

West Side and City Scandal

ALMOST A TRAGEDY.

Reckless Discharging of a Revolver in the Hands of a Young Man Named Rittenhouse.

Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, Benjamin D. Beddoe, of 1417 Lafayette street was sitting on a chair in the basement of his residence, between the door and window. Suddenly a breaking of glass was heard, and he called to his niece to ascertain the cause of the alarm. The old gentleman is quite deaf, and was unaware that the window pane alongside of him had been broken. Upon investigation it was discovered that a ball from a revolver had passed through the window, scattering the broken glass in every direction. Some of the pieces were found fifteen feet away from the window, but no trace of the ball could be found. It was a most miraculous escape for Mr. Beddoe, as he usually sits in front of the window, when resting himself.

Had any one entered a few minutes before the shot was fired, in all probability Mr. Beddoe would have moved towards the window and been in a position to receive the contents of the revolver in the head, as the pane of glass broken in the frame was on a line with his head.

A diligent investigation was made throughout the neighborhood at the time, but no trace of the guilty parties could be found, although several persons in the immediate vicinity heard several similar reports about that time. The shock greatly alarmed Mr. Beddoe, who is nearly 84 years of age, and the family were much exercised over such careless handling of firearms in the neighborhood, which is thickly populated.

The matter was reported to Lieutenant Thomas Williams, of the West Scranton police precinct, and an effort was made to bring the guilty one to account for such reckless discharging of a gun at such a time and place. Diligent inquiry was last evening made and it was learned that a son of Marketman Rittenhouse, of North Main avenue, was the culprit. Mr. Rittenhouse rents a barn in the vicinity of Mr. Beddoe's home, and the boy found an old revolver on the premises and amused himself by discharging it, little thinking that the bullets would do any damage.

Richard Nichols, the tailor, son-in-law of Mr. Beddoe, and Lieutenant Williams went to the store of Mr. Rittenhouse and an adjustment of the trouble was made by the father agreeing to pay for all damage done. The boy was thoroughly frightened over the matter and will undoubtedly be more cautious in the future in the discharge of firearms.

SUIT TO RECOVER SICK BENEFITS

Alderman John, of the Fourth ward, heard a civil suit last evening. The plaintiff was Thomas O'Neill, of Larch street, Dunmore, who brought suit against Division No. 19, Ancient Order of Hibernians of Green Ridge, to recover $500 sick benefits for twelve weeks' disability, which was caused by his being injured in the West Ridge colliery on the 16th of February last. The suit was filed against the society and its officers, Messrs. Martin Ferguson, president; J. M. Walsh, secretary; P. D. Mahon, treasurer. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney M. J. McAndrew and Senator J. C. Vaughan appeared for the society. O'Neill claims that he was in good standing in the society at the time he was injured. The alderman gave judgment for $600 and costs in favor of the plaintiff. An appeal will be taken in a few days.

TROUBLESOME BOYS.

On July 30 a bicycle was stolen from on front of Wall & Barrett's store on South Main avenue. It was afterwards recovered and the parents of the boys who took it agreed to settle the case. Last Monday Harry Hill and John Daly, of Jackson street, stole two wheels from in front of the store and sold them to another boy named Carl Johnson, for 20 cents. The latter returned them to the store and a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the boys. A hearing was given them before Alderman Davis last evening and it was proved that the Daly boy was innocent of the charge. The mother of the Hill lad agreed to pay the costs and damages.

NEEDING DISCHARGE.

William Nesbitt, of Hampton street, who was arrested at the instance of his wife, charged with abuse and disorderly conduct, was given a hearing before Alderman Moses of the Fifteenth ward, yesterday. Upon his assurance of better conduct he was discharged upon payment of costs.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The completion yesterday of the retaining wall, near the Ontario and Western track, on East Market street, has filled a much-needed want. Previous to the building of the wall the road at this point was made almost impassable and dangerous for vehicles, immediately following a rainstorm.

People residing in the vicinity of the Ontario and Western depot in Park Place have been so pestered of late by the noise of the cars, that they are making complaint to the police. Monday evening Lieutenant Spellman, Patrolmen Perry and Special Officer Williams arrested themselves and captured Charles Noack, John O'Hara, Patrick O'Hara and Martin Neary. They were arraigned last evening before Alderman Roberts, who fined Noack $4 for being drunk and discharging firearms. John and Patrick O'Hara were taxed $5 and $2 respectively, while Neary was held for further hearing. The police are bent on breaking up the pestilence which reigns in that section and will make more arrests today.

KERL'S ASSAULT CAUGHT.

Hunter Heid in $300 Bail to Appear at Court.
J. R. Hunter, of 204 North Sumner avenue, a piano tuner, who became engaged in an altercation at the Assembly early yesterday morning, with the proprietor, George Kerl, in which the former used a knife and cut Kerl on the wrist, severing an artery, was arraigned at his home at 5 o'clock yesterday morning by Lieutenant Williams, Patrolmen John Thomas, Matthews and Hart.

After the cutting, Hunter jumped on his wheel and went to his home. The officers endeavored to effect an entrance at 2 o'clock, but were unable to secure the prisoner until 5 o'clock, owing to the resistance offered. Finally when Hunter realized that it was useless to try and evade the officers he opened the door and gave himself up.

Alderman Davis, of the Fifth ward, gave the prisoner a hearing yesterday morning and held him in $300 bail, awaiting a bondsman.

Mr. Kerl's condition last night does not occasion any fears. His hand is only slightly cut and he will be out of bed today. The reports in several papers associating a young man named Shearon with the fracas was caused by the fact that Shearon, also, is a piano tuner. He was not present at the fight.

THEY WENT OVER THE ROUTE.

Mayor Bailey and Manager Sillman Examined West Side Streets.
Mayor James G. Bailey and General Manager Frank Sillman of the Scranton Railway company, yesterday drove over the route which the railway company proposes to cover by the extension of its West Side line.
