LUTHERAN PASTORAL ASSOCIATION.

Met in Monthly Session at Rev. A. L. Ramer's House.

The Lutheran Pastoral association assembled at the residence of Rev. A. L. Ramer, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, 127 South Lincoln avenue, yesterday, for the July meeting. The Rev. W. C. L. Lauer, who took charge of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Park Place, recently, attended the meeting. This was Mr. Lauer's first meeting with the association, and his presence added much interest to the assembly. Rev. Ehinger, of Carbondale, read a well prepared thesis on "The (Priority) Rights of the Existence of Christianity."

Rev. Henry Lisse, pastor of Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, of the South Side, reported the organization of a Lutheran mission at Elmhurst. St. Paul's mission is now prospering under the pastoral care of Rev. Lauer in Park Place.

Mrs. William Pass and children, of West Lackawanna avenue, are summering at Waverly.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John R. Farr, a North Hyde Park avenue, a son, deceased children of Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Williams, of North Hyde Park avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Polhaus, of Decker's court, will be interred in Washburn street cemetery this afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. Interment will be made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DAVIS.

A large number of friends of the late Mrs. John Davis assembled at the family residence on North Hyde Park avenue yesterday afternoon to attend the services over the remains. Rev. W. F. Davis, of the North End, spoke feelingly of the deceased. The remains were afterwards conveyed to Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Hannah Jenkins, of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret Thomas, of Plymouth, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Griffiths, of North Summer avenue.

STOLE AN UMBRELLA.

A warrant was sworn out before Alderman Kellow, of the Fourteenth ward, for the arrest of Peter F. Sweeney, of 516 Meridian street, on a charge preferred by Frank Layard, the huckster. The latter claims that Sweeney committed an assault upon him and robbed him of an umbrella worth $2.25, on July 24th. Sweeney appeared before the alderman, admitted his guilt, waived a hearing and entered bail for his appearance at court. His mother, Mrs. Mary Sweeney, became security for him. The trouble arose over the sale of a watermelon among a couple of hucksters, and Sweeney, who was intoxicated at the time, interfered, and climbing on Layard's wagon, struck at him and took from the wagon the umbrella. In the excitement the horses became frightened and ran away.

RETURNS NEXT WEEK.

Rev. J. W. Randolph, of St. Peter's Lutheran church, who has been spending several months in Europe, is expected home in a few days. On Thursday next, August 6th, a public reception will be tendered him by the congregation of St. Peter's church. The members of this church will hold their annual excursion to Lake Ariel on August 12.

AT SIMPSON M. E. CHURCH.
