He had skated alpine glaciers. Lived in climates where others died; He had journeyed over deserts; Where companions fell and died; He had swam the Mississippi; Sailed the skies in airship flight; But he dropped in sheer exhaustion; Biking up Mulberry street.

"Oh, dear me!" sighed a pretty Scranton girl yesterday. "This afternoon Jimmie was going to take me bicycle riding over the Boulevard and there he is down at Hazelton among the strikers. I do think he might get off for a day and come home; guess the Colonel would let him if he should ask. That's just the way some men act when they make engagements."

They try hard to make people say the "Lycium" but after all it's the "Frothingham" with everybody. A much exasperated young man up near Towanda arose in his wrath and assailed a dentist the other day because, in his judgment, the latter hurt him more than the occasion warranted. The dentist is now seeking redress through the courts for the punning received from his patient—or rather im-patient. It is said that dentists in this city as well as elsewhere are watching the case with intense interest. If the general public discovers that it can get back at the modern inquisition which is located in the vicinity of a dental chair, there will be a large number of scores to settle.

Miss Bessie Dean, the well-known teacher of mandolin, banjo and guitar, will give one of her delightful musicales at the home of Mrs. M. W. Torrey, on Adams avenue, early in October. Down on Penn avenue yesterday morning several ragged little urchins were peeping and making much of an unhappy looking animal confined to an open box by a chain, and calling him "poor doggie," and other endearing terms. He had bloodshot eyes and a very sharp nose, and altogether was not an engaging looking beast. Still less desire had he when for making friends with him when it transpired that the "poor doggie" was a real Simon pure wolf.

PERSONAL. T. J. Jordan, of Alderman Millar's court, is at Hazelton. Mrs. Howell, of Green Ridge, is returning Mrs. Conklin, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Lilly Kriehle is the guest of friends at Marshwood. Miss Katherine Hart, of New York city, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Burnett. Frank Koch, of New Jersey, is the guest of his uncle, Victor Koch, of the Scranton House. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shives, of Madison avenue, are home after a week's stay at Union Springs, N. Y. Cyclist H. B. Strong has returned from Auburn, N. H., where he won four first prizes out of six races. DINED AT THE JERMYN. Ex-City Solicitor Torrey Entertained Republican Members of Council. Last night ex-City Solicitor J. H. Torrey dined at the Hotel Jermyr by way of expressing his appreciation of the unwavering manner in which they supported him during his recent candidacy for re-election as city solicitor. The dinner was served in the private dining room on the second floor, and was a very enjoyable event. The menu was excellent and the enjoyment thorough, although the event was not in celebration of a victory. Mr. Torrey's guests sat down to the table at 7 p. m. and it was three hours and a half later when the party broke up. All of the Republican members of council were present, save Select Councilman Fred Durr and Common Councilman T. J. Jackson and Joseph Oliver, who were unable to be present. Those present were: Select Councilmen George Sanderson, Finley Ross, Wade M. Finn, William J. Thomas, Richard H. Williams, C. E. Chittenden, Charles F. Wagner, H. T. Fellows, Adam Schroeder, J. A. Lansing, and Common Councilmen David H. Reese, Simon Fennell, H. Walker, James Mohr, Edward F. Wenzel, Philip Wirth and Luther Keller. After the menu was discussed to the satisfaction of all, there was a short season of impromptu speech making. BULLET WAS NOT LOCATED. Celebrated Is Now at the West Side Hospital—Assailant Uncaught. Giovanni Celeberti, who was taken from Dunmore to the West Side hospital Monday night, underwent a second operation for the bullet yesterday by the staff physicians. The ball, which entered Celeberti's left groin, was not located. He bears under his wounds with remarkable fortitude and may recover. Luango, the assailant, succeeded in evading the police yesterday. County Detective Levison and City Detective Mohr are at work on the case. County Detective Levison has taken precaution against Luango's reappearance in Dunmore. He will be arrested as soon as he sets foot in the place. RICE & BARTON'S COMPANY. It is a Great Favorite with Theatergoers Hereabouts. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday will appear at Davis' theater that ever welcome aggregation, Rice and Barton's Big Gaiety Spectacular Extravaganza company, which it can be said without any fear of contradiction, is one of the companies that can always be relied on to give a first-class performance, free from any vulgarity or offensive features. Rice and Barton have this season gathered under their banner the greatest company of artists they ever carried, numbering some twenty-five people all told, each one of which is an artist in his or her respective line. DOOMED TO DISAPPOINTMENT. He who expects to become a fine pianist without a solid technical foundation is as surely doomed to disappointment as is the man who builds his house upon quicksand. The Scranton Conservatory of Music is abreast with the most thorough modern methods evolved by the greatest living musicians and teachers, and uses all the means which most quickly, yet most surely, make thorough musicians. The Conservatory instructors in piano are J. Alfred Pennington and Miss S. Louise Hardenbergh. The terms are moderate and the term card admits to numerous free advantages. ACADEMY OF MUSIC. SESSIONS OF THE GERMAN MINISTERS

