WEDDING AND RECEPTION.

The wedding of Miss Lavinla Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Passmore, of Park street, and Evan Thomas was solemnized on Wednesday evening at their home by the Rev Charles Fessenden, rector of St. James church, Jermyn. The parlor was decorated in a charming manner with flowers and evergreens. A beautiful arch had been constructed, from which was suspended a floral horse shoe. The bride and her maid, Miss R. Helen Passmore, were attired in gowns of brown francaise, with pearl and satin trimmings. The groom was attended by his brother, William E. Thomas. A reception followed, consisting of relatives and immediate friends. The popular young people will receive their friends at their new home, 116 Park

CARBONDALE ATHLETIC CLUB.

A boxing tournament at the Carbondale Athletic club rooms in the Keystone block on Wednesday evening was attended by a large number of sporting men and others interested. There was a three-round bout between Reddy Connoly, of Philadelphia, and Jersey Gordon, of Scranton. The ten-round bout between Owen Thomas, of Wilson Creek, and John Kinney, of Simpson, ended in a draw, Thomas being heavier than his copponent by twenty-five pounds, while more effective sparring was done by Kinney.

INJURED IN THE MINES.

Patrick Brennan, a well-known and popular young man of this tity, was seriously injured yesterday morning in the Powderly mine. Shortly after he began work, while loading a car, a mass of rock, in weight about eight hundred pounds, fell, striking him on the back. The blow was fortunately directed in such a manner that he was not crushed, though he received serious injuries. Mr. Brennan had resumed work at the mine quite recently, after a long vacation and visit to Ireland.

VISITORS FROM BINGHAMTON.

Several gentlemen who represent the Joseph Laurer brewing company, of Binghamton, were visitors in this city yesterday, as guests of J. F. McDonald, of this city, their representative. The guests were as follows: John Ehreshman, treasurer; J. O. Hora, secretary; A. Garvey, city agent; Thomas F. Mullaney, head bookkeeper, and Thomas Harold, proprietor of the Exchange hotel. Mayfield and Archbald base ball eams played at Farview yesterday. At the end of the sixth inning the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of Mayfield, the Archbald players saw a technical point to kick on, and they were very glad to put an end to the game. No doubt they will not play with Mayfield again.

ARCHBALD.

At 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Miss Ella Roche and James O'Rourke, the well-known postmaster of this borough, were married in St. Thomas church. Rev. T. J. Comerford performed the ceremony in the presence of many of the friends of the couple. The bride were a gown of fawn colared albatross trimmed with chiffon Mrs. Mary Collins, of Brooklyn street, and ribbon, and carried an elegantly bound prayer book. She was attended by Miss Mary Kielty, who were old rese albatross, beautifully trimmed. groom and groomsman, John Collins, of Scranton, wore black. After the ceremony the party enjoyed a short drive, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T. J. Kielty, on the public square. Here a bounteous supper was served to a large number of invited guests and several hours were spent in various kinds of enjoyment. The house was bril-Hantly illuminated and Gilroy's orchestra furnished music for the dance. Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were: Mrs. Roche and Mrs. Wolfe, of Wellsville, N. Y.; Misses Kate and Maggie Mahon and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Flaherty, of Scranton. The wedded couple are well and favorably known. Mrs. O'Rourke came here from New York state about five years ago and for the past year she has been an assistant to the postmaster. She is an amiable young lady, who by uniform courtesy and strict attention to business has won the respect and esteem of an extensive circle of friends. Mr. O'Rourke having long lived here, is well known. He has been quite prominently identified with Democratic politics, and has served a term as member of the county committee. He has also creditably filled local offices and is at present the postmaster of this place. The many friends of the wedded couple will wish them happiness in journeying through life.

FOUND HIS WIFE'S BODY.

She Had Hanged Herself in the Cook House.

Bridgeton, N. J., Aug. 26.—The sight of his wife's body hanging in the cook house caused Farmer John Richards last evening to reel, stagger and nearly evening to reel, stagger and nearly swoon. Recovering, he grasped a knife and cut the rope, which, tied in a noose, around the woman's neck, ran to a beam overhead. Hastily he carried the body overhead. Hastily he carried the body into the house and tried to restore animation, but although the face was still warm, life was extinct, and his efforts were in vain. Mr. and Mrs. Richards and their two interesting children live near Deerfield, and were, to all appearances, a happy contented family. Mrs. Richards, who was 35 years old, had never seemed more cheerful than yesterday. In the ever while but one of their children wa home and he in bed, she had care planned her suicide. A note writte lead pencil was left by her, but it th little light on the cause for the tras only referring vaguely to getting a from "this trouble." It hade her hand good-bye in the most affection terms, saying that he had been a husband to her. Mrs. Richards had extremely nervous since the death o was killed, but no other cause e the effect of this upon her is know her suicide.

and the Jobbers Two More.

Chicago, III., Aug. 26.-Window glass has gone up seven per cent. in price to the public. The Jobbers' association met today and were officially notified by the manufacturers' combine, which was completed here yesterday, that the price to them was raised five per cent. The jobbers promptly raised this two per cent., claiming the five per cent. advance did not restore to them the proper margin of profit. The new rates of discount under the increase are sixty and twenty per cent. The increase af-fects all grades of window glass.
