A bicycle on the sidewalk stealing up behind you like a malignant ghost is bad enough, but it has only two wheels to wipe grease off on your skirts as it passes, while a baby carriage has four and is sure to run over your toes besides, causing you to jump around like a lunatic, owing to its aimless method locomotion. There is one thing about a bicycle, it always seems to have a definite aim and if you're a pedestrian anywhere in the vicinity you're reasonably convinced that it's

BOARD OF CONTROL

Members Made All Kinds of Charges Against One Another.

DIFFICULT TO MAINTAIN ORDER

Chairman Jennings Had to Say Some Harsh Things to Get a Semblance of Order -- Frank Littell Resigns His Position as a Member of the Faculty of the High School -- Contracts for Supplies Are Awarded as Recommended By Committee.

To one who doesn't care much about the reputation of the city of Scranton last night's session of the board of control would doubtless be very entertain-It would be painful to anyone ing. who might fear that the municipality would be judged from the actions of some of the men who compose what is supposed to be a body of its representative citizens. So turbulent did the meeting become at one time that President Jennings in great indignation told them that they were not only unparliamentary but ungentlemanly, and warned them in tones filled with meaning against further disorder and particularly personalities.

The worst offender was Mr. Notz, of the Nineteenth, who was on his feet nearly all the time, frequently speaking in a wandering and unintelligible manner. The other members who participated either of their own will or from being provoked into the discuswere not guilty of meaningless mouthings, but many of them were almost as bad as Notz in their person-

The report of the building committee recommending the appointment of William Philbin in place of John Conry, as janitor of No. 2 building in the Twelfth ward provoked a defense of the present incumbent by Mr. Gibbons and a personal onslaught on the latter by Mr. Walsh, the controller who seeks to remove Conry. Insinuations and counter-insinuations led to the disclosure that Philbin, the nomiee, is a brother-in-law of Controller Walsh, and Controller Walsh got back at Mr. Gibbons, who made the expose, by saying that Conry was one of Gibons' ward heelers.

WANTED CONRY REMOVED. Controller Walsh said he wanted onry removed because he has been working in the steel mill instead of attending to the school, one consequence of which was the destruction of eighteen windows, during the vacation time. The accused janitor was given the privilege of the floor and said that the wanna avenue, is visiting friends at fact that Controller Walsh had personally recommended a raise in his salary should be sufficient evidence of whether or not the accusation was justifiable coming from Mr. Walsh. He further said that Mr. Walsh had given him permission to work in the steel mill, saying he might have his wife and daughters attend to the school. The windows would never have been broken if Mr. Walsh had not had the screens taken down. He wound up by saying that when he reported broken windows to Mr. Walsh the latter said: "I wish to ---- they were all broken; they are too small, any-Mr. Walsh denied these two latter wife, who is returning from a trip to statements. He also said he was satisfied with Conry's work but was opposed to his engaging in another business. The matter was referred to committee.

Bids for a fence at No. 19 school and a stone wall at No. 23 provoked another tilt of which the above is a fair sample. Mr. Carson complained that Mr. Davis had awarded the contracts without consulting the other members of ter of Mr. W. C. Bronson, of Bronson & out consulting the other members of Talman, have been in this city for a few the committee, Mr. Davis said Mr. Carson was mistaken and also some other things. Mr. Gibbons said Mr. Carson was lazy and neglectful. Mr. Carson said things were going in a high handed manner and so on. There were several such scenes during the course of the meeting, but they would be tiresome to relate in detail.

The resignation of Miss Emily Evans (now Mrs. E. E. Robathan) from the Grammer A department, of No. 14, and of Frank D. Littell, professor of mathematics at the high school were received and were referred to com-

MATTER OF APPOINTMENTS. Mr. Schiefer wanted to have C. B Derman appointed music teacher forthwith, but a majority sent it to committee. Mr. Notz wanted a Miss Morse, of Brooklyn, named as drawing instructor but Chairman Jennings ruled the motion out of order on the ground that the matter was before the high and training school committee.

The teachers committee made the following report which was approved without discussion.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 23, 1897. The teachers' committee present the following report:
We recommend that the resignation of Miss Ida Cahoon, No. 21, be accepted, that Miss Cora Farnham be transferred to intermediate B grade, and that Miss May Ackerley be appointed to intermediate grade, No. 21. That the resignation of Miss Helen Hurbutt be accepted, and that Miss Edna Fowler be appointed to the vacant posiion, primary B. No. 28.

That Miss Bessle Duval be appointed to No. 28. That Miss Lika Frable be appointed to econdary primary A grade, No. 10. That Miss Anna C. Malia take the grade in No. 10 next to Mr. Kettrick, and that Miss Margaret Durkin, No. 3, be trans-ferred to that grade in No. 10 next to that of Miss Malia.

That Miss Mame Thomas be appointed to primary B, No. 25.

That Miss Nellie Benjamin, of No. 25, who has been away from school during the past year on leave of absence, be transferred to No. 25, intermediate C That Miss Hannah M. Williams, No. 25 transferred from primary B to primary C grade. The following report of the supply emmittee on the bids received at the last meeting was likewise unanimously approved:

CONTRACTS AWARDED. Scranton, Fa., Aug. 23, 1897. The supply committee recommend that the following contracts for supplies for the ensuing year be awarded, the parties named being the lowest bidders, for the rticles named; To T. E. Price—100 reams foolscap per, $75; 100 reams letter heads, $75; 50

reams commercial note, $22.50; 10 dozen pointers, $10. To Reynolds Bros .- 25,000 pencil pads as per advertisement and bid, $403.75; 300 gross Waltham's white crayon, $18.15; 120 gallons Barnes' ink, $39.60; 600 gross Estergailons Barnes ink, $53.00; 600 gross Exter-brook's pens, $399.40; 25 boxes rubbor bands, $2.25; 29 gross teachers' lead pen-cils, Dixon's cabinet, $39. To H. H. Beidleman—500 gross pupils' lend pencils, Eagle 150, $39.

