Today's Games. SPRINGFIELD AT WILKES-BARRE. COULDN'T HIT DOLAN.

His Lob-Style Delivery Puzzled the Miners-Only One Earned Run in the Game.

Dolan may be a lightweight in physique but he proved himself to be a very heavy character in pitching yesterday and to the fact the Miners may attribute their defeat. It would have been a shut-out but for errors by Rogers and Brouthers in the fifth laning which gave Griffin's men their only run of the game: Manager Burns wasn't there to see the victory as he released Smith early in the day and went post haste to New York, from where, it is pre-sumed, he got wind of some information which will tend toward strengtheaing the weakness at center.
Dolan's was the first lob-style of delivery that the Miners had been up against in a long time and it bothered them so effectively that out of their five hits only one was of the clean and residive variety. That was Bonner's two-baser which hit the centerfield fence and bounded back into Woods' hands. Dolan, Fuller and Gilbert blocked hits by Walters, Bonner and Boyd; another was a fly by Boyd which dropped between Fuller and Woods. each standing for the other to catch it. Morse, too, pitched a good game, excepting the first inning when two hits for three bases earned a run. His one base on balls and errors by Gunson and Maguire, coupled with hits that otherwise would not have amounted to anything, gave the Ponies four of their Baltimore300000152-11165 five runs.

THE FIRST RUN. Fuller's double and Bannon's single in the first inning with one out developed the only carned run of the game, Thereafter and up to the fifth inning only two scattered singles were made off Morse.

In the fifth, with one out, Fuller head. If Eagan had been able to be in and Merritt. Umpire-McDonald. left field it is doubtful if Bannon would have made the hit.

The Miners were lucky in scoring their solitary run in the last of the fifth. Boyd walked and was forced by Maguire. Morse's grounder to Fuller should have been an easy double play, but Rogers muffed Shorty's good assist. Walters forced Morse on an assist from Fuller to Rogers, but Big Dan erred on the fag end of what was the second opportunity for a double

Maguire had gone to third when the ball was hit and made a break for the plate on Brouther's error. He slid and it would have been a close decision if Duncan had not dropped the ball. In the next two innings not a Pony saw first, and Scranton's only accomplishment was Boyd's scratch single which was followed by a double play in the seventh. In the eighth Green singled, Bannon sacrificed and Brouthers walked. Rogers singled Green home. Gunson fumbled the hit and Maguire let the ball pass him on the throw in, Brouthers scoring and Rogers reaching third from where he scored on Gilbert's fly to Gunson. Woods hit a two-baser down the left line, but the trouble ended with Dancan's outfield fly.

THREE ON BASES. Bonner's two-baser to the fence, Massey's walk and Boyd's single to Gilbert with two out filled the bases in the last of the ninth, but Maguire met the emergency with an easy foul fly to Gilbert, Score; SCRANTON.

DIAMOND DUST.

Green and Woods each made a difficult running eatch. Johnson will pitch against Wilkes-Barre tomoriow.
The Miners will play the Keystones at Pittston this afternoon, Gillon will pitch. The Springfield-Wilkes-Barre game is the only one scheduled in the Eastern today.

No other umpire in the league would have stood the abuse heaped upon Keefe by Brouthers and Duncan yesterday.

The Baltimores made more runs off Nichols than has been done in any game this season. It may not happen again. The games scheduled here for Saturday. Monday and Tuesday, the 21st, 23d and 24th, have been transferred to Buf-

"Only Me" is a song that is popular with some players, but it sounds better with accompaniments by the Razoo

String band, The Wilkes-Barre-Scranton series will begin in Wilkes-Barre tomorrow. Mon-day's game will be in Wilkes-Barre; Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in this city, and Friday in Wilkes-Barre. The fact that Amos Rusie came back into the fastest company and pitched championship ball after a whole year of idleness stamps him as a wonder. His constitution must be pretty close to cast

If Scranton's centerfield fence was not so near the diamond there would be many more two and three-base hits. Bonner's two-bagger which hit the fence yesterday would easily have been a home run or the Wikes-Barre grounds.

If Eagan had been in the game the Ponies probably would not have made over seven hits. Fuller's run wouldn't have been made in the fifth and none of the three in the eighth. His ankle is greatly improved and he will play in Wilkes-Barre tomorrow.

J. Earl Wagner, of the Washington club, says that, barring Boston and New York, this season in the National will be one of the worst, financially, since 1896. He gives as the proclipal reasons the slump of the Philadelphia, Pittsburgs and Chicagoes and the had weather.

