

West Side and City

LECTURE BY MISS DAVIES.

It Was Delivered in the Welsh C. M. Church, Bellevue.

Miss Rosina Davies, the distinguished Welsh evangelist from Rhonda Valley, South Wales, has returned to West Scranton. She has been making a tour through the middle states and has met with great success in her chosen work. Last evening Miss Davies spoke upon Christ and his teaching to a large congregation in the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, Bellevue. Her address was made in Welsh and was interesting and profitable. It is likely that Miss Davies will continue these talks in this vicinity for some time.

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT.

The young men of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church have almost completed their arrangements for the entertainment which will be given by them next Friday evening at the church. The programme of exercises, which will be an exceptional one, will be ready for announcement later. Professor W. Vernon Hughes, of Boston, Mass., and J. Wendell Williams, of Brooklyn, N. Y., have sent their consent to appear. Both gentlemen are noted tenors and will no doubt attract the attention of all lovers of good vocal music. Others of note have partially promised. The committee of arrangements are: John Hale, chairman; H. D. Jones, John Fern, Frank Hagen, Professor W. W. Jones, Harry Randolph, Harry A. Wright, Walter Davies, William Whitman, Jenkin T. Reese, George L. Peck, Harry Acker and Alfred Twining. The entertainment is for the benefit of the church choir. New books, etc., are needed and the young men are trying to fill the want. The small general admission of 25 cents will be charged.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

At Sunday afternoon's session, the Father Mathew society selected the five members who will represent the society on the general reception committee for the reception of delegates at the coming National Catholic Total Abstinence union, which will be held here next week. The committee consists of five and are: J. H. McNulty, Edward Kenny, Michael Healey, P. M. Rohan and Patrick Murray. It was also decided at this session to procure Lawrence's band to lead the society in the procession. The band will do its new uniform in honor of the occasion.

BOARD MEETS TONIGHT.

The West Side board of trade meets in regular monthly session this evening in the West Side bank building. The president, A. B. Holmes, urges a full attendance at important reports are expected from the streets and bridges and manufacturers committees. In all probability further action will be taken in regard to a sewer in the Fifteenth ward. Several new members will be proposed. The meeting will be opened at 8 o'clock.

RITTEN BY A DOG.

J. M. Maynard, of 308 Chestnut street, was badly bitten by a dog while visiting friends at Moscow on Sunday. His purpose is to interest the general public in friend when suddenly attacked by the animal which was approaching in the opposite direction. He returned to his home and his wound was dressed by D. B. G. Heckwith. It was afterwards ascertained that the dog belongs to William Rafferty, a resident of Moscow. No serious results are anticipated.
