Game from the Bisons. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 1.—Either Wilkes-Barre played its best team of the sea-son or Buffalo played the worst. DIAMOND DUST.

Albert J. Maul, the glddy old dude who has been rewarming his glass arm under the care of Edwardi Hanloni, says he is as good as ever for the 17,000th time. Mike Tiernan is the only survivor of the New York team that won the world's championship of 1889—that is, he is the only man engaged still in active play. Buck Ewing says that a rule should be assed compelling infleiders to play without gloves. He telleves that the safe bat-ing would be increased in consequence. While the Philadelphia team was in Pittsburg Stallings received an offer from the Minneapolis management to trade "Tacks" Farrott for one of Delchanty's bats. The offer was declined. Providence base ball recters are very mild specimens of the species compared with those at Toronto. There they are so rabid in their rooting for the home team that they will not admit that the team that they will not admit that the umpire is ever right when he declares a Toronto man out, except when it is by a catch on a fly ball.—Providence Journal. RACES BEGIN TOMORROW.

Indications That Scranton Will Have the Best Meeting in Its History---Bicycle Events.

An idea of the interest attached to the horse and bicycle races which begin tomorrow at the Scranton Driving park might have been gleaned yesterday from the big strings of horses stabled at the track and the crowd of owners, trainers, drivers and local horsemen who were on the ground and watching the entries that were being exercised and worked out. Never in the track's history have so many horses been stabled there and never have they been of such uniform good quality. Ella T, Bert Sheldon, Hal Pointer, Rowdy Joe and others might ordinarily attract at-tention but just now they have to divide honors with many others, the whole very nearly representing the cream of horseflesh that has recently been receiving attention on the New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania tracks.

It has been two weeks now since any race meet has been held anywhere in this region and horsemen and horses are ripe for a try at the large purses offeed by the Scranton management. There will be one or more star events on each of the four days. Considering the value of the purses, some of which run as high as $350, $400 and $500, and the special added inducement of $100, it is reasonable to presume that the track record will be lowered.

Horsemen generally and Scranton people are beginning to realize that this city possesses one of the best halfmile courses in this section of the country. The June meeting and its distinct success gave the track a big boom and the present meeting seems bound to eclipse anything of its kind ever before attempted here.

Frank C. Smith, the Buffalo starter, who gave such signal satisfaction at the last meeting, will again officiate. The other officials will be H. A. Groman, of Bethlehem; C. S. Seamans, of this city, and Dr. J. W. Houser, of Taylor.

A Louisville rooter's remark to the Boston-ton manager during the last Boston-Louisville game, before Nichols was sub-stituted for Klebedanz: "Oh, Frank, let's hibition at Weichel's jewelry store on Spruce street. There are over a score The bicycle events will open each of entries for some of the events. For the two handicap races the handicaps have been received from League of American Wheelmen headquarters and are as follows:

Five-mile handicap—Robert V. White, scratch; B. F. Keller, scratch; Will F. McMichael, scratch; R. A. Gregory, 59 yards; Guy A. Dewitt, 100 yards; William Dunn, 125 yards; George Palmer, 175 yards; William Marsh, 225 yards; H. B. Strong, 225 yards; Clarence Seward, 250 yards; Thomas McGowan, 250 yards; Henry Krause, 275 yards.

DARING BICYCLE FEAT.

With His Face Backward He Rides a Quarter in 46 Seconds.

Ciarence McLean, the clever trick rider of Indianapolis, made one of the most startling rides of history at the Detroit night meeting last Thursday, The Detroit track has nine feet banking on the turns and five feet on the straight. While doing his turn Mc-Lean twisted round on his wheel until his back was to the handle bars. He was sitting on the saddle and took his hands from the bar.

In this position, with no opportunity to see the handle bars of his machine or to see the way to steer on the halfdark electric lighted track, he rode the entire quarter, negotiating the banks successfully, all in forty-six seconds, It was the first time such a performance has been seen in this country, and one thousand people cheered themselves hoarse in encouragement of the championship of America will be played at Mountain Park next Saturday between Wilson and Kelly and Dove and Mc-Hugh on the occasion of the excursion of Division No. 1, A. O. H., B. of E. Old Man's Suicide.

Hand Ball at Mountain Park. A game of hand ball for $450 and th

New York, Aug. 1.—Hawey Haffner, 71 rears ago, committed suicide at his home in Brooklyn today. He was poor, suf-fered from asthma, was growing blind and became despondent.
