THREE BOOTBLACKS.

Insulted Young Ladies on Lackawanna Avenue--A Citizen Interfered with the Arrest.

Three small bootblacks were guilty of a brazen assault on two young ladies last evening on Lackawanna avenue, near Wyoming avenue. The three escaped, but it was necessary for Patrolman Jöhler to look up a bicyclist, H. W. Smith, for interfering. The young ladies were waiting for a West Side street car when the bootblacks came along. They began to use indecent language and one of the young ladies, Miss Davis, asked the boys to desist. The fellow went up to her and deliberately slapped her on the face. Miss Davis called Patrolman Jöhler, at which the boys started on a run down Lackawanna avenue. The policeman captured one boy in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yard. The young prisoner was being escorted up the avenue to the police station when a young man riding a bicycle interfered. He commanded the policeman to release the boy. Patrolman Jöhler quietly advised him to attend to his own affairs. "I'm an American citizen," yelled back the bicyclist and commanded you to release that boy. The boy was released and in his stead Patrolman Jöhler arrested the officious interferer. At the police station he gave his name as H. W. Smith and his occupation a barber.

REV. MR. BIRD CRITICISED.

He Had an Amendment to the United Christians' Declarations.

A half-dozen persons responded to Dr. J. C. Bateson's call for a meeting last night in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian association building to organize a United Christian society. Dr. Bateson spoke at length of the great field for such a society as he proposed. Rev. Levi Bird, pastor of the People's Prohibition Christian church, spoke on the subject, but not altogether hopefully. He said that such projects have failed before and he criticized the constitution and by-laws prepared by Dr. Bateson. Mr. Bird believed that the society should incorporate something about the great reform movements of the day. The meeting adjourned without any definite results. Another meeting will be held.

OPENING OF THE LYCEUM.

Under the great financial depression in New York just passed, it is asserted, the average weekly receipts of the piece amounted to some $9,000. It is intended to make people laugh. The box office is open this morning and from the advance sale of seats the management predicts an artistic and financial success for the Lyceum's opening attraction.

INVESTIGATION IS TO BE RESUMED

Auditor Hogan Changes His Mind About the Lackawanna Lexow.

WILL HEAR MORE TESTIMONY

When the Investigation Came to an End Last Monday Taxpayers of the Township Threatened to Take Legal Steps to Compel the Auditor to Proceed with the Investigation. Public Sentiment Won Mr. Hogan Over.

The investigation into the manner in which the school board of Lackawanna township which served from June 1, 1896, until June 1, 1897, conducted its affairs is to be resumed by the township auditors. Several sessions of the board of auditors sitting as an investigating commission were held, but the evidence adduced was not of a nature to convince the auditors that anything very criminal had been done by the school directors and at a meeting on Aug. 17, Auditor Michael Hogan declared that the investigation ought to come to an end. It was consuming a lot of valuable time, he said, and was unearthing nothing tangible. He could not afford to waste any more time on it, for he was convinced it would terminate in a farcical manner.

Mr. Hogan's position was not concurred in by the other auditors, C. W. Gallagher and James Mangan, who thought it best to hear more evidence. At a meeting of the investigating commission last Monday Auditor Gallagher thought the evidence being offered very trivial and asked Attorney George M. Watson, who represented a number of property owners, if he had any more important testimony to offer. Mr. Watson said he had, but refused to outline it, and the commission thereupon adjourned permanently. Mr. Gallagher taking Auditor Hogan's view of the situation.

Since then there has been talk among the taxpayers of taking legal steps to compel the auditors to continue the investigation. In compliance with public sentiment expressed in that and other ways, Auditor Hogan last night served notice on the other auditors that he desired to have the investigation resumed. As Auditor Mangan has all along wanted to hear all of the testimony to be offered, a majority now favors a continuance of the investigation. Another meeting of the board will probably be held in a few days and Mr. Watson can present the evidence he has in waiting.

STATE REPUBLICAN LEAGUES.

Scranton Will Be Well Represented at Williamsport Sept. 4-9.

A great deal of interest is being taken by the leading Republicans in this section in the coming convention of the State League of Republican clubs to be held at Williamsport on September 4 and 5. It will be the opening gun in the campaign of the state and many speakers of national reputation, including Senator Wellington, of Maryland; President Crawford, of the National League; President Colvin, of the New York league; Hon. John M. Thurston, Hon. J. B. Foraker, Hon. Lyman J. Gage, secretary of the treasury, are expected to be present. President Sobel has just sent out a ringing appeal to all the league clubs urging them to pay the dues of $10 to Treasurer Mahlon D. Young, of Philadelphia, on or before September 1, and to elect delegates to attend the convention.

It is understood that nearly all of the leading Republican clubs of this section will be represented, and that a large party including Judge Archbold, Postmaster Ripple, Alderman Millar, Major Everett Warren, T. F. Penman, John R. Jones, Milton W. Lowry, A. J. Colburn, Jr., C. E. Pryor, John H. Thomas, E. E. B. Mearns, W. S. Mears, T. P. Daniels, Fred W. Pfeiffer, Hon. John R. Farr, and Hon. A. T. Connell will leave here on the afternoon of the 7th, by way of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad.

WASILEWSKI IS RELEASED.

Was in No Way Responsible for the Death of Windergras. Anton Wasilewski, one of the three men charged with causing the death of Albert Windergras, at Fell, August 18, was released from custody yesterday on a habeas corpus proceeding, instituted by his attorneys, O'Brien & Kelly. It appears now from evidence gathered by County Detective Leyshak that Windergras' death was the result of an accident and that Wasilewski even had nothing to do with the accident. The other two defendants, Alex. Paschalski and Frank Yarkantch, were engaged in a struggle and Wasilewski and Windergras attempted to separate them. In the tussling about, Windergras fell or was shoved down, and in falling his head struck against the corner of a square-backed chair, inflicting a fatal fracture of the skull. The commonwealth offered no objection to Wasilewski's release, and it is quite likely that involuntary manslaughter will be the most serious charge that Paschalski and Yarkantch will have to meet.

SILK MILL EMPLOYEES' STRIKE.

Girls at Simpson's Go Out for an Increase in Wages. About half of the 100 girls employed at Simpson's silk mill, near the city line, on Cedar avenue, have gone out on a strike for higher wages. They claim they are doing work for $3.50 and $4 a week for which other mills pay from $7 to $12 a week. They want $1 a day, and say they will not go back for less.

Superintendent Butler agreed to lay the matter before John Simpson, the chief owner of the mill, when he returns from England, where he is spending the summer, but as the strikers refused to go back unless they were allowed a raise of 50 cents a week in the interim, efforts at a compromise were suspended. The mill is working.
