BROTHERS AT WAR.

They Are Fighting Over the Payment of a Board Bill. David and Charles Jacobs are brothers, but this fact has not deterred David from going to law. The suit was brought before Alderman Kelly to recover $9 board money owed by Charles. It was proposed to attach Charles' pay, but this intention was frustrated by the latter's lawyer.

Then David went before Alderman Howe and began a similar suit. The attachment is made upon $19 for $9, and Charles objects. The hearing will oc-

The trouble originated, Charles says, from the fact that David has in his possession $70 which belongs to him (Charles), and when he asked for this money he was ordered out of his brothhouse where he boarded. Soon after the suits were begun. Charles says he is willing to deduct the board owing from the amount belonging to him if his brother will pay over the

TO ENTERTAIN DELEGATES. The members of St. Leo's battallon. held a special meeting in their rooms on North Main avenue last evening The meeting was called for the purpose of taking some action in reference to the entertaining of delegates present at the national convention of Catholic Total Abstinence Union. As an outcome of the session a committee composed of Captain M. J. McHugh, James Regan and T. J. Gilroy were chosen to meet and confer with similar commit tees from St. Paul's Pioneer corps and Father Matthew society to formulate plans. Action will be taken at the meeting in regard to the joint entertaining with central city societies. These committees will meet this evening in Co-operative hall. Friday evening, August 20 is the time selected to do the entertaining.

OBITUARY.

The death of Joseph Croup occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. J. Hollister, on Hickory street, Peckville, yesterday morning at 9.15. The deceased had been a sufferer for many years and had not been able to work for the past two years and a half. Last Sunday morning paralysis set in and caused his death. He was born in Union, a little town above Hemlock's creek, Luzerne county, Nov. 17, 1823, and was one of thirteen children, and was the youngest of all. His wife died about seven years ago. He is survived by one daughter (adopted), Mrs. P. J. Hollister, and by two sisters and one brother, John, who resides in Wayne county; Miss Eliza Swingle, of Bradford, and Mrs. Caroline Cobb, of Hollisterville, Mr. Croup fol-lowed the lumbering business most of his life; during the last fourteen years he has worked in the car shops at the Grassy Island, Delaware and Hudson colliery. He is well known and was one of Peckville's old pioneer residents. In every walk of life Mr. Croup acquitted himself with credit and respect and was well-known for his honest and upright manly acts. The funeral will occur on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. S. C. Simpkins. Interment will be made in Prospect cem-

INNOCENT LOOKING.

But He Was an Old-Time Operator and Let the Girls Know It.

From the Chicago News. A young man leaned up against the counter of a branch telegraph office where two pretty young ladies are employed as telegraphers, says an ex-change. He had been chatting with them for about an hour, but had forgotten to say that at one period of his life he himself had been an operator. During a lull in the conversation one of the young ladies "opened" her key and said to the other:

"What do you think of his nibs at the counter?" "Don't think much of him," was the reply. A.2.1512 "Why ?"

"Oh, he makes me tired-he talks like a parrot." "He makes me tired, too-wish he would sneak."

The young man broke in at this juncture and said: "Ladies, I thank you for the compliments you have bestowed upon me, and as you are tired of my company, I'll sneak." The numerous colors of the rainboy would not be sufficient to describe the changes that took place in the young ladies' faces. There is a moral at tached to this tale and young ladies in branch offices and elsewhere would do well to take heed. To Cure a Cold in One Day.
