TAYLOR.

A most enjoyable event was celebrated at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, of Minooka, on Friday evening, the occasion being a surprise party in honor of their son James. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other diver-sions. A programme consisting of singing by Misses Morgans and Knapp, and recitations given by Mr. Evan G. Evans, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. At the end of the programme the company adjourned to the lawn and partook of a sumptuously prepared supper. Those present were: Misses Lizzie Billington, Della Williams, Ray and Jessie Morgans, Lizzie Urweider, Martha Price, Morgans, Della Knapp, Sarah Fox, Marcia Knapp, Ida Jones, Martha Fox, Annie Rose, Gertrude Thomas, Bertha Rose, Mrs. Harry Keister and Messrs. FOOLISH LAW SUITS. Old Lawyer's Advice to Keep Ou of Court if it is Possible to Do So.

From the Detroit Free Press. "Many foolish cases are brought into the courts," observed an old lawyer "My advice to my clients has always been to keep out of the courts. I remember a case in which one neighbor was involved in a distressing controversy with another. The neighbor who was sued for damages had built a house on a corner lot and when the house was erected the other neighbor discovered that it had encroached upon about three inches of his land. They had some words and the man who had built the house hired me to defend him in the suit brought by the other man, Well, after much trouble I brought them together and tried to procure a settlement out of court They argued with and abused each other and would come to no agreement. The land was worth $50 a foot; three inches were therefore worth about $12.50. "I told my client he had better set-le. No; he was right; he wouldn't. So the case was dragged along in one court and then another for over a year. When finally my client lost, the case had cost him about twenty times the amount of money involved and much mental worry, caused by hard fellings. It was Tolstol's story of the two neighbors who had a falling out over nothing all over again. They lived thereafter in constant enmity, never speaking to each other and heartily detesting each other, while their children were reared to foster this feeling. One felt that he had been robbed and the other felt that it had cost him a great deal of money to get what was his. It was as near a feud as might well exist in a civilized city, only instead of the dagger thrusts of a genuine, bona fide vendetta, venomous tengues, which gave utterance constantly to sneers, slanders and back-biting "Thereafter each was jealous of the other's prosperity or rejoiced when adversity sought his rival's family. The innocent as well as the guilty and obstinate contestants suffered, and it was altogether a detestable piece of business. So I am ever in favor of settlement out of court, just as I believe in arbitration to settle the troubles between nations. One is as escential to the happiness of the domestic circle as the other is to the well-being of the government,"
