hocked tail. It hasn't been determined whether the uniforms, the swagger or the bull pup flabber-gasted the Miners, but they were flabber-gasted just the same, and were as near to winning the game as is the Washington monument in danger of sinking into China. Five hits scattered so far apart as to be unnoticable, the attempt of Gunson to play left field and bunched Montreal hits did the business, Errors by Walters and Gunson gave Montreal an unearned run in the open-sixth that the Miners could tle the score. In that inning Harper's single and fast sprinting and Bonner's twobaser earned a run. Up to the eighth inning the only hits off Harper were a bunt by Shearon and Shannon's grounder, which was stopped by Sullivan, but couldn't be fielded. In the eighth two singles and a base on balls with one out and Shearon's two-baser, developed three runs.
