EASTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL GAMES

Miners Succeeded in Taking Both Games From Montreal.

WILKES-BARRE LOST TWICE

All of the clubs in the Eastern league played two games yesterday and Scranton was fortunate enough to win both from Montreal. Wilkes-Barre lost both to Providence. Yesterday's contests did not make any change in the position of the clubs.

In the National league great changes were made by yesterday's games. Baltimore by defeating Pittsburgh twice jumped over the Boston and again has the lead in the race for the pennant with Boston and New York close on their heels. Washington's two victories elevated that club from eleventh to seventh place.

TWO FOR THE MINERS.

They Made Monkeys of Shannon's Men in the First Game and Finished Strong in the Second.

Montreal, Sept. 6.—Costly errors accounted for Montreal's defeat in both games today, coupled with timely hitting by Scranton in the first game, when they hit Gannon as they pleased. Score:

Plenty of Batting.
Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 6.—The Stars had a batting contest this morning, in which the home team won out. Both teams used two pitchers. The Stars did the sharper work on the bases, and that helped them out. The Stars had the afternoon game when in the fifth Earl dropped a thrown ball and lost a chance to retire the side. Scores:

RACES AT FLEETWOOD.

Three Thousand Spectators Witness the Grand Circuit Events.

New York, Sept. 6.—Over three thousand spectators were at Fleetwood park this afternoon to see the big light harness sport in the opening day of the grand circuit meeting. The weather was perfect and the track in the pink of condition. Speculations were brisk and heavy. The big event of the day was the $200 Manhattan purse for 2 1/2 trotters, and pools sold Louis Victor 450 and the field 55, which really meant Oakland Baron, as the race was conceded to the pair. Oakland Baron led all the way and won in straight heats, in the last pulling up at the wire a winner by six lengths.

DIAMOND DUST.
The Providence club has beaten the Toronto in 10 out of 15 games. They have also beaten the Buffalo in 10 out of 15. Mr. Kuntzsch is going into hipodromia. He proposes to hold three sittings on so-called punching and boxing before one of the games next week. It will be an entertainment, the posters will announce, as pleasing to ladies and children as to gents. We had hoped that we would be spared this kind of side-show business.

Scranton papers announce that the Buffalo series scheduled for Scranton week after next has been transferred to Buffalo. This is done without the consent of the other clubs and is only another instance of the farcical way of doing things in the Eastern League. The Buffalo series fair play never is considered for a moment. It is a race for boodle, not for the pennant—Springfield Union.

Proprietor Kuntzsch gave out a bunch of interesting bits of news last night. He announced the sale of the Egan & Brooklyn—but don't be alarmed, this does not become effective until after the season closes—of the franchise of Fitcher Horton, formerly of Baltimore. This is the same Horton that Arthur Irwin claims to have signed. The Egan deal is a wise one on the part of Kuntzsch, for if he returns he secures the release of Second Base-man Caravan from Manager Barnes and $500 in cash. It is wise because Egan was sure to go at the end of the season. Besides Brooklyn, Boston, Louisville, Philadelphia and Washington were all anxious to get the services of Bill. —Syracuse Courier.

AMATEUR BALL NOTES.
The Nonpareils, of Pritchburg, accept the challenge of the Olympian Browns and will play at Olympian park on September 8. The Athletics, of Bellevue, defeated the Lilies, of Dutch Hollow, by a score of 25 to 17. The feature of the game was Dugman's catch of a fly ball and Costello's sliding.

A large crowd of people saw the Dunmore Nonpareils take the Crescents of Fine Bros, scarp yesterday afternoon on the latter's grounds. The Nonpareils batted the Crescents' pitchers all over the field. E. O'Hara's work at short and home runs, his Kennedy's pitching were the feature of the game. The Pritchburg Reds defeated the Olympian Crescents on Sunday last by a score of 18 to 7, in a very interesting contest.

One of the greatest amateur games of base ball of the season will undoubtedly be played next Saturday at Athletic park between the two greatest amateur ball clubs in the city, the Harmonies and the Lackawanna. The Royals challenge the Tycons for a game of ball Saturday morning at 10 a. m. for 25 cents. J. McCann, manager; T. Gaughan, captain.

The Lilies, of Archbald, challenge the Stars, of Jessup to a game of ball on the latter's grounds, Sept. 12. They accept the challenge of the Crescents, of Pine Brook, on the latter's grounds, Sept. 11. P. F. Muey, manager.
