DIAMOND DUST. The Toronto Globe in its comments on Friday's game says: "Ollie Beard is still in the game. * * It doesn't seem like Scranton without 'Piggy' Ward. * * Walters, the recond-playing outfielder, takes chances—sometimes. * * Brooklyn may not be yelling after Bonner again, but they could do worse. * * Lightning-Rud-Hayfork' Massey saves many a wild throw to the first bag. * * Harper threws as many curves as * Harper threws as many curves as he has curls in his moustache. But they are not so pleasant-looking. * * Wally Taylor almost ripped the pitching hand off Mr. Harper with a line hit that the twirler could neither stop nor get out of the way of. He simply diverted the course of the ball a little and delayed the game five minutes to recover."

herty Aug. 19. Encouraged by its recent good boxing carnival in Music hall, the American Sporting club is arranging for another fistic night in the near future. Two star bouts are being negotiated and one of them seems likely to take place on the night of Thursday, Aug. 19.

An effort is being made by Manager Jack Skelly to match John Tighe, of the South Side, and Joe Flaherty, of Lowell, Mass., for 20 rounds. Failing in this it is probable that Mike Sears, of Boston, and Oscar Gardner, "the Omaha Kid," 122-pound men, will be secured for also 20 rounds. Scrantonians would much prefer to see the former match made. Tighe has practically never met defeat and with Judge, Toby Gardner and Joe Allen comprises the only quartette of really clean and scientific boxers of the city. Heretofore Tighe has flatly refused to meet anyone unknown to him. He has, however, reached a point in his boxing career where he must go against all comers in his class or lose the repute he has honestly earned. The Sears-Gardner bout, as far as the actual business in the ring is concerned, would furnish as lively a setto as the other, but Tighe and Flaherty would pack Music hall on account of the former's popularity and acquaintanceship and the percentage to the winner would amount to a tidy sum.
