ONE FARCE INNING.

And Nine Scranton Errors Gave the Barons Saturday's Game at Wilkes-Barre.

Tim Miners were beaten at Wilkes-Barre Saturday on four errors and a bunch of misplays, all in the eighth inning, which permitted the Barons to score seven runs and win the game. John L. Sullivan decided balls and strikes, but Mason, the regular staff umpire, watched the bases and assumed a general supervision of the game which was witnessed by 3,000

Gillon and Wellner were opposed to each other in the box and the former had far and away the best of it. Of the eight hits recorded against Gillon three were misjudged flies and only five were of the clean variety. In the first four innings six hits were made off Wellner and four line drives that would ordinarily have netted two or three bases each were hit directly at Bottenus in left field and resulted in easy outs.

Errors by Barry and Eagan gave the Barons all their first three runs while the Miners earned three of their four up to the ludicrous eighth inning. FUNNY BUT COSTLY.

In the eighth with two on bases and two out Atherton hit a long fly to left that Eagan would have eaten under ordinary circumstances but which he badly misjudged and the result was a two base hit and two runs. He followed this with another misjudgment on Weliner's single, and Walters' continued the trouble by muffing Bottenus' fly. Shannon hit a fly and Eagan muffed that. Bonner stopped Meaney's grounder but threw the ball to the rightfield bleachers. Eagan muffed Goeckel's fly and Boyd dropped Betts' high foul.

After Boyd dropped the foul fly he threw the ball far into rightfield, where Griffin caught it and all hands considered the spell broken. Betts' force hit from Maguire to Bonner retired the side after seven runs had been

While the fuss was in progress the crowd was going wild with joy and fairly lifted the heavens with a din of continued yells and cheers. Score: WILKES-BARRE.

SCRANTON RIDERS WON.

Captured a Big Share of the Prizes at the Bloomsburg Races on Saturday.

Scranton riders figured prominently n the bicycle races held at Bloomsburg Saturday. Among the well-known riders who participated were: C. W. Kriek, Reading: Earl Bovee, Binghamton; Craig Stewart, Harrisburg; Will McMichael, Berwick; George Harry, Berwick; and about twenty others, including the Scranton riders.

Robert White, of this city, won the final of the one-half mile open by inches from Charles Coleman, also of this city.

Notice to all lovers of fishing and hunting: Having no place to fish or hunt without signs of "No Trespassing" staring you in the face, we have concluded to test the constitution of the game and fish monopolies. Any person in the movement will meet at the Drummers' hotel, Bull's Head, on the ovening of Aug. 14, at 8 o'clock sharp. Committee:

Thomas H. Jones, Charles Watkins, Patrick Lynch. Saturday. Among the well-known rid-from Charles Coleman, also of this city, in a cyclone finish, with Earl Bovee, of Binghamton, third.

Krick won the two-mile lap race, the one-mile open and the three-mile handicap from scratch. George Harry, of Berwick, won the one-mile handicap from 145 yards, with Charles Coleman a close second from the 30-yard mark. Charles Coleman clipped ten seconds from the track mile record, paced by Duncan Hall, Jack Dawkins, Harry Strong, of Scranton, and Will Mc-Michael, of Berwick, each pacing a quarter. Coleman's time was 2.06, which is very fast for that kind of riding. Duncan Hall, another Scranton rider, won second place in the novice, and fourth in the three-mile handlcap. The entries were so numerous that each race was run in several heats.

KANE, THE BOXER, INJURED.

But a Better Man Is Substituted for Thursday Night's Bout. Word was received in this city yesterday that "Bob" Kane, who was to meet "Bobby" Dobbs in a 20-round bout in Music hall, Thursday night, broke his ankle Saturday while boxing with Dick Moore at College Point. The accident, while unfortunate for Kane, Sporting club as a much better man has been secured to meet Dobbs.

Hugh McWinters, who fought a ten-round draw with "Kid" McPartland, and also a 20-round draw with Dobbs in the hottest kind of a fight before the Greenpoint club, of Brooklyn, three eeks ago, has been substituted for Kane. It has cost the club a considerable sum of money to get McWinters and Manager Skelly is entitled to no little credit for his enterprise.

Kane's injury was a compound fracure of two ankle bones and necessitated his removal in an ambulance to the Long Island City hospital where he will have to remain several weeks.

It is the purpose of the American Sporting club to give Scramton people nothing but the best kind of boxing. This is indicated in the expense neces-sary in engaging McWinters. It had been Manager Skelly's intention to put Dobbs and McWinters on before the Greenpoint Athletic elub August 30, but McWinters consented to settle his or Dobbs' superiority in Scranton. Mc-Winters is a colored boxer, as is Dobbs, and has a big record as the following will show:

Defeated-Jim Woodly 2 rounds, Jack Gannon 4 rounds, Lou Atley 3 rounds, Marty Garry 2 rounds, Jack McCoy 1 round, Jack Hogan 4 rounds, Tom Mc-Gowan 15 rounds, Tom Moriarity 15 rounds, Wal Burden 5 rounds, Billy Lightfoot 2 rounds, Frank Needem 6 ounds, Harry Patterson 2 rounds, Joe Cutley 7 rounds, Frank O'Brien 9 Tommy Gans 16 rounds, Pat O'Neill 22 rounds, Rudy Watson 10

dition. The Excelsior Athletic club will have The Excelsior Athletic club will have one of their popular tournaments on Wednesday evening, Aug. 18, at Music Hall. The event of the evening will be a 20-round contest between Edward McCluskey, of Philadelphia, and Mike McManus, of Albany, N. Y. This, no doubt, will be the best ever seen here as both men have been anxious to meet for a long time, but could not come to an agreemnt as to weight. come to an agreemnt as to weight. They have agreed to weigh in at the ring side at 128 pounds or forfeit $25. McCluskey has met Dixon, Skelly and all comers in his class and McManus has equally as good a record. They both caim to be in fine condition and will reach this city Tuesday morning.

"NO TRESPASS" SPORTSMEN.

They Wish to Take Action Against the Troublesome Signs. A few sportsmen, gunners and fishermen gathered at the Drummers' hotel at Bulls' Head Saturday evening, in response to the following notice: Notice to all lovers of fishing and hunt-

Patrick Lynch, Joseph Knott.

So few responded to the notice that a formal meeting was not held. Those present chatted over the situation but no definite plan was decided upon be youd a decison to try and have a general meeting of sportsmen later on. The crusade proposed against the "no tres pass" signs grew out of the arrest recently of a number of fishermen at Griffin's pond. The men arrested were held to answer at court. They wished to interest fellow sportsmen in their