Transacted a Good Deal of Business, Morning and Afternoon.

ORANGE, N. J., NEXT MEETING PLACE

Report of the Committee on Bloomfield Seminary Shows That the Prospects for the Institution Were Never Brighter—Dr. Know, President of the Institution, Sent a Communication Concerning It—New Committee on Seminary That Was Appointed.

The second session of the association of German ministers and elders of the eastern states opened yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the Hickory Street German Presbyterian church. This association has for its object the fostering of the German language for church work. The membership is derived from the several synods and has enrolled about seventy-five, though there are only about thirty active members. It was founded in Paterson, N. J., in 1874, and has accomplished a grand work. Since organization an organ known as the "German Evangelist" was started and has gradually become the factor in the advancement of the work of the association and the propagation of its ideas.

Rev. W. A. Nordt, pastor of the Hickory street church, and his congregation have given every attention to the comfort and entertainment of the visiting delegates. Inside the altar railing and on the pulpit platform potted palms and flowering plants are arranged.

The morning session was begun at 9 o'clock with devotional exercises led by Rev. Albert Goddahu, of Jeffersonville, N. Y., a former missionary to Africa. Elders George Kirchoff, of South Scranton, and Peter Yost, of Paterson, were elected as delegates. Rev. Buieck, pastor of the German Methodist church of this city, was admitted as an associate member. Rev. George Schumacher was president pro tem in the absence of President Schmidt, of Paterson, N. J. Rev. Albert E. Wirth, of Elizabeth, N. J., as permanent secretary, was assisted by Rev. J. A. Frey, of Rahway, N. Y.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED. A communication was read stating that Dr. Seibert, of the Bloomfield seminary, who had been seriously ill, was improving. Resolutions which had previously been adopted by the alumni of the seminary in reference to the death of members were read and endorsed by the association. The treasurer, Rev. Louis Wolfertz, reported upon the status of the Bible readers in Africa and his report indicated flattering progress. Rev. A. Goddahu, of Jefferson, spoke upon this work of the Bible readers and its efficiency with a view of increasing the number of readers and thus covering a larger field.

Chairman Albert E. Wirth, of the publication committee, reported upon the paper, the German Evangelist, of which he is managing editor. The report was thorough and concise. It embodied the request that the ministers and church officials endeavor to increase the paper's circulation and consequently its usefulness. To this publication committee which consists of Rev. Albert E. Wirth, Rev. H. C. Gruhnert, Rev. A. W. Flesner, Dr. H. Weber, and Rev. Carl Vullmeier, was added Rev. Louis Wolfertz.

Dr. H. Weber, chairman of the committee on value, reported that no vacancies existed. Rev. F. G. Kern, chairman of the auditing committee, reported that the treasurer's accounts were in first rate shape. The morning session was adjourned until 2 o'clock at this point.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT. The first item of business considered after reconvening was the report of the Bloomfield Seminary committee who reported that the seminary never had brighter prospects and that a successful year had just passed. The question of home missions then came up and the committee on missions, of which Dr. H. Weber, Rev. A. W. Flesner, Rev. P. W. Fock, Rev. J. F. Kern and Rev. G. Schumacher, Rev. F. W. Hock, presented a report which indicated an encouraging outlook. The organizing of other mission posts was considered and many valuable suggestions advanced.

Dr. H. Weber read a communication from Dr. Knox, president of the Bloomfield seminary, who was unable to be present. It proved very interesting to the association. The following new committees were appointed: Committee on Seminary, Rev. R. Stier, Sayreville, N. J.; Rev. H. C. Gruhnert, Orange, N. J.; Rev. Fred Muller, South River, Pa.; Rev. J. A. Frey, Rahway, N. Y. Committees on Resolutions of Thanks: Rev. H. R. Stier and Rev. A. Goddahu. Considerable time was given to the selection of a place for the convention of next year. It was finally decided to meet at Orange, N. J., on the second Monday in September. Rev. W. A. Nordt, pastor of the church offered the benediction and the work of the afternoon session came to an end.

