Battle of Pitchers at Wilkes-Barre. Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 23.—The game be-tween Wilkes-Barre and Toronto today was a battle of pitchers, Dincen, how-ever, got the best support. The visitors took the lead in the fourth inning on Atherion's error and Freeman's three-bagger, The locals could not score after the first inning. In the second, McMahon was knocked insensible by a pitched ball. He was carried off the field and doctors say he is in a precarious condition. The ball struck him back of the right ear. Score: WILKES-BARRE.

DIAMOND DUST.

Sporting Editor of The Tribune Please oblige a reader of your paper by telling me what decision should be given in case a batter makes a foul, which hits the catcher on the forchead and is caught while in the air by the pitcher, and oblige E. J. M.

yours truly, E. J.)
Scranton, August 23.
[It would be a foul. Sporting Ed.] Robert J. Fitzsimmons, heavyweight champion pugliist of the world, will ap-pear at Athletic park as a side issue to Thursday's Scranton-Toronto game. He will give a bag-punching exhibition and spar three rounds. In the evening the red-headed boxer is booked to appear at Laurel Hill park, when there will also be several boxing bouts by local people.

Never was greater injustice done an umpire than by the following which appeared in Saturday's Synthefield University peared in Saturday's Springfield Union: "Tim Keefe is announced as having resigned from the Eastern league staff of umpires.—Wilkes-Barre Record. Perhaps Pat asked him to. Keefe was on the diamond at Scranton in no condition to umpire." As a metter of fact the Union's statement that Keefe was "lie union's statement that Keefe was "lie union's to be the greatest race of the light harness horses began on the Readville track today. The weather was raw, track heavy and attendance 4,500.

statement that Keefe was "in no condi-tion to umpire" is very wide of the mark and Pat Powers did not ask Keefe to resign. Powers wrote Keefe that Burns had charged him (Keefe) with drunkenness and he (Powers) cautioned Keefe to keep in condition. Keefe immediately resigned. Tom Burns lied when he told Powers that Keefe was drunk; he lied if he said Keefe had been drinking. Neither was true. Immediately preceding Guinett the second game lost by Springfield in Scranton the writer had a conversation with Keefe in the Scranton club's dressing rooms and the former knows, as does everybody near Keefe that day, that he had not been drinking, that he was perfectly sober, as he was during all the following the feetly sober, as he was during all the feetly sober as th fectly sober, as he was during all the games he umpired in Scranton. Burns was very sore after losing the first two games of the last series in Scranton. He cursed his own players in a fashion that made him worse than what he accused Keefe of being; he stamped the Miners as a pack of dirty, rowdy players, and he preferred a false charge against Tim Keefe. Possibly some of the Springfield players may be of the same opinion as that of their manager; if so their belief must be based on what Burns has told them, not on what they know. Never were three games better umpired than the three in question between Scranton and Springfield. Keefe was at his best and Burns had as little or as much cause to Paddy D down Lady 10 7 criticise him as did Griffin—and Griffin Town Lady 10 7 did not criticize him. But that has nothing to do with the fact that Tim Burns lied when he said Keefe was drunk or nicid when he said keere was drunk or intimated he was in no condition to un-pire when the Springfield club last played in Scranton. The Union, while very rad-ical in its base ball comment, has always been ready to correct a misstatement. It has done Keefe a grievous wrong in this case notwithstanding what Tem-

NICHOLSON WON THE SERIES.

Took Three Out of Five Games From the Tunkhannock Club. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Nicholson, Aug. 23.-The Tritons, of Tunkhannock, were defeated here today in a very interesting game by a score of 9 to 5. Great interest was manifested, it being the final game in a series of five, each team having won two. Smith, McGroarty and Kelly pitched in good form, barring wildness of the former two. This was due to wet ball, as it rained up to the time the game began.

Batteries-Hedson and Dixon; Malarkey He accepted nine chances without an error, making two beautiful stops and assists on what seemed to be clean ilts. About 500 people witnessed the game. The score:

Lackawannas Played Great Ball Against Olyphant.

The Lackawannas and Olyphant Browns played Sunday afternoon at Olyphant. It was a one-sided affair after the second inning. In the third inning the second inning. In the third inning the Lackawannas took the lead and were never headed, Ruane pitched the most remarkable game of the season. For seven innings the best the Olyphant boys could do was to make two hits, up to that time he had not given a base on balls. His best work was in striking out

R.H.E. 1 fourteen men. In the eighth inning, after the Browns had ought to have been retired without 7 13 a run, the Lackawannas made five errors with three of the poorest kind of scratch hits sandwiched in between, and Finnerty's error in dropping the third strike and loosing ball, the Olyphant boys were enabled to score six runs. Keelcher was knocked out of the box in the fifth inning, Cleary taking his place, but he fared little better than his predecessor, The score: Lackawannas0 3 6 0 4 0 5 0-18 Olyphant Browns ..2 0 0 0 0 1 0 6-9

"BOBBY" DOBBS IS WILLING.

Says He Would Accept the Challenge of Martin Judge.

Bobby Dobbs, who has been in this city since last Thursday night, when he obtained a decision over Hugh Mc-Winters in a 20-round bout at Music Hall, announces his willingness to meet Martin Judge, of Philadelphia. Judge, through his manager, H. W. Schlicter, of the Philadelphia Item, challenged the winner of the Dobbs-McWinters event.

Scranton sports are at a loss to know the sincerity of the Judge challenge, inasmuch as he proposes to go against one of the best lightweights in the world and that, too, when Judge is appearing in preliminary events as he did at Philadelphia last night. However, if Judge really wants a match he may accommodated. The American Sporting club is now considering his proposition.
