THREE STRAIGHT.

For the Stars, but Very Crooked for Scranton---Miners Played a Poor Game Vesterday.

The Stars made it three straight yesterday. They took another fall out of the Miners in a game that somewhat resembled the two preceding contests in that the home team were outpointed everywhere.

Griffin's men were never able to connect with the ball, the sixth inning excepted, when three singles and a base on balls netted two runs. In that inning three of the five hits off Lampe were made. The eleven hits recorded against Gillon in the detailed score are not a fair indication of Gillon's pitching, as three hits were made in the fourth inning, after a misplay by Griffin, which made four runs possible, one was hit past Sullivan's position when that player was covering second and another was stopped by Massey, who could not field it, as Gillon failed to cover first. So of the eleven hits by the Stars, six were of the legitimate variety and the remainder should only be recorded in the nowhere column.

A base on balls to Walters and Bon-then until the sixth it was a case of walk to the plate and back to the bench again, excepting the fourth, when Schiebeck made a wild throw on a difficul chance, and the fifth, when a base on balls was followed by two force the fourth and stole second and with one out O'Brien singled Garry home. Legotte hit a fly to right field, which 2.; White, 2; McGann, McHale, Freeman, Griffin should have caught and doubled Fuller, Green, Brouthers, Rogers, Two-O'Brien at first, but Sandy became base hits-McGann, Smith, Wagner, Nortwisted on the direction of the ball, which he let pass him, and O'Brien scored and Lezotte went to third on the single and the error. Ryan's single and Earl's three-base hit brought in the last two of the four runs.

the fifth on Bill Eagan's two-baser, Sullivan's wild throw, his must, O'Brien's bunt and Bonner's error on the latter's steal.

The Miners' two final tailles in the sixth were made on a walk to Massey, singles by Sullivan and Griffin and Eagan's force hit, which forced Griffin at second. On account of Peter's lame ankle, Griffin took his place at second and tried to make third on Maguire's liner to center, Garry made a good throw to third and Sandy slid for the base. Smith made a pass at him and did not touch him by a foot, but Smith pulled off his glove and started for the bench. The bluff worked, for O'Neill called Griffin out.

The Stars chalked up three in the ninth on Bill Eagan's grounder to Massey and which was recorded as a hit on account of Gillon's failure to cover the bag, a walk to Garry, Smith's hitby-pitcher, O'Brien's force hit and steal Gilboy, If 5 and Gillon's wild throw to first,

In the final half Maguire singled and with two out Boyd walked, Gunson was sent to bat in place of Gillon, but hit a fly to Schlebeck.
