Celebration of the One Hundred and First Anniversary of the Coming of to look after a car wrecked on the ice the Reynolds Family to This Region

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Fabtoryville, Sept. 1 .- Just one hundred and one years ago four intrepld white men came to this country and decided to brain the savages and wild beasts of the forests (for this section of the country was uncivilized then); when night was made hideous by the howling of wolves and the screaming of the panther, when the whiz of an arrow from the bow of an Indian nade the hair of the white man stand up straight, as it passed in close proximity, while he was tilling the soil. Such were the dangers and hardships that the frontiersmen had to pass through, when these three brothers, George, Solomon and Phineas Reynolds, and their father, Rabest, set-tled on different tracts of land in this locality, built their houses or huts of logs with bark for the roof and a bearskin for a door. This was the introduction and beginning of the now prosperous and noted Reynolds family into this country.

Today the many descendants of these forefathers met in the grove on the campus of Keystone academy and in commemoration of the dead, celebrated the one hundred and first anniversary of their settling in this country. About one hundred persons were in attendance, and the day was spent chats. At noon two commodious tables were set with delicacies of the season, and such palatable dishes as our mothers used to cook. Mr. W. N. Reynolds, jr., acted as secretary, and Hon, W. N. Reynolds as president. A registry and brief history of each one present was obtained by the secretary, and at 3.30 o'clock a business meeting was held and the following officers were elected for one year: President, Hon. W. N. Reynolds; vice president, E. S. Hinds; secretary, W. N Reynolds, jr.; treasurer, E. C. Reyrolds. Factoryville was decided upon as the place of holding next year's meeting, the place and time being left for the officers to decide. Following the business meeting, speeches were made by Hon. W. N. Reynolds and Rev. W. J. Watkins. The reunion was made an annual affair by a vote of those present, and next year three or when a fine entertainment will be ar-

The Reynolds family are a very large family, in fact the largest in this country, they being quite extensively conrecied with the Gardners and Capwells which are also very numerous, a queer heident in the familles of Reynolds and Capwells being that six Reynoldses married Capwell girls, but no Capwells married any Reynolds girls. The oldest Reynolds present at the reunion was Mrs. Joan Reynolds, previously Joan McCracken, wife of the late Farnam Reynolds, of West Nicholson, she being 80 years old.

CHILD'S MUTILATED BODY.

Is Found Floating in the Susquebonna at Wilkes-Barre.

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 1 .- At about 2:15 o'clock this afternoon two little boys named Thomas and George Darrah, who were playing about the river near Ress street, saw an object floating in the water and securing a pole fished the object in to shore, where it was found to be the body of a prematurely born child. The body was wrapped in a piece of muslin and that in turn in a newspaper. The body is that of a girl haby and is about six inches long. It is in a good state of preservation and had not been long in the water,

The head is badly discolored and shows a scar which was evidently inflicted by a sharp instrument. Coroner McKee and Chief of Police Briggs have been notified but there is no clue as to where the body came from.

BOLD BURGLARY AT PITTSTON.

Nervy Thieves Enter a House Between 8,30 and 9 p. m. Pittston, Sept. 1 .- An audacious burglary was perpetrated at Pittston last evening. The audacity of it lies in the fact that it was committed between 8.30 and 9 o'clock before most of the family had retired. For the past few days carpenters have been working about the residence of Elias Jones. on Parsonage street, and they left the ladder near the house when through work yesterday. The thieves evidently saw their chance and by the aid of the ladder entered the upstairs of the At the time Mrs. Jones was working in the pantry, her daughter was playing the piano and Mr. Jones about the floors. They were obviously after plunder costly but easily port-able and they succeeded in getting $88 in cash, a gold watch, a silver shaving cup and razor. They did not carry off any of the larger pieces of property, although they thoroughly searched all the rooms. The burglary was not discovered until Mrs. Jones and her daughter went upstairs to retire about an hour later.

SUGAR NOTCH MINE CAVE.

Quite an Extensive Fall on Monday Which Thwarts Inquiry.

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 1.-The Maffit nine at Sugar Notch, operated by the Crescent Coal company, which had been "working" for a couple of days, caved Monday afternoon. Although sobody has since been into the mine to investigate the cave, the danger being too great to permit an entrance, it is said that it is quite extensive.

The portion of the mine caved is in the east side and extends to within about 300 feet of the foot of the shaft There are three veins affected—the Red Ash, the Ross and the Marsden. One gangway which was being worked is said to be involved in the cave. It is thought that the cave extends over an area of about 300 feet.
