BERNSTEIN MEETS WRIGHT TONIGHT

They Will Spar Twenty Rounds at Music Hall.

BOTH ARE IN GOOD CONDITION

The Two Have Never Met and the Result of the Bout Means Much to the Winners-Each Possesses a Good Record .- Have Trained Hard of Admission.

Tonight will be seen in Music Hall the boxing bout to which the sporting raternity of this city have been looking forward for several weeks. Wright, have for several days been on the ground and engaged in putting the finishing touches to their training. They will box twenty rounds at catch

It is quite likely that Pat Murphy will be the referee. This point had not been definitely settled last night, but he is acceptable to both parties, and he would be a popular official with the of the Rosettes, of the South Side, for Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Cowfield grounds. H. Warms, manager. will accept the task.

AT CATCHWEIGHTS.

The two men were matched to meet at 124 pounds. Each had trained to within about two pounds of that weight when the cold and rainy weather began a week ago, and it was seen that they both would be weakened by taking off flesh. It was then agreed to enter the ring at catchweights. Bernstein has been in this city with his manager, Charles Horan, and Wright with his trainer, Jim Reynolds at Judge's establishment in Pittston. As far as condition is concerned, both are "as Scranton has seen some good boxing ent will get a run for their wealth. Wright is not as well known in Scranton as is Bernstein, but in and about New York city they are considered at evens, and are recognized as entitled to receive attention from the very best men in the featherweight class. In his twenty-round bout with McMahon here last February, Bernstein proved himself every bit as clever as this city's pride, Jimmy Judge, though, of course,, in a lighter class. So when it is remembered that Wright believed to be as good a man as Bernstein, the Scranton audience can get and idea of the kind of sport that is to be witnessed. Wright and Bernstein have never faced each other.

BERNSTEIN AT WORK.

Bernstein's work in the Scranton Bicycle club gymnasium during the past few days has been watched by scores of people. He has punched the bag. boxed, wrestled and exercised with the pulley-weights for an hour and a half the unfinished 2.25 pace, and it took who saw him work were satisfied he is who, because he is less known here, is not to be despised. The result toed a surprise, for after Bonner had night means a great deal to the winwon two heats and Elloree one, the ner's future and on that account, as well as the condition of both men, a battle royal may be expected.

Pernstein has done his early training at Coney Island and Wright at College The records of the two are as follows: BERNSTEIN.

AN UP TO DATE SMOKE AMORITA MIXTURE Buchuran & Tyell 101 WALL ST, NEW YORK

The quick way in which Bernstein polished off Dolly Lyons recently in New York, and the way he punched big "Spike" Sullivan about for ten rounds was proof enough of his ability. That Wright is fully aware of the character of the man that he is going to meet is shown by the manner in which he has trained for the contest. Heretofore Wright has taken things rather easy, not so this time, however, for he has been up early each morning, out on the road getting his muscles hard and seeing that his wind appetite was get-ting in proper trim. Wright in his training has been having the assistance of some of the best boxers in the business and that he has been taught some new tricks goes without a word of doubt. If Wright succeeds in defeating Bernstein, the former's manager and train er, Jim Reynolds, is prepared to back him with $2,500 against the little colored wonder, George Dixon, for the championship of the world. Wright for This Meeting -- Reduced Prices is conscious therefore that a great deal depends upon the result of the present battle, and will exert every fair means at his command to win. Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn, manager of this city's American Sporting club, and who has handled hundreds of boxers and made hundreds of matches, thinks principals. Joe Bernstein and Fred that Bernstein and Wright will furnish one of the prettiest bouts ever witnessed in this city.

ADMISSION PRICES.

An announcement that will be appreciated, is that the admission prices will be 56 cents and $1. This ought to help attract one of the largest audlences of the kind ever seen in Music hall.

SYRACUSE GETS M'COY-RYAN FIGHT. The Two Middleweight Kings to Battle for Big Money. Kid McCoy and Tommy Ryan will not box in Buffalo after all. The Olympic Athletic club of that city made a bid for the contest through its representative, what they thought in reason it was worth, but Billy Brady, of New York, Corbett's manager and Mc Coy's ex-manager, went higher and McCoy in company with a couple of the Empire Athletic club of Syracuse topped even the New Yorker's offer. Buffalonians on Monday met at the Yates house in Syracuse, representa-tives of the Olympic Athletic club of Buffalo, managers of the Empire Athletic club of Syracuse, and a representative of Brady. After a long consulwill probably be chosen. Murphy is tation the Olympic club offered $3,500 or an honest, conscientious fellow, and has | 60 per cent of the gross receipts. Braan aversion to assuming the respon-sibility that goes with the refereeing of such an important star event, but that they would give 50 per cent. of the house if the money came over $5,000. After a time this was accepted, and both McCoy and Ryan on Tuesday met and signed articles.

The Syracuse club will pull off the contest in the big Alhambra rink in that city, which will accommodate 4,000

LONGWOOD TENNIS PLAYING.

Three Matches Between Americans and One Between Englishmen.

Boston, July 28 .- The third round of the Longwood tennis tournament was played today and consisted of three matches between Americans and one between two of the Englishmen. H. A. Nesbit, who is rated in England as ninth in the list of tennis cracks, defeated Dr. W. V. Eaves, who is rated third, in three straight sets.

The match of the morning was the Larned-G. L. Wrenn contest. Larned ond was not quite such an easy thing for the coming champion, and before he knew it, the games were four all. Larned tried hard to pull out the set, but Wrenn managed, by steady play, to pass him, and took the set, 6-4, the points being 38 to 34 in Wrenn's favor. Wrenn took the third set also.

By this time Larned realized that he had the hottest kind of a fight on his hands, and by careful play took the fourth set, 6-1, the points being 28 to 17 in his favor. After that he had no difficulty in taking the fifth set, 6-2, and match; the points on the last set being 27 to 18, making a total of 138 to 115 in Larned's favor.

AROUND THE ROPED ARENA.

Jim Corbett is now rusticating at Asoury Park. Tommy Ryan declares that he is quite aware that he is going up against a hard fighters' rendezvous at Long Island Point, Long Island. Mike Creedon, the Woods Run middle-weight, is ready to spar Kid McCoy, Jack Bennett or George Plante at the benefit or the miners.

Parson Davies has announced that if he fails to secure a match for his stable of fighters here he will take Jimmy Barry, Joe Cheynski and Bob Armstrong to England.

York Hennigan surprised everyone by gaining the decision over George Justis Monday night in Brooklyn. Justis stood the ten rounds and took enough punish-ment to last him for weeks. Australian Billy Murphy has challenged Dave Sullivan for a match. Should Sul-livan decline the offer, Murphy is ready to meet Sammy Kelly, Johnny Murphy or other bantam-weight at catch

Owing to the fact that Solly Smith has been matched to box "Pediar" Palmer in London, the proposed encounter between himself and Johnny Griffin, which was to have been decided at San Francisco, has been declared off.
