FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hughes Were Bldden Adicu by a Large Party of Their Friends.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hughes, of Division street, was brilliantly lighted and the lawn artistically decorated with Chinese lanterns last evening on the occasion of the farewell reception tendered them by the members of Plymouth church congregation and choir.

The evening was spent in enjoying vocal and musical selections, recitations and pleasant conversation, Later, light refreshments were served. The programme of exercises which were carried out consisted of vocal solos by Misses Lily Joseph, Sophia Haak, New York city; Sadie Edwards and Mrs. Lewis A. Howell. Tallie Evans, Gomer Reese, John Phillips, David Hughes and John Thomas. Miss Sadie Edwards rendered a well-executed plano solo. The church choir sang several pleasing selections and Tallie Evans and party and the quartette of church culture class also entertained with appropriate selections. Recitations were given by John R. George, Greenwood; John H. Thomas and Charles Cadwgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, after a resi-dence here of over thirty years, depart shortly to reside at Easton, Pa. Edward, their only son, expects to enter Lafayette college the coming term for a five-year course, he having been graduated from the Scranton High school and Bloomsburg State Normal school

Mrs. Hughes has done much in connection with the ladies' societies of the church, and Mr. Hughes has always taken an active part in church work, being a trustee, and treasurer of the board of trustees. There were about 250 guests and friends present last evening to express their regrets and wish them happiness in their new home. Charles Blume.

INJURED AT TRIPP'S SLOPE.

William Morgan, of Jackson street, was received at the West Side hospital yesterday suffering from painful injuries. He is employed as a miner at the Tripp slope, and was struck by the cable. His injuries are not serious, consisting of a few cuts and some bruises. He, however, narrowly escaped having his skull fractured.

Griffith James, a young man residing with his parents on Louth Main avenue, and employed in the Central mines as a driver, was severely injured on Thursday by being kicked in the chest by a mule. The injured lad was removed to his home and medical aid summoned.