Chicagoes and the bad weather.'
According to President Young, Boston and Brooklyn do the least kicking on umpires. Chicago makes little trouble, Bal-timore has made one kick this season, Pittsburg makes very little complaint, and Cleveland and Washington protest when things are very rank. New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis make Mr.

Young weary.

The Cincinnati club engaged dressing rooms outside of but in the neighborhood of the Polo grounds. It is supposed that Freedman would not allow the Reds to dress in the club house, and Mannager Joyce said recently to a Sun reporter that the Reds would not be admitted until 30 minutes before the game, and then would be allowed 15 minutes' practice and no more, either before or after the game. Joyce declared that he was justified by the alleged "shabby" treatment of the New Yorks while in Cincinnati by Manager Ewing. All of which is very small and disgusting and unworthy of the national game. Young weary. tional game,

The Phillies are no longer the great team they once were, according to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Clements, Boyle, Taylor and Delahanty, it says, are the only ones of the old guard left, and the new men are a much weaker lot. Gillen and Geler are not up to major league standard, and are, without exception, the worst combination at second and short in the league today. Nash has gone back some, but is still in the game. Lajole is all right on first, but Cooley and Dowd, though good players, are not nearly the equal of the fleet-footed Billy Hamilton and the heavy-hitting Sam Thompson. equal of the fleet-footed Billy Hamilton and the heavy-hitting Sam Thompson. Lave Cross, one of the most popular players that ever visited St. Louis, is laid up at Philadelphia. Cross has not been given a fair chance with the Phillies this year, and is dead anxious to make a chance. Any club securing him will a change. Any club securing him will secure one of the greatest all-round play-ers in the business.

TRAINING FOR THE BOUT.

Dobbs and Kane Preparing for Next Week's Music Hall Event.

Bobby Dobbs and Dick Kane, who are to box twenty rounds in Music hall next Thursday night, have for sometime been in active training for the event. Dobbs is at Coney Island with Dan Creedon, who is to battle Kid McCoy for the middleweight championship of the world, and Kane is training with Dick Moore at College Point, Long Island. The two are to weight in at 135 pounds at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the bout.

The pair ought to furnish one of the livliest and best entertainments of the kind ever given in Music hall. Dobbs is one of the best known lightweights in the country and is said to have defeated more men than any lightweight in the world.

Kane is not as well known in the East but in California he is the champion at his weight. He recently came east with "Mysterious Billy" Smith, and since then has had but one meeting. This was with Billy Stiffers, at Troy, three weeks ago, the bout being decided a draw, although the press and spectators thought Kane should have had the decision. His last battle in the West was with Spider Kelly who was put out in five rounds. A week it took Jack Everhart twenty rounds to get a decision over Kelly.

American Tennis Cracks Win.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—The American tennis experts scored a clean sweep against their English rivals today, capturing every one of the three matches played in the Wyandol invitation tourney. TEN EYCK WON'T ROW.

Is Not in Condition to Enter the National Regatta.

Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—Edward H. Ten Eyck, who recently defeated Blackstage, at Henley, and brought the diamond sculls to this country, will not compete in the national regatta to be held in the Schuylkill river tomorrow and Saturday. His father came to this positive determination this afternoon. He says the young champion is out of condition, in conse-quence of the social functions he has been obliged to attend, and lack of practice since his arrival from England. Ten Eyck was to have taken two practice spins today, but after his morning row, his hends, which are badly blistered, began to bleed, and this brought him and his parent to the resolution not to enter the youngster in the regatta. They resti-ize that the men entered for the senior single event would be hard to beat by any one not in the best shape. The decision of the Ten Eycks has created much disappointment among lovers of the sport. Nevertheless, the regatta is sure to be of exceeding interest. of exceeding interest.

How They All Feel. The Bostons already claim the 1897 pennant. The Reds still have hopes, and Manager Ewing says he still has his eyes fixed upon the flag. The New Yorks are scrapping along, giving Rusie and Meekin hypodermic injections and expecting the hot finish of 1854 to come to the front. "Then we'll land that flag," says Scrappy. The Clevelands are getting rid of aborigines and putting civilized white men into the game who straightway become uncivilized, but they claim to be hunting hot for Temple Cup money all the while. "In about two weeks," says Tebeau, "I'll foreclose my mortgage on the rag.
