LYNCHING WAS SUGGESTED.

Anthony Koncinski's Offense Was Severely Frowned Upon.

An exhibition of a dangerous cooking knife and the threat "I cut de heart out year body" is the alleged offense of Anthony Koncinski who resides at Hampton and Twelfth streets. Saturday evening boys coming along Hampton street saw some feet projecting beyond the window sill in the second story of the house in which Anthony Koncinski resides. A shower of gravel and stones caused the owners of the pedal extremities to hastily withdraw them.

Later, when Steve Evans, son of Anthony Koncinski, was passing the dwelling, he was suddenly seized and drawn into the hallway of the house and made a prisoner. Neighbors, who witnessed the act, quickly secured his release. The boy's father had a warrant sworn out against Anthony Koncinski, charging assault and battery. Mr. Evans happened to pass the dwelling place yesterday and the threat was made to him. At the hearing before Alderman Moses, Koncinski was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court for his double offense. During the hearing some excitable person suggested lynching.

TOURISTS' CLUB ORGANIZED.

Two Tourists' clubs have been organized here. The membership of the clubs comprises members of Hyde Park Father Mathew and St. Paul's Pioneer corps. The object of each club is to be prepared for the attending of the National Catholic Total Abstinence union convention at Boston next year. Considerable enthusiasm has been displayed and the "boys" are in earnest. Father Mathew's Tourist club have selected the following officers: Patrick Murray, chairman; Thomas Fleming, secretary; John R. Crowley, Jr., treasurer. St. Paul's Tourist club will have the following officers: Chairman, P. F. McCoy; T. W. Earley, secretary. Their organization is temporary, but will be made permanent later. This club expects to have a quartette and give party and to give an exhibition drill.

TWO NARROW ESCAPES.

Sol Jones, of Lumber street, a miner at the Central mines, had two narrow escapes from death or serious injury last evening. He is employed on the night shift and about an hour after going to work met with his accident. While engaged in "pulling" down top coal, a pocket of gas was ignited by his lamp and in jumping down off his "horse" was thrown bodily upon a huge slab of rock. He struck with all his weight upon his abdomen and was rendered breathless. He escaped burning by gas and was nearly killed by the fall. Mr. Jones was removed to his home and Dr. J. J. Roberts called. So far no symptoms of internal injuries are apparent.

AN ENJOYABLE RECEPTION.

Mrs. Bradbury, of Lafayette street, tendered her daughter, Mrs. David Bradshaw, a reception on Saturday evening. The event was in honor of the daughter's recent marriage to David Bradshaw, formerly of this side, but now residing at Washington, N. J.

Mrs. Bella Davis and Miss Sadie Harris assisted in receiving. The customary diversions were enjoyed and a pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Bradshaw was the recipient of many gifts. The guests were: Misses Mary Davis, Belinda Dean, Alice Moran, Mary Dean, Myrtle Hall, Bertha Bradbury, Lulu Evans, Jennie Thomas, Hannah Edwards, Margaret Morris, Lizzie Gosner, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Margaret Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury, Joseph Dean, Llewellyn Dean, Charles Biddleman, John Jacobs, Will Hall, Will Burschell, Lloyd Schoonover, Jacob Coleman.

ARE WELL REPRESENTED.

The West Scranton camps of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will be ably represented at the semi-centennial celebration of the Order, being held at Reading this week. It is a significant event in the history of the order and marks fifty years of upward progress of the order since its birth at Philadelphia in 1847. The national body is holding its sessions there and also the state body and the Ladies' branch of the Patriotic Order of True Americans. After the business of all is transacted the crowning event will be fittingly celebrated. Reading is prepared en masse to entertain her 25,000 guests for she had been getting ready for over two years. Camp No. 178 will be represented by Prof. D. W. Phillips, ex-district president of the Lackawanna Western district; Alfred Twining, of the Scranton Times and Joseph J. Green. Camp No. 233 sends John S. Harris and David J. Davies. Mr. Davies will enter the patriotic speech contest. He has already won one such contest, being a victor at Erie in 1895. Mr. Randolph Jones, state vice-president and Mrs. Robert Eldred. The other camps of the city and vicinity are also well represented.

