AMATEUR BASE BALL. WON BY THE LACKAWANNAS.

Defeated the Harmonies in a Ten-

Inning Contest. The Lackawannas and Harmonles played a most exciting game of ball at Athletic Park, Saturday afternoon, before a fair-sized crowd. It took ten innings to decide the game. Outside of May's second base work the Har-

In the Lackawanna's half they scored an earned run; in the tenth the Haymonies were blanked. The first two men up for the Lackawannas were easy outs. Finnerty, the next man up, started the ball rolling out to left field. Golden drew a base on balls. Hayes then came to the bat amid great ex-citement and brought the winning run in, by driving out a pretty hit to right.

AN EXCITING CONTEST.

Eleven Innings Played by Crescents and Minooka Teams.

About two thousand people sessed a hotly contested game of base ball played on the Minooka grounds yesterday afternoon between the Crescent and Minooka base ball teams. Eleven innings were played, the score being 9 to 7 in favor of the Crescents. For ten innings it was nip and tuck, neither side having any advantage, but in the eleventh inning, with two men out, and two men on the bases, Mc-Hale made a terrific drive for two bases, sending in the winning runs, Minooka was unable to score in thefr half of the eleventh

Hart, the Minooka pitcher, retired in the ninth inning in favor of O'Neil, but he did little better. Laffey's three-base hit, the pitching of Shipman, who struck out seventeen men, and the catching of Cooney were the principal features. Following is the score by innings:

Earned runs-Crescents, 6; Minooka, 4. Base on balls-By Shipman, 6; by Hart, 4. Wild pitches-Shipman, 5; Hart, 4. Struck out-By Shipman, 17; by Hart, 8, Batteries-Shipman and Toomey; Hart and Laf-fey. Umpire-Padden.

RACING SANCTION REVOKED.

of the racing board, L. A. W., has issued the following special bulletin: The sanction for bicycle races granted the Delaware county fair, Marcus Hook, Pa., for Sept. 14, 15 and 16, is revoked, and all racing men under the jurisdiction of the L. A. W. are warned not to ride on the premises. After the sanction was granted, the promoters advertised ladies' bicycle races to take place on the premises.

TIGHE AND ABBOTT MATCHED.

They Will Try Conclusions Here or September 21.

John Tigue, of South Scranton, and Stanton Abbott, now of Boston, recently of England, will meet on Sept. 21, in boxing match. Although the match has been arranged a place for the event to come off has not been selected

They are both good men. Abbott is the ex-champion light-weight of England and has fought a number of battles. Tigue's ability is well known hereabouts and his friends are confident he will win.

FAMOUS HORSES OF BLUE GRASS STATE

They Have Won Nearly All of the Great Races of Recent Years.

THE PRIZES TAKEN THIS YEAR

Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee Derbys Were Won by Horses That Were Foated in Kentucky .- The Metropolitan, Brooklyn and Saburban Races Were Also Won by Horses from the Same State .- They Are Proud of Their Horses. W. S. Barnes, of Lexington, who for several years at Washington park,

Chicago, as chief of the board of stewards and prending judge, has this to say concerning racing in Kentucky: "We have had hard times there for the last few years, but business is now improving, and the Bluegrass region remains the birthplace and home of the true thoroughbred race horse. Why do I claim this? Simply because Longfellow. Tenbrook, Hindoo, Tenny Domino, Salvator, Jim Gore, Hanover, Ferenzi, Miss Woodford and The Butterflies were foaled in Kentucky. Our state can hold its own against the United States when it comes to thoroughbreds. Look at this year, for in-

"The Louisiana derby was won by Meadowthorpe, a horse foaled within one mile of Lexington; the Arkansas derby was won by a Kentucky horse; another won the Tennessee derby; and yet a fourth was first for the grand prize at Nashville.

"The Kentucky derby went to a Tennessee-bred horse, but it was said at the time that Clayton's bad ride cost Ornament, a Kentucky horse, the race, and from the showing since-Ornament easily defeated Typhoon II. at St. Louis-it looks as if he should have won the Louisville event.

OTHER VICTORIES.

"Ornament won the Clark stakes, the derby and Himyar at Latonia, the Oakley derby, and when he at last was defeated, through a heavy impost and a heavier track, what was it beat him? Fleischmann, a Kentucky-bred horse. Howland, conceded the best of western two-year-olds, came to the Futurity, at Louisville, with an unbeaten record, yet had his colors lowered by Bannockburn, one of ours. "Eolthem is considered the best colt at St. Louis. Certainly he's from Kentucky. He was beaten by Knowles, but Knowles, his conqueror, was raised on bluegrass. Now take a look at the big eastern handlcaps. The Metropolitan, Brooklyn and Suburban were all won -Lally, 4. Umpire-Mr. Wellner. Timeby horses foaled in Kentucky, as also was the Brooklyn derby and that at Coney Island. The $10,000 Tremont stake, at Brooklyn, was won by Handball. Kentucky bred, and the great Eclipse, at Westchester, went to Frohman, from the same state. Hamburg beyond a doubt the best two-year-old of the year, winner of the Double Event and Great Trial stakes, is the star of the lot we have sent out this year, unless Howland, from the same county, is better. PROUD OF THEIR HORSES. "Strange to say, all of the abovementioned horses were foaled within a radius of twenty-five miles of Lexington. We've got 'em, sure, on the thor oughbreds, and naturally feel a pride in the fact that our state produces orses than are foale elsewhere. Yet against us we have the immense breeding farms on the Pacific slope of Haggin, Stanford, Baldwin McDonough and Spreckles, and those in New Jersey of P. Lorillard, the Thompsons and Appleby, to say nothing of those of lesser note throughou the United States.

"That's the reason why colts from this section of the country, and by the sires that have produced such race horses, are always sure to bring good prices, comparatively, even in hard times."

professional boxing contests, and the prospects of the bill becoming a law are bright.

The effort to have the law above referred to enacted explains the offer of a Wall street, New York, syndicate of $15,000 for the Sharkey and Maher fight. It is understood that if the bill becomes a law that "Tim" Sullivan, of New York, is to be allowed to have a boxing club in the province, and that it will be the leading club. A number of wealthy Wall street brokers are behind Sullivan in the enterprise, and they have empowered him to make the offer for the fight named. Messrs. Quinn and Connolly, who represent Maher, are willing to go to Canada and have the contest take place there; in fact, they would sooner go there than anywhere else. The Sharkey party are also quite willing to go to Canada, so that all that is necessary for the fight to take place is for the law to go into operation. If the bill is passed it will not be any half measure like the Horton law, as the Canadians, like the English, do not do things of that kind by halves. There will be no stopping of a fight in the first or second round by the police, which power gives a few individuals a profit-making "pull" in large cities. The law will permit a contest that will be satisfactory to all concerned.