EVENING ADDRESSES. The evening was devoted to listening to the addresses of Dr. H. Weber, Rev. A. Goddahu and Rev. Louis Wolfertz, who spoke upon the mission work, both home and foreign and upon other topics of interest to the association and its chosen field. Rev. F. G. Kern, president, and the choir opened the exercises by singing a hymn, and prayer was offered by Rev. F. W. Hock. Before the close of the evening exercises the committee on resolutions reported and the resolutions were read, which return the hearty thanks and deep appreciation of the visiting brethren, who had been so kindly treated at the hands of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Nordt, the congregation of the Hickory Street German Presbyterian church and the Ladies' Aid Society. The memory of their pleasant sojourn within their would long remain.

Today's trip of sight-seeing will be carried out. In the morning they will visit the Bellevue mines; in the afternoon picturesque Fairview will be visited and at night the party will do the steel mills. The delegates one and all have thus far thoroughly enjoyed the visit here and the hospitality of pastor Nordt and his people.

WILL WEAR UNIFORMS. Dunning and His Foreman Were Measured Yesterday. Street Commissioner A. B. Dunning, Jr., yesterday took another step forward to his ideal of street cleaning department. Himself and four foremen went to Horan & Merrill's establishment and were measured for special uniforms. The suits will be of blue cloth and a specially designed hat may be added within a short time. The bicycle policeman, H. C. Hall, wears a blue suit and white cap. "His work," said Mr. Dunning yesterday, "has proved very effective. Only one arrest has been made necessary but there has been a general improvement in the streets in respect to refuse matter carelessly distributed."

COMMISSION HAS ARRIVED. Mrs. W. B. Duggan Is Now a Full-Fledged Police Officer. Mrs. W. B. Duggan is now a full-fledged police officer. Her commission issued by Governor D. H. Hastings, was received yesterday by Recorder of Deeds Heuster and before him Mrs. Duggan subscribed to the fee of $10. Her commission clothes her with the powers of a police officer anywhere in Pennsylvania. For ten years Mrs. Duggan has been a most valuable adjunct to the police department of this city. Although not directly connected with the law, she is an agent of the board of associated charities and society for the prevention of cruelty to children and aged persons has brought her into contact with a class to whom the police have to devote a good deal of attention. Many of the persons she came in contact with, knew she was not clothed with any legal powers and her influence over them was not what it would be if it was known that she represented the city of the law. Now it will be different and although Mrs. Duggan will not swing a club or patrol a beat she will have as much authority as any blue coat that does. Her commission will be of great assistance to her in rescuing fallen women from haunts of vice and in getting possession of children who are raised by their mothers in dens where shameless vice holds forth night and day. Resorts that supply girls of tender years with intoxicating drinks will also come in for some of Mrs. Duggan's attention. She is a woman who goes about her work quietly and in appearance is about the last person one would suspect of being a police officer. She is a lady like reserve that is an inseparable part of the woman she possesses a world of determination and never flinches in the performance of any duty no matter how dangerous it may be.

MORGAN TURNED REFORMER. Charged John W. Jackson with Keeping a Gambling House, but Did Not Appear to Prosecute. A gambling den at 397 Center street came to light yesterday when John W. Jackson and a colored man named Brown were arrested on a warrant. Jackson was taken to the police station out before Alderman Howe by Tom Morgan. It is known to be in operation for over a year past, but so well has it been conducted that this is the first time the law has had its attention directed to it. Mr. Sweeney's vice and immorality committee passed it by as being unworthy of its notice. The class of patrons is poor and the "limit" is very low. The den is conducted in a dingy room over a stable. One large oil lamp sheds light over a table at which the games of crap and poker are played. A regular banker is there. He sells "chips" for ten cents to 50 cents, and the lower limit is the favorite. The players are mixed-colored and among the dealers the latter there generally can be seen boys under 15 years of age. One lad who is a regular patron is a son of a prominent West Side man. He has become an inveterate gambler and lives on the proceeds. The game of crap, which is the favorite with the colored patrons, is played with the abandon characteristic of colored people when laboring under great excitement.

