inducements than any one in the city. Not in business for one year, but here to stay.