To Peters, York & Co.—30 dozen blackboard erasers. $13; 200 packages envelopes No. 6 XX white, $3.75; 4 dozen thermomters, $3.60

The building committee was directed to contract with Fred Mursch for the erection of a fence around No. 10 school. Mr. Notz tried to have the salary of the high school janitor, Mr. Steel, made uniform the year around instead of cutting his July salary from $135 to $60 a month. It was referred to sufficient money to pay the bills passed last night. The text book committee recommended the purchase of a lot of books, suggested by the superintendent and then recommendation was adopted. Adjournment was made until next Mon-

MAHON AND LITTLE DISCHARGED.

Fine Imposed Upon the Editor Refunded by Alderman Millar. James J. Mahon, business manager of the Scrantonian, who was arrested by

Chief of Police Robling Sunday, was discharged by Alderman Millar yesterday and the fines collected from Richard Little, editor, were refunded and he proceedings quashed Mahon said yesterday that he thought he had good grounds for an action for damages in trespass against Chief Rob-

As stated in The Tribune yesterday when Mahon was arrested he called in the services of Attorney James Mahon. The latter at once raised the point that the arrests were illegal, that the law countenances arrests on Sunday for high treason, felony and breach of the peace only. Chief Robling thought that the "crying of papers on the public streets," would cover Little and Mahon's alleged offence, but nothing was submitted to Alderman Millar which proved that the arrested men had cried their papers. "They were simply dis-tributing them," said Alderman Millar vesterday. He therefore discharged Mahon and gave a check to Little for the costs collected Sunday.

Mahon did not directly say yesterday that he would bring action against Chief Robling. He attributes the cause of the prosecution to rival Sunday news paper proprietors.

Man Named Gorsuch Arrested Here for Raising Checks.

Chief of Police Frank Robling, jr. yesterday arrested a man named Goruch, who is wanted in Harrisburg for forgery. The arrest was made at the Hotel Jermyn, where Gorsuch had engaged a room, Word was received here Saturday to watch for Gorsuch who, it was known, had left for this

The information received from Chief Weston, of Harrisburg, over the long distance telephone, was that Gorsuch had raised $4 checks to $40 and $5 checks to $50. He had left word with his friends to address him at the Hotel Jermyn. Gorsuch was missed at the station, but shortly after noon yesterday he was seen at the Hotel Jermyn. Chief Robling arrested him and took the prisoner to the station house. Gorsuch showed much nervousness, but was surprised at his arrest.

He disclaimed any knowledge of the crime with which he is charged. Gorsuch is well dressed and seems to have plenty of money. He was very fearful that the news of his arrest would reach his wife who, he says, is now confined to a Philadelphia hospital. Chief Robling received a dispatch from Harrisburg late yesterday afternoon informing him that an officer would leave at 8 o'clock this morning to take charge of the prisoner.

CASE WAS DISMISSED.

An Ex-Mayor Arraigned for Selling

Liquor on Sunday. Ex-Mayor Matthew Loftus was discharged by Alderman Millar yesterday afternoon on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday, preferred by John Burrows. The hearing had been postponed from Saturday afternoon.

At 4.30 o'clock Mr. Loftus arrived and the case began. Burrows gave very specific testimony. He had a note book from which he was able to swear that he with others had purchased beer and whiskey in Loftus' hotel at Moosic May 9, 16, and 23; June 6, 13, and 20. It was brought out that Burrows' crusade against Loftus was due to a former suit before Alderman Howe when Loftus sued for board. Alderman Millar dismissed the case.

He Lived Alone and Yesterday He Decided to Apply for Admission to the West Side Hospital -- While Walking to the Hospital Entrance He Was Overcome and Expired Before Medical Assistance Arrived. Little Known of Mis History.

Anton Hartman, of Hampton street, died suddenly while seeking admission to the West Side hospital yesterday. Mr. Hartman was a painter and has no family. He had been alling for several days and received treatment by a West Side physician. Yesterday he determined to go to the hospital, eing alone at his house.

While walking up to the hospital entrance an attack came upon him and though Janitor Evans went to his assistance. Hartman expired before medical aid could be administered. Pleuritic-pneumonia was given as the cause of illness and consequent death by the hospital physicians.

The dead man- has relatives here. Funeral Director Wymbs will take the remains in charge for burial, Mr. Hartman's neighbors know but little about him, he having been rather refeept, and he was considered eccentric. He, however, was engaged at his usual employment, that of painting, until being taken ill.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION MEETING.

Miners Made to the Delegates. At a meeting of the Central Labor union last night a committee of three was appointed to meet a similar com-mittee from the building trades council to arrange for a parade on Monday, Sept. 6, Labor Day. The parade will be followed by a picnic and mass meeting at Laurel Hill park, which will be under the auspices of the Central Labor union. The union has decided to have an official organ and at last night's meeting arrangements were made with P. G. Moran, of the Scranton Newspaper union, for publishing it. The paper is to be managed by a board of directors. Two new organizations were admitted to the union last night, the Bakers' and Laundry Workers' unions.

Representatives of the Pittsburg strikers delivered addresses and afterwards the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the Central Labor union of Scranton call the attention of the business men and others of the city of Scran-ton to the fact that there are thousands of starving men, women and children in the western part of this state who are urgently in need of aid.