HOLBERT-POLHAMUS WEDDINGS.

Miss Etta Holbert and Abraham Polhamus, both of this side, were united in marriage at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the parsonage of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, Rev. J. B. Sweet, performed the ceremony. Both were unattended and left immediately upon a wedding trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Polhamus are both well known young people and their marriage will be a surprise to their many friends.

OBITUARY.

John A. Hutchins, a popular and esteemed resident of Wyoming, died at his home at 8 o'clock yesterday morning from hemorrhage of the stomach due to ulceration. He was taken ill on Saturday afternoon, when Dr. Hays was called in and although the best of medical attendance was given his life could not be prolonged. Mr. Hutchins was born in Wyoming July 1, 1848, and was the son of Thomas and Martha Hutchins, who were of English nationality. In 1873 Mr. Hutchins was married to Mary J. Shoemaker and this happy union resulted in the birth of six children, three boys and three girls, all of whom are now living. In Mr. Hutchins' young manhood he was associated with his father in the manufacture of terra cotta ware and after the death of his father he became sole proprietor of the works which have been located on a large and prosperous business for a number of years. Mr. Hutchins was also a coal operator of some extent, he being the owner and manager of the "Wyoming Standard" coal horough. Mr. Hutchins had a large circle of friends throughout the county and elsewhere who will be greatly surprised to hear of his death. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Free and Accepted Masons and the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. In politics he was a sound Democrat, although he never held any prominent political office he was always interested in politics. As a business man he was a thoroughly competent and most competent in his town. The announcement of his funeral will be made later.

Miss Ann Williams succumbed to a paralytic stroke yesterday morning which came upon her on Saturday morning while visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Davis, of Corbett avenue, notice of which appeared in yesterday's issue of this paper. The afflicted lady never recovered consciousness and was surrounded by a group of mourning friends. The deceased was nearly 70 years of age and has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. Giles Giles, of Eyon street, since coming here four years ago from her native home at Glanoganshire, South Wales. It was customary on her part to frequently visit her daughter, Mrs. Davis, at Bellevue, and it was while there that the attack which resulted in death came upon her. The surviving members of the family are the two daughters, Mrs. Giles and Mrs. Davis. The funeral services will occur from the home on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and Rev. J. T. Morris, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, will officiate. The deceased was a member of the First Welsh Baptist church. Interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

Margaret, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams, of 17 South Everett avenue, died yesterday after a short illness. The parents are deeply bereaved by their loss. Her funeral will occur tomorrow from the parental home and interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Penser, of Cedar avenue, are home from Elmira, where they visited relatives.

Mrs. James Best and Mrs. Fred Welch, of Cedar avenue, are home from a ten days' stay at Rockaway Beach.

He Gives His Side of the Trouble at Binghamton.

Frank Charlucci, who has the contract for supplying the stone used in the construction of the county court house has issued an open letter in which he replies to the various charges which have been made in regard to the construction of the county building. He pleads for fair treatment from citizens, and says that he is willing to do anything in his power to get the work. The men back of the trouble, he says, are union stone cutters. "I have no row with unions. It is of no more consequence than it would be to learn that they were Odd Fellows, Masons or members of the I. O. O. F."

The Schools Will Open

In a couple of weeks, when new dresses and all the other paraphernalia will be wanted by the children. Knowing well that this means much buying of Children's Dress Goods, we've resolved to make a special bid for the lion's share of this year's trade, by offering at greatly reduced prices all the latest textile productions for the coming fall trade.

This Sale Begins Tuesday,

August 24th, and continues for ten days. Mothers who are compelled to make the most of limited incomes will find in this sale an opportunity for great saving of cost, without any sacrifice of style.
