DAY OF WEDDINGS.

Three Interesting Marriage Ceremonies Performed Here---The Young People Who Were Joined for Life.

A trio of weddings occurred in West Scranton yesterday, one each in the morning, afternoon and evening. Miss Barbara Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Williams, of 1009 Eynon street, was married to David Lewis, of Eynon street, at 7.30 yesterday morning by Rev. S. F. Mat-thews, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage and the couple were unattended. The bride was attired in dark wedding cloth. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the 8 o'clock Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for New York city on their wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at 1005 Eynon street in a newlyfurnished home. Both of the contracting parties are well known. Mr. Lewis employed at the grocery store of Hon, J. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, parents of the bride, tendered their friends an afternoon tea in honor of the marriage of their daugh-

Miss Martha Williams, of 1234 Academy street, was united in marriage to William Malnwaring, of Durvea, last evening at the parsonage of the First Welsh Baptist church, Rev. David Jones, pastor, performed the ceremony and the couple were unattended. The bride was attired in a gown of dark brown wedding cloth. Mr. and Mrs. Mainwaring went to Duryea immediately after the ceremony, where they will reside. Mrs. Mainwaring is a sister of Dr. M. J. Williams and enjoys a large circle of acquaintances. Mainwaring belongs to a prominent Pittston family and is employed as engineer at the Simpson & Watkins colliery at Duryea.

Miss Idella Malott, daughter of the late P. J. Malott, was married to William D. Reese, of Evans court, yester-day afternoon at 5 o'clock. The cere-warm welcome just accorded him. The mony was performed at the parsonage church by the pastor, Rev. Hugh Davies. They were attended by Miss Louisa Schadt, a step-sister of the bride, and Thomas Davis, best man, The bride was attired in white organdie, over pink silk, and carried bridal roses. Miss Schadt wore a gown of white India linen and carried white

FARRELL DID NOT PAY.

The incarceration of Patrick Farrell, of 110 North Everett avenue, in the station house over Tuesday night and his release yesterday upon ball furnished by a friend, is the outcome of peculiar circumstances. On Aug. 3, 1897, Mr. Farrell was arrested by Constable Burschell and given a hearing before Alderman Moses at the instance of charge 's' obtaining money by false pretense." Mr. Marker had given his pretense." whilom friend, Farrell, $20 with which to secure the transfer of an insurance policy from Mrs. Marker. She was the beneficiary and was willing to sell her claim for $20. Mr. Farrell spent $4 for some writing service and one dollar was given to an alderman; the rest he spent otherwise. To settle the case Farrell gave his note for 30 days to cover the costs and the amount given to him. Saturday last the note was due but no money was forthcoming and after being allowed three days' grace, Farrell was again apprehended and placed in jail. He entered bail for his appearance at court.

PASTOR DE GRUCHY HONORED.

The members of the Jackson Street Baptist church and Sabbath school tendered their pastor, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, and family, a reception at the church last evening. The occasion was a welcome home after a pleasant vacation of a month. John Davies, acting as chairman. After an anthem by the choir David H. Williams read a selection from the Scriptures and W. O. Jenkins offered prayer. A hymn was sung and a recitation by Miss Anna Thomas was followed with a solo by Miss Martha B. Nicholls. Edward Howell, licentiate, made an address of velcome in behalf of those present. Miss Nettie Lewis recited and short addresses were delivered by Mrs. John H. Lewis, Mrs. David C. Williams, John Lloyd, John S. Harris, Edward D. Collins, John C. Morris, George Coombs, Ivan Jones, D. C. Thomas and Richard Nichells. Another hymn was sung and choir sang an anthem, and after the the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist singing of a hymn a general hand shak-

Fourteenth Anniversary of the Organization of the Loyal Knights of America Celebrated.

The fourteenth anniversary of the organization of Garfield lodge, Loyal Knights of America, was fittingly celebrated last night with a parade and entertainment. The members of the odge were assisted in the celebration by the Anthracite Wheelmen

At 7.30 the procession started, headed by the Citizen's band. Two hundred members of the Anthracite Wheelmen, under the command of Captain Edward Keifer, came after the band, mounted on bleycles. They were in turn closely followed by the members of the lodge, who wore white caps and the regulation regalia of the order. The procession passed over a number of the principal streets and the marchers then proceeded to Company H armory, which was already thronged with the friends of the organization. W. B. Owens was chairman of the meeting, and in opening it he made a neat speech, thanking the residents of North Scranton for the interest displayed in the society's welfare. A programme of rare excellence was rendered, after which refreshments were served. The floor was then cleared for dancing, which was indulged in until a late hour. The society will
