T. M. MILLER SERENADED.

It Was of the Surprise Variety and Was Tendered by Bauer's Band. T. M. Miller was pleasantly surprised and serenaded by Professor Bauer's band at his residence on Washburn street last evening. The first spasm of surprise having passed, Mr. Miller enjoyed the fine music which was also appreciated by other residents in that vicinity. For half an hour or more "music swelled the breeze" and then Herr Miller responded by having the band accompany him to Fairchild's hotel, where refreshments and cigars were forthcoming.

The delightful concert was here continued and several hours replete with pleasure were soon passed. Mr. Miller recently returned from a trip abroad for his health.

SCRANTON GLEE SOCIETY.

John E. Lewis, of South Hyde Park avenue, has formed a society to be known as the Scranton Glee society, for the purpose of conducting a concert for the benefit of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association at Great Bend, Sept. 20. A full rehearsal will be held at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association hall, on Lackawanna avenue, this evening. The party is now open for engagements and any information can be had by appling to the conductor, J. E. Lewis, at Samter Brothers' clothing store, Following are the members:

The party met at the residence of Miss Minnie J. Hardings, of 217 North Bromley avenue, and proceeded to the residence of Meyers, where they were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Meyers, parents of the young man. Congratulations were in order and their recipient responded happily. After an evening of music, recitations and other pleasant diversions, refreshments were served and Mr. Meyers was tendered the wishes of many such happy occa-

ISAAC SMITH INJURED.

Isaac Smith, residing in Sadie place, nd employed as a miner at the Archbald mines, was badly hurt on Monday afternoon, while at work by a fall of top coal. He was engaged in making a new cutting and the coal was upon him before he realized his danger. The injured man was removed to his home and Dr. G. B. Beach summoned. He found that three ribs had been broken and there were evidences of internal injuries. Mr. Smith was formerly janitor of the Welsh Calvanistic Methodist church on South Main pvenue.