Morgan, the man who swore out the information before Alderman Howe yesterday, had a grudge against the place. A hearing was set for 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but, as partly expected, Morgan did not put in an appearance, and the two men were discharged. The information which Morgan swore to states that "there is a faro table, poker is played and crap. Boys under 16 years are admitted."

LOT WAS NOT PAID FOR. John B. Shannon Sues to Recover the Amount Due Him. John B. Shannon, of Carbonate, yesterday brought suit against Francisco Manfredi and Francesco Manfredi to collect $1,625.25. The defendants bought a lot from Shannon on a contract agreeing to pay $1,200 for it. In May, 1896, Francesco Manfredi died and after that payments on the lot ceased. Mr. Shannon has therefore brought suit to collect the balance due him.

WALDRON'S HORSES HERE. To Be Sold Tomorrow. Waldron's horse, which are to be sold at auction Thursday at Cusick's Livery, arrived in town yesterday afternoon and today they will all be shown in harness to demonstrate their driving qualities. They are of all sizes and colors and were especially selected by Mr. Waldron for this sale and he is confident that they are the best lot he ever brought to Scranton. He has pieces that are fast; gentlemen's drivers that have more than the usual amount of speed and knee action; and riders that have all the gates—in fact the horse you want is here, and to be sold regardless of cost or bid. Thursday, at one o'clock, Cusick's Stables.

SHERIFF MARTIN IS DENOUNCED

Resolutions Passed by the Central Labor Union Last Night.

PUBLIC MEETING IS CALLED

Will Be Held Thursday Night at the Intersection of Millin Avenue and Linden Street Bridge--The Indignant Meeting Held by Polish and Lithuanian Residents--Judicial Resolutions Passed by the Scranton Typographical Union.

At a meeting of the Central Labor union held last night, strong resolutions were passed condemning Sheriff Martin, of Luzerne county for his action at Lattimer last Friday. A committee consisting of one member of each labor organization connected with the union was appointed to make arrangements for a general mass meeting to be held Thursday evening. This meeting will take place at the intersection of Linden street bridge and Millin avenue, if arrangements for the use of the street can be made with the city authorities. A number of prominent speakers will be invited to address the meeting.

Tuesday night the Polish and Lithuanian residents of the city held an indignation meeting in the basement of St. Stanislaus church, on Locust street, South Side, at which the action of Sheriff Martin and his deputies was condemned in no uncertain terms. Speeches were made by Rev. Francis Hodur, pastor of the church, Frank Brown, John Lovitiskis and Dr. John Szlupas. Before the meeting closed a collection was taken up for the widows and orphans of the men who were killed Friday. It amounted to $21.75.

STONG RESOLUTIONS. At a meeting of Scranton Typographical union Sunday afternoon the following resolutions were adopted bearing upon Friday's tragedy at Lattimer: Whereas the pages of history have been darkened and civilization disgraced by the awful calamity at Lattimer, Luzerne county, on Friday, Sept. 10, due to Sheriff Martin's reckless use of the laws of the commonwealth and his bloodthirsty desire for notoriety, whereby he has placed himself on history's page as the king of murderers of the Nineteenth century, whose victims' blood will surely cry to heaven for vengeance, and the tears of their widows and orphans speak aloud for justice to this band of red-handed assassins, and

Whereas we deplore that sad catastrophe in a land of civilization, and which has brought the blush of shame upon the fair name of our country, and cast gloom and dismay upon the homes of so many helpless families, whose guiding stars and bread-providers have been so ruthlessly swept away in cowardly and cold-blooded murder; therefore, be it resolved by Scranton Typographical union, No. 112, in regular session assembled, that, while we uphold and believe in maintaining law and order and the guaranteeing of the rights of freedom and citizenship to all men, yet we must stamp the seal of our condemnation on this shameful and wholesale slaughter of human life, through the hasty and thoughtless use of our laws, placed in the hands of a man whose impeachment should follow with a swift vengeance. And be it further

Resolved, That we recommend to our representatives at Harrisburg the consideration of some law that would guarantee to the poor miner, who is now almost on a level with the serf, the right to buy his groceries and provisions, etc., where he pleases, other than at the sweatshop company stores of these greedy corporations, whose starvation wages and coercive tactics are wholly responsible for this terrible disaster and all kindred troubles throughout the coal regions, and be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this union that Sheriff James Martin and his band of cowardly and cold-blooded murderers be brought to justice for their awful act, and that their blood should be made to flow on the banner of crime to serve as a warning to others who may have occasion to invoke the law in such cases.
