FUNERAL OF CHARLES AVERY.

The funeral services of Charles Avery were held at his late residence on Garfield avenue, Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. B. Grov, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. T. E. Jepson, officiated. A quartet, composed of Mrs. W. R. Moon, Mrs. George Benton, F. Clarke and Raymond Hockenberry rendered several selections. There were a number of beautiful floral pieces from friends, the principal ones being two pillows with "Father" and "Uncle" in immortal letters. The pallbearers were T. J. Robinson, T. R. Durfee, William Brokenshire, T. F. Pierce, Abner Arney and E. M. Peck. Interment was made in Brookside cemetery. Among those from out of town were: John L. Avery and Theron E. Moon and family, of Jersey; Mrs. Emmeline Potter and Miss Crystal Dalrymple, of Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. James Stone and Lester Stone and family, of Waverly, Pa.; Silas Moon, of Easton; Henry Moon, of Scranton; John E. Moon and William C. Scott, and Mrs. Charles Bliss, of Susquehanna.

MISSIONARY SERVICE.

The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor, connected with the Baptist church, offered an interesting order of service at the church yesterday morning, as follows: Hymn, "From Greenland's icy Mountains," responsive reading, conducted by the president, Arthur Lewsey; scripture reading, Miss Daisy Millham; notices, Mrs. Lewsey; presentation of work, Daisy Millham; quartette, "Send the Word," paper, "India," Miss Ann Dunstan; paper, "People of India," Miss Cora Estabrook; recitation, Miss Edith Haskins; paper, "Religions of India," Miss Carrie Geary; duet, "He Was Not Willing that Any Should Perish," Misses Jones and Watkins.

CENTURY CLUB COURSE.

The New Century club, of this city, a literary organization, composed of a number of prominent ladies, have decided to conduct a series of concerts and entertaining lectures this winter, which will include some of the best talent in the country, among whom will be Col. L. P. Connelley, Arthur Black, the Park sisters, and others. A canvas will be made of the town next week in order to secure subscribers at the remarkably low sum of one dollar and fifty cents for the whole year. The ladies deserve great credit for planning before the people such a high-class line of entertainers and they should receive hearty support in their undertaking.

RACES AT ANTHRACITE PARK.

An interesting programme of events will be arranged for Labor day at Anthracite park, and some interesting sport will attract a crowd. A band of music will be present, and the events will be held on the grounds. Among the events are the following: Three-minute one-mile heats, best 3 in 5; purse, $100. One-half mile bicycle race, free for all; prize, $100. Running race, 150 yds., $100. Free-for-all, purse, $150. One mile heats, best 3 in 5. REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

In pursuance of a resolution of the Republican County Committee adopted at a regular meeting held on Saturday, August 21, 1897, the county convention will be held on Tuesday, the 7th day of September, A. D. 1897, at 10 a. m., in the Court House, Scranton, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices to be voted for at the next general election, on Tuesday, November 2, 1897, to wit: One candidate for Sheriff. One candidate for Prothonotary. One candidate for Clerk of the Courts. One candidate for District Attorney. One candidate for Recorder of Deeds. One candidate for Justice of the Peace. One candidate for Jury Commissioner. Vigilance committees will hold delegate elections on Saturday, September 4, A. D. 1897, between 8 and 4 p. m. They will give at least two days' public notice of the time and place for holding said elections. Each election district shall elect at said delegate elections two qualified persons to serve as vigilance committees for one year, whose names shall be certified on the credentials of delegates to the county convention. The representation of delegates to the said county convention is based upon the vote cast at the last preceding State election for the county, to wit: 1894, Republican, 10,000; Democratic, 10,000. Under this rule several districts are entitled to representation as follows, to wit:
