SUIT OF EVANS VS. SUMMERHILL.

Testimony With Reference to It Heard Before Alderman Moses. An amusing law suit which grew out of the digging of a ditch for water last evening. Elias Evans formerly occupied a house owned by Isaac Sum-merhill, of 213 North Everett avenue, and desired the laying of some water pipes to bring the water to a convenient place in the house. He spoke of the matter to his landlord, and Mr.

Summerhill procured a permit to make the trench, but did not get it done, Mr. Evans volunteered to do it, and his landlord said neither yea nor nay. The work was done and a bill for $4.50 for the services of five men employed by Mr. Evans was presented to Mr. Summerhill. He refused to pay. A suit was the next step taken by Mr. Evans. There were witnesses galore, and several items were entered by Mr. Summerhill to offset the amount claimed by Mr. Evans. These items were the labor or two men employed by grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Robertson, Mr. Summerhill, beer furnished for the workmen of Evans and ploughing done in Evan's garden, Judgment was given Mr. Evans for $3.50, he agreeing to

LITTLE GIRL LOST.

The 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ziba Phillips, of 225 Edwards court,, caused her parents much anxiety yesterday afternoon by suddenly disappearing. A search was instituted as soon as the child was missed, but proved fruitless. Later, however, a message was received at Jenkins' pharmacy, stating that a little girl had been found on Capouse avenue near New York street and belonged in West Patrolman Matthews was notified and the little wanderer proved to be the lost Phillips child. She was restored to her anxious parents. She had gone "to see the bands" was her statement and couldn't find her way back home.

GRAHAM ARRESTED.

Edward Graham, a resident of Pine Brook, came to West Scranton yesterday on a rampage. He located himself with some convivial friends in Hennessey court and proceeded to have a good time. His wife came over to take him home, but he would not go, so she had a warrant issued from Alderman John's office for his arrest. Con-
